HALTON CENTENNIAL MANOR
Bell School Dancers Entertain; 63 Cast Ballots On Election Day

On Tuesday evening, June 7, the walls of the dining room of the Manor resounded with the stirring strains of barn dance music, when four young girls and four young boys of the Bell public school came to entertain the residents with a number of square dances. The young dancers, none of whom was over the age of seven years, looked very attractive in their typical square dance costumes. The girls wore bright red dresses trimmed with white, while the boys wore red plaid shirts, bright red ties and blue jeans.

The dancers had been trained by Messrs. Ron Harris and Jack Reynolds. The dancing was accompanied by Mrs. George Newell at the piano, Mr. Harris on the violin and Mr. Jim White on the guitar, while Mr. Reynolds carried out the duties of caller-off.

Between two sets of square dances, Mr. Jim White performed a very entertaining tap dance. The young dancers won the admiration and applause of all present and their instructors, Mr. Harris and Mr. Reynolds, and their school teacher, Miss Frizzell, have just cause to be proud of their pupils. A vote of thanks to the talented young dancers was extended by Muriel Thompson at the close of the program.

Miss Frizzell, the teacher at Bell school, and a number of the parents of the children and interested friends, accompanied the children to the Manor and it is hoped that this group and the children themselves will come again to the Manor in the very near future.

Sunday Service

The Sunday afternoon church service at the Manor on June 12 was conducted by the Rev. E. Orsborn, the minister of Milton Presbyterian church. Mr. Orsborn brought great spiritual comfort to his listeners with his sermon on the Inquisitive Disciple based on the 21st chapter of St. John's gospel. Mrs. W. E. Robertson played the piano accompaniment for the hymns in her usual, capable and pleasing manner.

63 Cast Ballots

On the recent provincial Election Day, June 9, the women's waiting room of the Manor was used as polling station no. 85 of the Electoral District of Halton. Mr. George Robertson was Deputy Returning Officer and Muriel Thompson was poll clerk. 63 residents and members of the Manor staff cast their ballots here and in view of the fact that many of those voting were elderly persons, it is greatly to their credit that only two ballots had to be rejected.

FAST PRAIRIE

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man. (CP)—A 70 foot tower built at the RCAF base here is designed to instruct jet pilots in emergency escape by means of the ejection catapult seat. The device shoots a man upwards faster than any high-speed elevator.

Delegate Reviews Meeting Highlights

At the home of Mrs. Pearl Kennedy and Miss M. Somerville, the Home Helper members of the Senior Auxiliary W.M.S. of Knox church met with the active members for their annual meeting on Thursday, June 9.

The program was in charge of Miss Charlotte Moore, Home Helper secretary, with the president, Mrs. A. J. Buchanan, presiding.

The worship service was led by Mrs. F. McCutcheon and Mrs. M. M. Coles. Mrs. John Davidson contributed a solo and Mrs. R. L. Davidson a reading.

Mrs. H. Mainprize, a delegate to the Annual Meeting of Council of the Women's Missionary Society (W.M.S.) of the Presbyterian Church in Canada gave the highlights of the meeting in organization, administration, worship, conferences and addresses. The theme was, Behold, I Send You Forth.

Loretto Graduates Two Acton Girls

Rochelle Henderson and Marilyn Marks of Acton, wearing long gowns of white nylon net, gold crowns and carrying bouquets of red roses, stephanis and white net, were among the 31 who graduated from Loretto Academy Sunday afternoon. The group attended Mass in the Church of Our Lady in Guelph in the morning, and then a communion breakfast. The graduation service and benediction were held in the church in the afternoon. Certificates were presented to the graduates.

Part of the procession and ceremony was televised and shown on Hamilton station Monday evening. The Acton girls were both spotted by friends and relatives on their screens.

Both girls are planning to go into nursing in St. Joseph's hospital in Guelph in August.

Relatives and friends extended congratulations to the two attractive girls at their home later Sunday. At the Marks' there were 40 relatives from out-of-town—everyone having to travel at least 40 miles to return home.

There is still another event on the agenda for the young graduates: this Friday is the formal dance in Guelph. Their parents are also invited.

Halton Romantic For Junior Farmers

District Junior Farmers took top place in the romance department in the latest issue of Junior Farmer News. Of five wedding announcements, four are from this part of Halton county.

Anne Theresa Pelletier and Robert David James Wheelband were married in St. Luke's Anglican church, Palermo, on May 9. The notice says the bride is a member of Palermo Junior Institute.

Art Bennett, the associate agricultural representative for Halton and Peel, was united in marriage to Jean Patterson at Palermo on April 29. Jean is the past-president of the Palermo Junior Institute.

Bruce Bawden and Elvira Barnes were married at the home of Rev. J. Blair, Milton, on May 21. The bride has been an active member of Palermo Junior Institute and the groom is president of the Milton Junior Farmers.

The marriage of Gordon Harris and Christena Marshall took place in Omagh Presbyterian church on May 7. Both are members of the Milton Junior Farmers.

Carlisle Wedding Of Local Interest

Or considerable local interest was the wedding on Saturday, June 4, of H. Craig Reid and Doris Weatherell of Carlisle. Mr. Reid is a former Esquesing councillor and high school board member. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Weatherell and the late Charles Weatherell and the ceremony took place at the bride's home. Rev. George Currie officiated.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reid, has just moved to his newly purchased farm on the Appleby Line south of Milton after selling his property adjoining Georgetown to Delrex Developments for a housing project.

