

Two County Jrs. At Ontario Camp

With about 90 Junior Farmers from all over the province, two Halton Juniors are attending the provincial Junior Farmer camp at Geneva Park, Lake Couchiching, this week. They are Wilma Sinclair, Milton, the county press reporter, and Jack Marshall, R.R. 4, Acton, the vice-president of the Acton Juniors.

The conference, a type of leadership training camp, began Labor Day and lasts until next Monday. Included in the program are drama, recreation, mock meetings, swimming, sports, crafts, nature study and a variety of interesting gatherings.

Two from each county, a girl and a boy, attend the camp each summer. It was begun in 1947. Since then, Milton Juniors have been represented by Vera May and Earl Snow, and the Acton Juniors by Mae Sprowl and Don Matthews, the agricultural representative.

home economist and county director make the selection.

The group travelled to the camp about 90 miles north of Toronto, by chartered buses from the Union Station.

Dave Pelletterio of Halton county is on the staff, again this year teaching music. He held the same informal post last year. Others on the camp staff are the president of the Ontario Juniors, Miss Myrtle Stewart of Dufferin; T. R. Hilliard, the secretary-treasurer of the Junior Farmers Association and Russell McAllister of Carleton, the county vice-president.

Miss Sinclair and Mr. Marshall will be giving reports of their experiences at camp at local meetings after they return, it is expected.
