OBITUARY

Mrs. S. J. Beatty Dies in 92nd Year

After a short illness, Mrs. Sarah Jane Beatty died at her home, Dover Ave., Acton, on October 27. She was in her 92nd year.

Mrs. Beatty was the widow of the late Alexander Beatty. She is survived by three daughters and seven sons, and one brother. She was born in 1863 at Hillsburgh.

Rev. E. A. Curry conducted the funeral service at the Victor Rumbley and Son funeral home on October 29. Nephews acted as pallbearers. Interment was in Huxley's cemetery.

Resident of Home Farm For 60 Years

Resident of the home farm adjoining Acton for 60 years and one of the best known and highly esteemed citizens of this district, Joseph Flynn passed away last Friday at his home on No. 25 highway just south of Acton. Although Mr. Flynn's health has been failing for some time, he was ill only a few days before his death. He was in his 85th year. He was born in Nasagaweya township and spent his entire life on the farm.

Besides his wife, the former Miss Annie Smith, he leaves one daughter, Miss Beryl Flynn at home.

Mr. Flynn was a faithful member of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, Acton and the funeral on Tuesday morning was held with requiem mass at the church conducted by Rev. Father Morgan.

The pallbearers were A. M. McPherson, Charles Cutts, M. Steele, I. Gibbins, T. Kelly and James Mulholland.

OBITUARY

Leaves Scotland Over 62 Years Ago

Coming to Canada as a baby, James Gilbertson lived all his life over 62 years in Eden Mills and district. He passed away at his home on October 20. He was born in Scotland in 1890, son of the late John David Gilbertson and Annie Murray Wright.

He was married in 1918 to Catherine Anderson, who survives him. Mr. Gilbertson was a custom contractor.

Also remaining are two daughters, Kay (Mrs. Gordon Stevenson), Eden Mills, Marie (Mrs. Robert Davies), Guelph, a son Robert, Toronto, brothers William and Herbert in Eden Mills and sisters Beth (Mrs. J. Reid) London and Isabel (Mrs. W. Calvert) Guelph.

He was a member of Eden Mills Presbyterian church.

Funeral service was held at the Victor Rumbley and Son Funeral Home, Acton, on October 23. E. Williamson officiated.

Pallbearers were Robert Wright, James Blacklock, Andrew Laing, Jack Milne, Stan Fulton and Bill Wilson. Carrying the flowers were four grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Interment was in Eden Mills cemetery.

LOCAL NEWS

More money for the Flood Relief Fund was raised at the Halloween party at the public school.

A large pile of sand is ready near the station for the first bad snowstorm of the season.

Some excellent photographs of the aftermath of Hurricane Hazel, taken at Rockwood by Richard Harris, are on display in the Free Press window this week.

The second dance of the first series of the Square Dance Club was held in St. Alban's parish hall last Friday evening.

The first snow of the season fell on Saturday in Acton. There wasn't much but a group on Mill St. was overheard excitedly discussing skiing.

The 60 cycle transformers to be used during hydro conversion arrived in Acton last week at the substations. To be used until town transformers are changed over to 60 cycle, they are mounted on tractor-trailer floats.

Among the winners of the lucky draws held at the International Flowering Match at Brestlaw was Max Storey of Rockwood. He had the good fortune to win 100 pounds of permanent pasture grass seed valued at $60.

Remembrance Day is next Thursday. Plans have been made for the annual service in Acton, when a service in Knox Presbyterian church follows the parade past the cenotaph.

Actonians attended the biennial Ontario Progressive Conservative convention at the Royal York hotel, Toronto, this week. Several attended the dance on Tuesday evening. Mac Sproul, of the Halton county executive, attended sessions Monday.

Sunday evening Pastor Ray Costers of Acton Baptist church preached at the anniversary service of Maxwell United church near Barrie. The Hillsburgh quartet provided the special music.

Do Your Best! Be Prepared!

CUB & SCOUT NEWS

Apart from Cubbing for one week, the Pack enjoyed a short Halloween party. Costumes replaced the cub uniform for the evening, with those in the five best costumes awarded free passes to the theatre.

The evening's entertainment consisted entirely of games, sing-song and treats.

Last Friday night the Tawny Six and the Halloween costume winners were taken to the movie as their reward.

The next meeting will begin a new competition which will finish after Christmas. New cubs will receive special instruction with some being invested as Wolf Cubs.

A first proficiency star will be awarded to Ronald Mellan and with this award will be his investiture as a sixer.

Arrangements have now been completed for a second cub pack which will be started for those boys on the present waiting list. Membership will definitely be limited to 18 boys. All meetings for this second pack will be held on Tuesday evening and will begin the first Tuesday of January.

Murray Scayne, Akela.

Circle Has Prizes For Best Costumes

The Friendly Circle held a masquerade meeting in the Sunday school room of the United church on Wednesday, October 20. After a march around the room by those in costume, prizes were awarded. The prize for the seasonal costume went to Mrs. Eleanor McKeown; for the most original, Mrs. Marjory Struthers; for the most amusing, Mrs. Margaret McPherson and the fondest, Mrs. Stella Adamson. Pictures were taken by Rev. Currie of those dressed in costume.

The regular meeting, with business, devotional and entertainment, took place, with the president, Mrs. Stella Adamson, in charge. The secretary's report was read by Mrs. Freida Perkins, who will be filling this office for the remainder of the year. Final arrangements for the bazaar and fowl supper were made. Six passes were received by the Friendly Circle to be used on the tea tables at the bazaar. An enlarged picture, which was taken of the Circle, is to be framed and hung in the classroom.

Acton High School News

By Neil Benion
 Well, the Glee Club for 1954-55 began this week holding the first practice on Tuesday. Practices are being held for the commencement exercises later this season.

Miss Taylor was back to school last week after her term of convalescence. We're glad that she could be back so soon after her accident.

It seems that our teen-agers are the only students of Acton high as the night classes began on Tuesday. Night classes in English also began on Monday.

Last Friday, a Mr. Cook of the Ontario hydro spoke to the students and ran a firm entitled "C-day" which dealt with the hydro changesover.

On Tuesday and Wednesday there was some difficulty with the school's hydro converter. We were without power three times on Tuesday and once on Wednesday.

Acton Y's Men's club is starting on a series of dances in the Y.M.C.A.

Proclamation

WHEREAS men of the Town of Acton gave their lives in defence of Canada and the democratic world in World War I and World War II;

AND WHEREAS the memory of their service and sacrifice is a source of inspiration to all citizens as our nation faces new difficulties and dangers;

AND WHEREAS this memory is kept ever bright by the annual wearing of memorial poppies in their honour, and the honour of all other Canadians who died in world war service;

NOW THEREFORE I, E. Tyler, Mayor of the Town of Acton, Ont., do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 11, 1954, as Remembrance Day in the Town of Acton and urge that all citizens wear a Memorial Poppy of the Canadian Legion on that day and observe two minutes of silence at 11 a.m. And, as a further mark of respect to our glorious dead, to attend the Memorial Service in front of the Cenotaph at 11 a.m.
