

ROCKWOOD

Veterans Parade, Memorial Service

Remembrance Day was observed on Sunday and well attended, at the Cenotaph and St. John's church. A parade of veterans formed up at the public school with Mr. Martin Bauer as marshal of parade and members of local Boy Scouts.

Rev. J. A. Dilts had charge of the brief service and was assisted by Rev. E. Jones. Two verses of O God Our Help in Ages Past, were sung followed by placing of wreaths. Mr. Paul Franck read names. Last Post was played by a member of R.C.A. Guelph. There was two minutes' silence and Reveille, with benediction by Rev. E. H. Jones.

The parade formed up again and marched to the church for the second part of the service. With the processional hymn Onward Christian Soldiers, and the National Anthem, the usual order of the Anglican service was carried out. The hymn, O Valiant Hearts, was followed by the address by the rector. Offertory hymn, O God of Bethel and benediction followed. Recessional hymn was Fight the Good Fight. Services of the day were favored by fine fall weather. Mr. Black conducted service at the Presbyterian church.

Second in County

Congratulations to Fay Marsden who took part in the township speaking contest recently. She spoke about Marilyn Bell who conquered Lake Ontario in September. Fay spoke again at the county finals at Fergus and won second place. The local winner attended Rockwood public school with Mr. Dave Armstrong as her teacher.

Die in 81st Year

Following a lingering illness, Mr. James E. Gray, a former resident of Rockwood, passed away at his home in Guelph last Wednesday in his 81st year. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and a son, Donald, and daughter, Elizabeth (Mrs. Robert Gill) of Guelph, by a former marriage.

The funeral took place Saturday afternoon with service at the McIntyre and Wilkie funeral home. Rev. Crawford-Smith of Knox Presbyterian church, Guelph, conducted the service and also officiated at the graveside in Rockwood cemetery, where his former wife was interred some years ago.

A large number of relatives and friends were present to pay their respects to one who was so well known. A number of floral wreaths bore silent tribute to his memory. Besides his wife and family, he is survived by four brothers, John of Waterloo, Ewart of Toronto, Dave and Albert of Rockwood and three sisters, Sarah (Mrs. Cecil French) of Brandon, Vermont, U.S.A., Louisa (Mrs. A. J. Elliott) of Rockwood, Mary (Mrs. Fraser Auld) of Guelph, a brother William, of Calgary, predeceased him. Pallbearers were Messrs. A. McDougall, Guelph; A. Armstrong, Kitchener; L. Laird, Guelph; C. Stovel, Rockwood; P. Kitching, Corwhin; J. Campbell, Kincardine.

LIMEHOUSE

Hydro Conversion Through in Village

The village underwent hydro conversion to 60 cycle last Wednesday. Most people report pleasant, tidy workmen came into their homes from the swarm of technicians which alighted that morning.

Toronto B.Y.P.U. Conduct Service

The Young People of the Baptist church and members of the congregation welcomed friends from the Century Baptist church, Toronto to Sunday evening. The Century Baptist Young Peoples Union conducted the evening service.

Following a time of hymn singing, Allison Bruce conducted the service. Words of witness were given by three members and a special message in song beautifully rendered by seven young ladies. The address was given by Bruce Duff who at present is preparing for medical missionary work in India.

A time of fellowship was spent following the service at which time the Acton Baptist young people served refreshments to their guests. Dr. Roy Costens was a member of Century Baptist church when he was in Toronto and had several of these visiting young people, including the speaker, in his boys' Sunday School class.

An invitation has been extended to the Acton B.Y.P.U. to conduct an evening service in the Century church early in the new year.

Guild Attended By Record Number

A record number of 36 members attended the November meeting of St. Alban's Guild. The president, Mrs. Thomas Jones, opened the meeting with the Guild prayer. The secretary and treasurer gave their reports.

The members agreed to cater for a social evening later this month and plans were made. Last minute details for the bazaar were discussed and a good amount of finished work was handed in to the convener.

A nominating committee was elected and it was decided to hold the Christmas party after the election of officers of the December meeting. After the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction, lunch was served by the group for the evening.

Memorial Service Held at Rockwood

Last Sunday afternoon a memorial service was held at St. John's Anglican Church, Rockwood. The arrangements for the service were made by the Rockwood Community Club Veterans Committee, under the auspices of the Canadian Legion B.E.S.S.I., and the Bereavement Council of Kinnos Township.

The service at the cenotaph was in charge of the Rev. J. A. Dilts of Rockwood United Church. Wreaths were placed on the cenotaph and the names were read by Paul Franck. The last post was by M. Bauer. This was followed by the singing of the hymn, Nearer My God to Thee, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Evan H. Jones, rector of St. John's Anglican Church, Rockwood.

The service was held in St. John's Church at 2:30 p.m. and began with the singing of the hymn Onward Christian Soldiers. The Scripture lesson, Wisdom of Solomon 3: 1-4, was read by Mr. Dilts, and the address was given by Mr. Jones on the text, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." Music for the service was played by Mrs. C. Morehead, organist and choir leader of St. John's Church.
