course for the season began last week-end at Blue Springs Scout reserve, with men from all parts of Ontario in attendance. Meny attended services in the various churches on Sunday morning. The familiar Scout uniform will be frequently seen on the streets and in the stores during the summer. Scout courses are held at the reserve regularly.

Deaf-Mute Drowns In Credit Saturday

Hurricane Hazel is blamed by drowning of Joseph Miller, 27, a in Toronto. deaf mute whose head struck stone while swimming in the Credit river east of Streetsville on Saturday afternoon.

Miller's body was not found until Sunday. He was swimming alone, and probably didn't know that the storm had upturned several sharp stones. Miller worked in Oakville and lived at Victoria, north of Brampton.

Let Second Bid On Waterworks

Georgetown's new waterworks extension moved one step closer when council accepted the tender of Cornish Construction for labor in laying watermains. The company will receive $24,165 and the town will supply its own iron pipe and fittings. The previous week, Dunker Construction, Kitchener, awarded an $82,000 contract for erecting a new pump house, reservoir and other building construct-
