SERIES EQUALIZED, NORVAL JUNIORS DOWN ACTON 11-7 IN GEORGETOWN

In what was considered the best game of the series; with the largest crowd in years, Acton and Norval. Junior Farmers' hockey teams again met Monday on Georgetown For Ladies' Aid ice to determine the league champions. Norval took the evening's honors with the score 11-7 in the wide open, exciting game.

The series is now tied at two wins and two losses apiece. Next Monday's game will be the deciding one in the three out of five game series.

Over 200 attended the game in Somerville counted from Scott and of Windsor for the programs.
