The management of the Alliance Paper Mills entertained the staff of Brown Bros., Printers of Toronto, at a lobster roast in the woods of Blue Valley Ranch one evening last week.

The Harry Smethurst's of Barrie and the C. A. Grant's of Stewarttown visited Mrs. A. J. Smehurst on Sunday.

We regret the removal of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith from the village. They moved on Saturday to near Brampton.

Four Baptized

Rev. A. Calder baptized four infants at Limehouse Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon. They were: Phyllis Janet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick; Caroline Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Firth; Laurie Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Miller; and Sharon Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald.

Mr. A. C. Bourne was home from Toronto last week-end.

Mrs. Wilfred Wilson visited members of her family last week-end.

Friendly Gathering

A friendly gathering was held in the hall on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon, who were presented with a sum of money on behalf of the community. Euchre prizes were won by Mrs. A. C. Patterson and Mrs. Jas. Gordon. Mr. and Mrs. Russell McDonald provided music for a few dances.

Congratulations to the editor and staff of the Free Press in winning two top awards at the recent Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association Convention.

Children's Aid New Quarters

After having their headquarters in the Bank of Commerce building for 13 years, the Halton County Children's Aid Society is this week moving to new quarters further east on Main Street.

The new location is in the Milton Building Supplies building, in the office formerly occupied by G. W. Goldstraw, said Frank Thompson, Superintendent of the Children's Aid.

Previous to their 13 years in the bank building, the Society held their headquarters in the Court House.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS were held Tuesday by Mr. and Mrs. Allan S. Mahon, of Campbellville, when friends and neighbors gathered to wish them the best. The happy couple were married in the bride's home in Nassagaweya. They have both lived in Nassagaweya all their lives, and have lived in the same house for 45 years.

CAMPBELLVILLE
Mrs. L. Crawford Ladies, Aid Hostess

Congratulations to the parents of new babies in this community, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McPhall held a most successful farm sale last week. They have sold their farm to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Teasdale and moved to Campbellville where they have purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crawford.

Mr. Gordon Agnew has a new electrical shop well under construction in the village, also Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crawford have built a new home.

Mrs. Lloyd Crawford presided over St. David's Ladies' Aid meeting at her home, when 20 ladies attended. Mrs. Roy Parken had charge of the devotional period, assisted by Mrs. Wallace King, Mrs. J. K. Mahon presiding. The secretary read the minutes and items of business.

Mrs. Wilfred Greenlees gave the treasurer's report, and Mrs. R. C. Menzies the cheer report. Supplies were purchased for the manse. The new committee is Mrs. Robert Elliott and Mrs. George Inglis. Plans were made to send Rev. and Mrs. James Sutherland a Christmas gift.

Mrs. Allan Moore took the cheer for their program. Miss Catherine McPhedran gave a poem on Rev. Grenison. Mrs. J. K. Mahon favored with a solo and Mrs. Roy Parker gave the topic on Christian Ways of Living Every Day.

The meeting closed by prayer and a social half hour followed. The birthday song was sung by all for three members.

The boys' group, Mission Band and Y.P.S. are resuming their fall and winter meetings this month.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Cliff Bill whose brother, passed away this week at Waterdown.

Campbellville friends of Marilyn Moore and Bruce Small will be sorry to hear that they are both in Hamilton General Hospital. We wish them both a speedy recovery.

Panel Discussion On Church Mission

The first meeting of the fall season of the Daughters of Knox, Young Women's Affiliated Group, was held in the church parlour on September 12. Guests for this meeting were members of the Women's Missionary Society, who presented a very interesting and inspiring panel discussion on the mission study, The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World. Mrs. Robert Parker introduced the study book, "They Reach for Life". Mrs. A. J. Buchanan introduced the panel members: Mrs. R. M. MacDonald, Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mrs. H. L. Bennie and Miss Ruby Clark.

Mrs. Clifford Ashley, president, thanked the panel members for their part at this meeting. During the business, the group discussed their projects for the coming year and had election of officers. The roll call was answered with a gift to be given to the Port Worker.

Mrs. Douglas Davidson, assisted by members of her group, led in the worship service "What is the Mission of the Church?" The purpose of the meeting was to point out why the Church came into being; the reason for its existence today; and to consider its mission work.

The group in charge served a delicious lunch at the close of the meeting.

