Regular Activity In Minor Sports

Jets and Wolf Hounds played to 6-all tie on Tuesday this week in the regular Minor Sports ball games. On the same, bill were Muckers and Wolf Hounds, the Hounds taking the match 7-2.

Stewart counted two of the Jets: runs' with others credited to Emmerson, Brown, Wilds and Mason Wolf Hounds' top scorers were Otterbein and A. Wood, each with two runs. B. Andrews and Stu Mc-Donald each crossed home plate once for the team.

Tripp and Ludrick were stars of the Hot Shots team, each racking up two runs, while Fryer, Wilson and Johnston each got one. For Muckers, J. Lindsay Marshall got the only runs of the three inning game. On Thursday, June 16's encounters Hot Shots swept the field with 13 runs to Wolf Hounds' two. In the other joust of the day, Jet outran Muckers 9-6.

Five in the Hot Shots' line-up counted two points in true hot-shot form. They scored two in the first inning, five in the second and six in the third. Ranney saved the day for Wolf Hounds with their only two counters. Each of Jets' seven 'runs was scored by a different boy Thursday. On the team are Agnew. Whitehouse, Mackenzie, Nightingale. Wilds. Churchill, Stewart.

Jim Lindsay got two of Muckers' six runs.

On Tuesday, June 14, Wolf Hounds routed the Muckers 9-5 while the Hot Shots overran Jets 12-3. On Thursday, June 9. Muckers took the Hot Shots 9-5 and Jets were victorious over Wolf Hounds 7-5.
