

Personalities Important Part Of Acton, Area News Coverage

Names News As Are Events

Names, perhaps, even more than events, make news. In 1954 many names made the news for Acton and district readers. On this page are pictured a few of the personalities whose pictures appeared in the Free Press during the year.

Whether as a touring W.I. member, a graduating school student, a new engineer or an acclaimed mayor, each name and face has its own news value and direction of interest.

A special area of interest envelopes those couples of Acton and district who this year celebrated Golden Wedding anniversaries. In the full two columns at right, they are, top to bottom, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. A. McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. M. Kelly.

Many Acton and District Institutes Enjoyed Summer Tours

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE TOURS this summer and fall, from as far as W.A., Acton W.I., Dublin W.I. and Limehouse, Silverwood and Bannorth as Midhurst and south to Niagara Falls, were popular with neckburn W.I. members. With the exception of the latter group, local and district groups. Top to bottom are Balmfad W.I. and all tours started in Acton for the day-long informative excursions.

J. J. STEWART, Reeve of Acton, was named Warden of Halton County early in 1954. He is shown in the above photograph.

ROSS SIMMONS, below, was appointed town engineer for Acton, Milton and Georgetown.

MAC SPROWL, above, Nuffield Scholarship winner, wrote in the Free Press during tour of Europe.

E. TYLER, below, Mayor of Acton in 1954, was acclaimed to the position for 1955 this month.
