The meeting opened with a game called the Tiger and the Sheep, and the Purpose. The secretary read the information on the paper, calling Girls in Teens.

The group divided into groups of three and each group had a leader to take her group through an imaginary tour of an Indian village in India. An Indian quiz was conducted by Sharon Gervais. With the help of Ruth Spielvogel, Ella Jany and Jane McPhedran, Norma Sinclair led the worship service.

Ella Jany read a chapter from the mission study book, Saris and Sandals. After a sing song conducted by Miss Watkins, the meeting closed with taps.

LEGION NEWS

No Trophies
Our bowling team braved the storm on Saturday to journey to Welland for the district competition and although they made a good showing against very tough competition from larger branches, they were unsuccessful in bringing the trophies home.

Sick List
We will all be glad to hear that Al Denny and Jack Cooney, who both underwent operations in Sunnyside hospital, are expected home this week. Johnny Moore is still undergoing treatment in the same hospital and I am sure he would appreciate a visit from anyone of us. How about it, comrades, are you going to be in Toronto in the near future?

Cribbage Competition
The cribbage team under the leadership of Bill Nicolac will journey to Georgetown on Saturday to enter in the district competition. The best of luck, fellows. Another set of trophies would look good in the branches.

On The Agenda
Don't forget the general meeting next week. Let's all turn out and fill the room upstairs.

There's some interesting items on the agenda.
Tuesday night was the finish of the schedule for the cribbage with Eden Mills at the top. This team has shown a great interest in the league and most certainly deserve the position. Plans are now being made for the banquet, Tinnie Masales and Fred Keatner were the winners of the night.

When you build a fire under a mule, the mule takes off. When someone builds a fire under your car, you take off.

Somehow a fire started under a policy holder's car near Midland. The vehicle was a total loss. But the policy holder didn't "take off" because CIA paid him $1,400.

Comprehensive pays for loss by fire and many other things.

GOWNS OVER 100 YEARS OLD SHOWN WITH LATEST STYLES AT MEETING

A girl's life, from her christening until her wedding, was the theme of a fashion show presented by one of the groups of the Friendly Circle at the meeting on Wednesday of last week. Members brought guests and the Sunday school room of the United church was filled for the program of fashions and music.

The president, Stella Adamson, presided for a short business period before the program.

From Leland acted as commentator for the fashion show, presented by the group led by Irene Douglas and Marguerite Taylor. Helen Pickett played the piano through the display and accompanied the singing.

In sharp contrast, Edna Hufnagel and May Lang appeared first as if at a christening. Mrs. Hufnagel's dress was over 100 years old and that of the "baby" over 80 years old. Mrs. Lang wore a smart modern dress.

Jimmy McKeown, Tommy McKeown, Brenda McKeown, Nancy Rogvaldson and Lorna MacPherson showed what is the smart thing to wear to a kindergarten. Ralph Nellis sported a stylish pink bow tie. Then, demonstrating the first recital, Barbara Symon, Janice Woodburn and Mary Kobyika appeared in attractive outfits to play the piano.

Suitable clothes for the older schoolgirls were modelled by Janice Woodburn and Mary Kobyika.

A delicious lunch, provided by the ladies, was served.

Hold Surprise Party On 76th Birthday

A group of friends, her present pastor and a former pastor surprised Mrs. Mary Ella Bell with a party last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Bell, who lives with Mr. and Mrs. A. Orr, Bower Ave., was observing her 76th birthday.

Friends from the church and neighbours joined in bringing surprise congratulations. Her minister, Rev. E. A. Currey and Mrs. Currey, and a former minister, Rev. C. L. Poole and Mrs. Poole, were special guests. Rev. Poole was the minister in Harrison where Mrs. Bell formerly resided.

Mrs. Bell, delighted by the thoughtfulness of her friends, also received small gifts, cards and flowers.

Lads, Dads Enjoy Speaker, Magician

The annual Dads and Lads dinner was held last Thursday evening in St. Alban's Parish Hall. A roast turkey dinner was served by the Ladies' Guild to 100 men and boys who were present at the dinner, which has become a yearly affair at St. Alban's.

The special speaker for the evening was the Rev. K. G. Kiddell, B.A., L.Th., the Rector of St. Paul's Anglican church, Caledonia. Mr. Kiddell directed his talk particularly to the boys who were present rather than to the grown-ups, and his stunts and tricks were enjoyed by young and old alike.

The small fry were also expertly entertained by a very competent and fascinating magician, Wells the Wizard.

Road, Dam Repairs Concern of Council

A road expenditure bylaw providing $27,000 for roads and bridges for 1955 was passed at the regular meeting of council at Rockwood.

The council also instructed the road superintendent to call for tenders for 10,000 feet of gravel for road surfacing during the current year. Tenders are to close April 4.

Cuts of the Grand Valley Conservator Authority, Mr. McDowds and Mr. Kelso, representing the P.U. of Rockwood and Game Club were present and discussed with council the question of repairing two dams in the township.

C. Meadows, F. Schneider and F. L. Fox were appointed a committee to interview Edgar Harris, seeking his permission and co-operation toward the repairing of two dams.

Mrs. W. Benson Hostess To Club

The March meeting of Knox church Heather Club was held at the home of Bea Benson with president Dorothy Calder presiding. The devotions were taken by Mae Dumarch and Alice McCallum. One new member was welcomed by the club. The secretary's report was given by Meryl Kirkness, followed by the treasurer's report by Mary Mann.

Business of interest to the club was discussed and it was decided to hold a strawberry tea. After a brief study period of the book, Fire Upon the Earth, this part of the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. Meryl Kirkness offered her home for the next meeting.

The hostess, Bea Benson, entertained the club with slides of the Laurentian Mountains, the Royal Winter Fair and Northern Ontario, which were thoroughly enjoyed by the group.

A social hour was spent with the hostess, assisted by Charlotte Holmes, Margaret Armstrong and Olive Joe.

Classes Held Prior To Confirmation

Confirmation classes commenced a month ago at St. Alban's Church. The classes are held every Monday one after school for the junior members and an adult class in the evening. Both are held in St. Alban's Parish Hall conducted by the Rector, the Reverend Evan H. Jones, B.A., L.Th.

These classes are for the purpose of preparing candidates for confirmation or the "Laying on of Hands" by the Bishop of the Diocese of Niagara. The Bishop of the Diocese of Niagara, the Right Reverend W. E. Baginall, B.A., D.D., will be visiting St. Alban's to administer the rite in June. These classes are also conducted as a refresher course for those who have already been confirmed, and for those who are interested in the teaching, faith and practice of the Church.

Next fall the Rector expects to begin a class of religious instruction for Anglican converts and others interested, which will continue through the course of the year until the end of May.

Y Arranges Visit Of Easter Bunny

Through the efforts of the local Y.M.C.A. in co-operation with a candy company, the children of Acton will be able to participate in an Easter egg hunt during the Easter holidays. Plans are being laid to hold the hunt in the town park if possible and in the Y.M.C.A. if not.

In Acton, the hunt will be open to all children six to 15 but they will have to register at the local Y before the hunt. Bona Bryshaw, the Y secretary, reports that the 200 prizes being offered range from large chocolate rabbits to lollipops and there will be sufficient prizes for everyone who wishes to enter.
