

OLD TIME FIDDLERS had their innings Saturday night in the Roxy Theatre when six finalists from a competing field of 12 vied for the three prizes. Winner was Robert McGonigle, centre, Brampton. Runners-up were Willard Keith and Jack McGregor, both of Guelph.

LARGEST CROWD IN ROXY IN YEARS HEARS FIDDLERS VIE FOR HONORS

Strains of old-time fiddling replaced the shots of Western justice Friday and Saturday evenings in the Roxy Theatre. There were two added attractions Saturday evening when the fiddlers' contest finished with the ten by contestants for the Queen for a week contest when both took over part of the program. Winner of the fiddlers' contest was Robert McGonigle of Brampton. Willard Keith of Guelph was second and Jack McGregor of Guelph third. Although Henry Devaux received 70 dollars for the contest, even more was expected for the actual preliminary contest on Friday evening. The prize was held Saturday evening before a packed house attendance was estimated by Mr. Devaux at over 400. There were six in the finals. The other three as well as the winners were shown Saturday at the Roxy. Henry Keith of Guelph, Willard Keith of Guelph and Thomas Sanders of Guelph, other contestants Friday were George Kuntz, Jesse McNery and Tom Kennedy of Acton; George Williams of Brampton; Ronald Bayne of Elora and I Mitchell of Milton. Jack McGregor, who placed third, is a former Actonian. Local merchants co-operated with the Roxy to present the contest and helped provide the cash awards of $25 for first, $10 for second and $5 for third. The event was such a success Mr. Devaux hopes to have another. A square dancing contest along similar lines is also being considered. The winners were: Charlie Mason, Al Leckman, Edgar Bilton, Crawford Douglas and R. L. Davidson. The program was directed by Mr. Devaux and E. Watson. Phillip Caddick acted as master of ceremonies both Friday and Saturday evenings. The largest crowd to gather in the Roxy Theatre in years attended the event. Mr. Devaux said the crowd also saw a regular film.

LEGION NEWS

If you can't find "Bunk" when you drop into the Legion, he will likely be in the back practicing to cut a larger card than "deuce." That is what he cut last Friday night when he had a chance of a prize at the euchre.

It was the last euchre of the season and was well attended. After Cord McCutcheon, Ivan Harris, Coon Vary, L. Bolton and Norm Cunningham received the prizes, a very large and delicious lunch was enjoyed by all.

Rudolph Spielvogel and I. Marzo provided the music for the Saturday night dance, which was well attended and very much enjoyed by everyone.

John McHugh is working hard to try and provide a variety of entertainment. Drop in any Saturday night for a night of dancing. You'll enjoy it and he'll appreciate it.

There are no new champs to report this week. The dart team played in Georgetown and the pool team played in Port Credit but lost to better teams.

Acton will be host this Friday night to the Port Credit branch. Darts, euchre and cribbage are on the schedule for the evening. Turn out and give the boys from the bottom half of Peel county a real evening.