Attending the bridal couple were his brother, Herb Reid, Georgetown and Mrs. Murray Calloway, Carlisle. The bride wore pink nylon lace over taffeta and Mrs. Calloway was similarly attired in blue. Both wore corsages of roses.

A family dinner was held after the ceremony.

OSPRINGE
Cars Wrecked Beyond Repair

Two cars were wrecked beyond repair when they met almost head-on on Highway 24 just south of the village on Saturday afternoon. Seven people in the one car driven by Grant Overland of Toronto, were all injured and required hospital treatment. Overland suffered a fracture of the hips, his wife a shattered knee cap. His sister-in-law received a severe bump on the head and the Overland's four children were all cut and bruised. Alan Ayres, driver of the other car, was not injured; and will face charges of criminal negligence and careless driving. The accident took place on a straight stretch of highway just past Len Buck's milk ranch, with Ayres driving northwards and Overland heading south.

Mrs. H. R. Howard spent a few days last week with her daughter and children, Mrs. Fleischer at Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Awrey and family attended the Awrey Reunion at Elora.

Visitors during the week with Mr. and Mrs. Muriel McCutcheon and Muriel included Mr. Smith McCutcheon and Miss Myrtle Ort of Galt; Mr. and Mrs. Wilf Alken and Carol and Sharon Aitken of Guelph.

Mr. Gordon Aitken accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robertson and children of Guelph to North Bay where they spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George L. Robertson and Loree.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Craig and Joan Georgetown spent the week-end with Messrs. R. and J. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young and Marilyn visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Brown and family, near King.

CAMPBELLVILLE
Display Night In Nassagaweya

Mrs. G. Black, home economics teacher for the public schools of Nassagaweya, held a display night in the Campbellville public school on Thursday, June 9.

A very beautiful array of needlework and aluminum trays was set up in the basement room. With one look even the most skeptical would have to realize the great value of home economics training to girls of grades seven and eight, particularly when conducted by such a competent teacher as Mrs. Black.

A very large number of parents and friends visited the school to see the display and remained to hear a fine program performed by children from all schools in the township area. The evening made an excellent climax to a very good year of home economics in Nassagaweya.

W.I. Sale

Mrs. Campbell Agnew and Helen entertained a number of relatives and friends in their home on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Jean Parsons who is to be married in Boston Presbyterian church on June 25th.

Mrs. Frank Quinlan spent last week in Montreal visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Memory and family.

50th Anniversary

Several from here attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turner of Galt, which was held in the home of their daughter, in Burford.

W.I. Sale

A successful rummage and auction sale was held on Saturday afternoon on the athletic grounds at Campbellville which was sponsored by the Campbellville Women's Institute.

Rev. G. Bauch conducted the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on Sunday at St. David's Presbyterian Church.

BALLINAFAD
W.A., W.I. Ladies Enjoy Trip By Bus

The W.I. and W.A. ladies enjoyed a bus trip to Hamilton last week, Borden's Dairy, botanical gardens visiting the Sovereign Potteries and the Spring gardens, which were beautiful.

Quite a number from here attended anniversary services held at Melville United church, Caledon, on Sunday.

Place First

Sacrations to our 4H Club girls, Ballinafad Mixing Maidens, and their leaders, Mrs. Jesse McEnery and Mrs. F. J. Shortill, on being awarded first place for their skill, Food makes a difference, presented the Milton Achievement Day. They have been asked to present it at the W.I. gathering at Guelph O.A.C. the end of June.

Bill Sinclair, David McEnery, George and Duncan Gibson spent the week at Honey Harbour.

Mr. and Mrs. Weatherhead of Fergus called on Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McEnery last week.

John Rockside W.I.

The Ballinafad W.I. was invited to join with Caledon Rockside W.I. for their meeting last Wednesday night and had a very nice meeting. Roll call was answered with childhood pleasure and Miss McDonald gave the motto, it is better to build boys than mend men, which was very ably given.

The Ballinafad members gave the program of reading by Miss Jesse McEnery, piano solo, Marjorie Gibson, quartette Shirley Kirkwood Bonnie Cotton, Elizabeth and Marjorie Gibson. Mrs. Robt. McEnery had a singing contest, after which a lovely lunch was served by the hostess. All felt it had been a very enjoyable evening.

CAMPBELLVILLE
Ladies' Aid Plans Summer Activities

Mrs. J. K. Mahon was hostess to the Ladies' Aid on Wednesday evening. The president, Mrs. Crawford, opened the meeting with a reading, True Religion. The devotions were taken by Mrs. E. D. Mahon and Mrs. C. A. Elsiey.

During the business period it was definitely decided to have the congregational picnic in July. A committee was appointed to select committees from other organizations in looking after the supper. The flower committee for the next two months will be Mrs. A. T. Moore, Mrs. W. Greenlees, Mrs. L. Crawford and Mrs. R. Parker.

A donation has been given to help the Vacation Bible School. The ladies of the congregation have offered to provide the treat for the children during the meetings. It was also decided to assist the Grace Mission Band who will be celebrating their 50th anniversary in July. Several other items of business were discussed and will be taken care of in the near future. The secretary-treasurer and cheer secretary each gave their respective reports.

Miss Ethel Simpson took charge of the program and read a very interesting article written by Rev. Pidgeon, The Soul's Awakening.

Miss Simpson introduced Mrs. Newell who gave a very lovely poem on Home, written by Edgar Guest. Mrs. Crawford accompanied at the piano. This was followed by a humorous number, The Musical Piaster. The birthday song was sung for two members of the society. The meeting was closed with prayer by the president.

A social half hour followed, which all enjoyed.

High school students are busy writing their examinations this week.
