

LOCAL NEWS

New locks are being placed on some of the post office doors following the robbery.

The school boys have begun playing marbles—a good sign winter's on the wane.

The annual prize list for the Halton Seed Fair and Bacon show came "off the press" last Friday.

There are quite a few auction sales scheduled for this month and next. This week there are seven large bills posted in the Free Press office.

March weather—it's always been crazy. Those fierce snowflurries alternating with brilliant sunshine but to top it all last Thursday's storm, complete with thunder and lightning!

Just a little over a week until the first day of spring!

Bad driving conditions over the week-end were the cause of several minor accidents in the district.

Katherine Merry, who is well known by Halton Junior Farmers and as the winner of the Queen's Gaieties at the Royal Winter Fair, won the Lion's oratorical contest in Brampton. She spoke about the future of agriculture.

A mistake slipped through last week that we're glad to correct. Miss B. Hills of R.R. 1, Georgetown had been made a life member of the Woman's Missionary Society, not the Women's Institute as the Free Press account reported.

Poet's Corner

THE LITTLE LOST PUP

He was lost—not a shade of a doubt about that. For he never barked at a slinking cat. But stood in the square where the wind blew raw.

With a drooping ear and a trembling paw. And a mournful look in his pleading eye.

And a plaintive sniff at the passer-by. That begged as plain as a tongue could sue:

"Oh, mister, please may I follow you?"

A lorn wee wail in a tawny brown Adir in the roar of a heedless town.

Oh, the saddest of sights to see Is a little lost pup with his tail tucked in!

Now he shares my board and he owns my bed. And he fairly shouts when he hears my tread.

Then, if things go wrong, as they sometimes do. And the world is cold, an' I'm feelin' blue. He asserts his rights to assuage my woe.

With a warm red tongue and a nice cold nose.
