Picking up the Teenagers Coca-Cola, Reinharts and 7Up hidden score awards were Sharon Gervais, Marjorie Cutting, Al Roheh, Fitch Dedels and Elaine Deforest. Acton was host to Oakville in the Intercountry league last Saturday and the Oakes went home happy with two games and the first series. What a powerhouse team! That kind hearts and gentle peoples, cleans the cuff.

Guelph Y Ladies
Visit Acton Group
The January meeting of the Y Ladies' Auxiliary was held on January 10 in the YMCA with all members attending. The meeting was opened with the Lord's Prayer, a hymn, and singing and the Scripture lesson read by Mrs. D. Price. The treasurer's report was given and the minutes of the last two meetings were read by the secretary.
Final arrangements were made for the annual Mother and Daughter banquet to be held on Friday, January 14, at the YMCA. The president, Mrs. Paul, welcomed as guests of the evening the Guelph Y Ladies Auxiliary with Mrs. C. Morris, their president.
Bob Brayshaw, secretary of the Y, showed two films which were very much enjoyed by all.
The meeting was closed with the Mizpah Benediction and a social time spent with the members of both auxiliaries. Refreshments were served by the Acton members.

LOCAL NEWS

Quite a few have been catching the measles - both children and adults.
-Mac Sprowl was the guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Wellington Shorthorn Breeders' Club in Arthur.
-The grade three class of Mrs. Allen toured the Free Press office on Monday, to start off "Printing Week" activities here.
-Sympathy is extended to Mr. Ross, the minister of St. Churchill United Church, whose mother passed away. Don Anderson of Toronto took the service there last Sunday.

-Ken C. McMillan of Georgetown was elected president of the Canadian Hackney Horse Society at the annual meeting in Preston; Archie Kerr of Acton and Mel Barden of Hillsburgh were appointed to the board of directors.
-A feature film on Milton was part of the CBC News Magazine program last Sunday evening on television. The film dealt with planning during the past few years, and the proposed "satellite town" planning. Jim Dills was among those who spoke during the film.
-A minor accident occurred on Tuesday afternoon when Andrew Luning, driving south, slowed down to turn into a lane. A car, driven by Franklin Stout, Rockwood, collided with the Luning car from behind. Damage was estimated at about $250.

Guelph Swimming Y's Men's Problem
Varied items of business and a film comprised the program when the Y's men's Club held its regular dinner meeting in the Y last Thursday. The president, Ed Footitt, was in the chair.
Tom Jones is chairing a committee to make plans for a ladies' night. Discussion was also introduced on the annual father and son banquet.
Swimming instruction in Guelph is presenting difficulties this year since the usual night is not available for the Acton boys and girls. Guelph Y - Available - nights conflict with Boy Scouts and hockey. It is hoped the problem may be adjusted later.
The Baxter project will be continued for another year by the group.
The program chairman Charles Leatherland presented the film from the O.A.C. Guelph which showed the effect of modern farm implements in Canada and around the world.

Garnet Rose Heads Anglican Brethren
The St. Alban's Acton Branch of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen held its first meeting for the new year last Thursday evening after the week of prayer service. The president, Clint Taylor turned the meeting over to the Rector, Rev. E. H. Jones, who acted as chairman. After the report of the nominating committee the election proceeded with Les Duby an Hamilton Peal acting as scrutineers.
The results of the election were as follows: president, Garnet Rose; vice-president George Lee; secretary-treasurer, Gordon Lawson. It was also suggested that the members of last year's executive constitute the program committee for the coming year.
William Denny moved a vote of thanks to the members of the out-going executive.