Communicants' Class Holds Banquet Friday

Last Friday evening, a banquet was held in Eden Mills Presbyterian church Sunday school room in connection with a communicants' class composed of a number of young people who took a course in religion conducted by Mr. Douglas Black, student minister for nine weeks. There were nine young people who were on the course from both Eden Mills and Rockwood congregations.

The banquet program was as follows: opening hymn, Bless be the Tie; blessing; welcome by Mr. Black; address by Rev. D. Crawford-Smith, Knox Presbyterian church, Guelph, on the subject, What I Should Expect from the Church.

Presentations of scholarships and general proficiency awards in the form of Bibles by Rev. R. H. Armstrong of Knox church, Acton; prayer and closing hymn, Rev. D. Crawford-Smith's paper revealed a number of thought and emphasis on his subject. Following the dinner, all adjourned to the auditorium to see a film, The Wonderful Life, with Martin Bauer Sr. in charge of the projector.

Mr. Richard Harris was the recipient of a newspaper from his cousin, Stanley Harris of Victoria, B.C. The paper, The Daily Colonist of September 1, portrayed the Industrial and Economic Growth of British Columbia from 1945 to 1955. Figures for industrial revenue, $529,360,000 for 1945 and $1,343,000,000 for 1955. Population 19.5, 949,000 and 1,305,000 for 1955. Visitor in District Tells Of Homeland

After a summer recess, Greenock Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Hugh Reid on Wednesday evening of last week with 30 ladies present and the president, Mrs. Elliott Patterson, in the chair. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode, the Mary Stuart Collect and Lord's Prayer in unison, and scripture reading by Mrs. E. Pearson. Mrs. E. Johnston read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report which showed a goodly balance on hand. Correspondence was read, business discussed and Mrs. C. Aitken gave a splendid report on the District Annual held at Elora.

Mrs. J. Near took charge of the program on agriculture and Canadian industries. Roll call was, Name a Canadian industrial plant one would like to see.

Miss Eleanor Bailey of Sydney, Australia, who was a guest in the Reid home, gave a splendid talk on Australia and showed many pictures on the screen of her homeland and places visited on the continent and in Britain, on her trip around the world. She told of her brother, who owns 14,000 acres of land—which is not considered a large holding—and who has 4,000 to 5,000 sheep. He also grows wheat, letting land rest one year between crops.

Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. W. Cole and Mrs. J. Near all read poems in line with the subject of the program, which were followed by a lesson and demonstration on the care of African violets. A started violet was in readiness for each member.

The Queen and Institute Grace were sung and a dainty lunch was served.

Newcomers Topic Of Study For W.M.S.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the United church met at the home of Mrs. P. Binnie on Tuesday of last week with the president, Miss M. Z. Bennett presiding.

Rev. Gordon Adams opened the meeting with prayer and asked the ladies to keep him in touch where there was illness and a new family in town where visits should be made.

Worship service was taken by Mrs. Hannah and her group, assisted by Mrs. Clive, Miss C. Henderson, Mrs. J. Lambert and Miss D. Simmons. Departments reported on were temperance, Miss D. Simmons; Christian stewardship, Mrs. A. Orr and book shelf, Miss M. Mainprize. The study book was taken by Miss M. Z. Bennett on newcomers to our land.

Plans were made for the thank-offering meeting in October. Rev. Mr. Adams closed the meeting with prayer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hannah and her group. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Binnie for her home and the lunch and program committee.

Enjoy Four Films, Old Time Favorites

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the Manor on Friday, September 16 when the residents assembled in the dining room to view a number of motion picture films shown on a permanent screen by the Manor's own projector.

There were four films shown, one being in color and three in black and white. The colored film showed beautiful scenes in Prince Albert National Park in Saskatchewan. One of the black and white films, belonging to a series on the topic Peoples of the Maritimes showed a Gaelic settlement on Cape Breton Island. The other black and white films belonged to the Eye Witness series and portrayed a variety of topics, such as winter shorts on Montreal's Mount Royal, the second Mile Club and cattle judging at a winter fair.

Between the showing of the films Mrs. Russell Lewis played old-time favorite tunes on the piano. Mr. Clarke and Russell Lewis ran the projector.

Service Capoeled
 Due to unforeseen circumstances, Rev. D. A. Powell, rector of Grace Anglican church, Milton, was unable to conduct the church service at the Manor on Sunday, September 18, and the service had to be cancelled. At 10 o'clock on Monday morning, Sept. 19, Mr. Powell came to the Chapel of the Manor and administered Holy Communion to the Anglicans residing at the Manor.
