Life Memberships, Elections Features

(Intended for last week) Mrs. R. B. Elliot was hostess to the Ladies' Aid on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Lloyd Crawford was in charge and opened the meeting with a Christmas hymn. The devotions were taken by Mrs. W. King and Mrs. Menzies. The secretary-treasurer and cheer secretary gave their respective reports.

Mrs. Elliot convener of the nominating committee, brought in the following slate of officers for 1955: honorary president, Mrs. W. Roberts, president, Mrs. L. Crawford, secretary, Mrs. M. McPhail, assistant, Mrs. J. K. Mahon, treasurer, Mrs. W. Greenlee, pianist, Mrs. E. D. Mahon, cheer, Mrs. Menzies, quilt committee, Mrs. A. T. Moore, Mrs. Van Sickle, Mrs. Wm. Robertson. A program committee was appointed with Mrs. E. J. McPhail as convener, and social convener Mrs. G. McPhail.

The roll call was answered with a Christmas verse. The offering was dedicated with the Doxology. A pleasant part of the program was the presentation of a life membership certificate in the Women's Missionary Society to Mrs. Wilfred Greenlee, a faithful member in both the Ladies' Aid and the W.M.S. Mrs. Greenlee expressed her appreciation.

A short play entitled A Sensible Christmas was presented by Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Ingalls, Mrs. Wallon and Mrs. M. McPhail. Sharing and making others less fortunate happy especially at Christmas time was the moral. A former member, Mrs. Speers, now of Lowville, showed some very nice Christmas slides, which was much appreciated.

The birthday song was sung for one of the members. A Christmas hymn was sung and the meeting was closed with the Lord's prayer in unison. A social half hour was enjoyed by all. White gifts were brought to the meeting.

Auxiliary Meeting The Blair Evening Auxiliary had their Christmas meeting at Mrs. Elliot's on December 8. Mrs. Robertson opened the meeting with a Christmas hymn and led in the program, which was taken from the Glad Tidings with the following members assisting, Mrs. Wm. Mahon, Mrs. J. Wallace, Mrs. C. Mitchell, Mrs. J. Bayton, Mrs. W. Hambly and Mrs. R. Mahon.

After reports were given by the secretary-treasurer and cheer secretary, Mrs. Andrews read a very nice article, Let's Keep Christmas, written by Peter Marshall. There was a short business period.

Mrs. Robertson, after being president for six years, is retiring at the close of this year. In appreciation of her faithfulness, she was presented with a small gift for which she thanked the ladies very kindly. Following this was the presentation of a life membership certificate to another faithful member, Mrs. Walter Hambly, who has been secretary for three years. Mrs. Hambly also expressed her appreciation for this gift. The roll call was answered with a Christmas verse.

A Christmas hymn was sung and Mrs. Elliot closed the meeting with prayer. A delicious Christmas lunch was served.

Mission Band The Grace Mission Band had their Christmas meeting in the Sunday school room on Saturday with 32 members present. Gloria Purdy gave the call to worship. A dramatization of the old Jewish Feast of Lights was given. Shirley Ella gave a prayer and the Bible reading was taken by Anita Smith, Luke 2: 1-16. The secretary and treasurer gave their reports.

The officers for 1955 are: president, Beverley Roberts; vice-president, Sandra Black; secretary, Joan Early; assistant, Janet Mitchell; cheer secretary, Betty Lou Turner; pianist, Margaret McPhail; assistant, Fern Ramshaw. After the offering was received and dedicated, the story for the younger children was given by Lois Greenlee from the Round Window. The Tree Watchers, Mrs. Greenlee had the older members and the story was Only A Stable, from the study books, Many Hands in Many Lands.

Certificates, pins and seals were presented to Lois Greenlee, a life membership; third seal, Sandra Black, second seal to Donna Mitchell, Beverley Roberts and Lois, first seal, Gwen Wallace, certificate and pin Margaret Black, Betty Coulter, Carol Ann Smith, Elaine South and Betty Lou Turner. A hymn was sung and Jean Ella closed the meeting with prayer.

The members exchanged Christmas gifts and the leader, Mrs. Greenlee, treated the children to cookies and candy.

Power Metering Problems Still Plague P.U.C.; Complaints Aired

(Continued from Page One) These difficulties are being investigated. Mr. Lambert reported J. King'shot wants sewerage service to a taxi stand on Main Street. Path of installation was briefly discussed. Waste Comparison Figures Earlier the superintendent reported three services applied for this fall have been installed. At Mason Knitting Co. Ltd. a new two-inch water main for a particular process of production will be required, he reported.

At this point Mayor E. Tyler asked if comparative figures could be prepared by the waterworks department on costs involved in completing small service installation jobs by contractors against the department cost. At the close of the meeting Mr. Lambert initiated a discussion on the Commission's practice and policy in hiring local labor or experienced outside help when extra men are needed for certain jobs. The following accounts were passed for payment:

Table with columns for account name and amount. Includes Waterworks Accounts, Hydro Accounts, and Ballinafad.

Officers Headed By Miss B. Hilts The Ballinafad Women's Missionary Society held their last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Russ on Wednesday, December 16. The meeting opened with a Christmas hymn followed by prayer. The minutes were read by the secretary Mrs. Hilts and approved. Some business was disposed of and plans made for the New Year.

Mrs. Hilts took note of the visits made and cards sent to sick and shut-ins. Mrs. Warne recorded the number of books read during the past month and gave out more.

Mrs. E. Ferguson read a letter from the Supply secretary of Hamilton Presbytery. The devotion was in charge of Mrs. F. W. Shortill. Miss Hilts had charge of the top c. Readings were given on Stewardship, Temperance, gambling and race prejudice.

The Roll Call was answered by a Christmas verse. The meeting closed by singing a hymn followed by prayer. The Society, with the help of the associate members has reached the allocation for 1954.

The officers for 1955 are: president, Mrs. B. Hilts; first vice-president, Mrs. B. Warne; treasurer, Mrs. N. Russ; secretary, Mrs. J. Kirkwood; associate members secretary, Mrs. F. W. Shortill; Friendship secretary, Mrs. H. Hilts; Literature secretary, Mrs. R. Warne; Supply secretary, Mrs. W. Cassidy; Christian Citizenship, Mrs. F. W. Shortill; Stewardship, Mrs. B.
