Musical Numbers At Service Enjoyed

The regular church service in the chapel of the Manor on Sunday afternoon, October 2, was conducted by Mr. Neale of Toronto. Mr. Neale was accompanied to the Manor by Mr. and Mrs. M. Ford of Weston and Miss M. Zimmerman.

Miss Zimmerman played the accompaniments for the hymns and also a piano solo. Mr. and Mrs. Ford sang a duet, accompanied by Mr. Ford on the electric Spanish guitar. Mr. Ford also sang a solo accompanying himself on the guitar. These musical numbers were very much appreciated by the residents of the Manor. The residents also appreciated a very earnest sermon by Mr. Neale, which followed the musical part of the program. Basing his sermon on the first 17 verses of the first chapter of St. John's Gospel, Mr. Neale spoke on the topic of Abounding Grace.

Adamson-Pendergast September Marriage At Toronto Gore

St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, Toronto Gore, artistically decorated with gladioli and fern and filled with a large gathering of friends and neighbors, was the setting for a very pretty wedding on Saturday morning, September 10, when Miss Edra Margaret Pendergast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pendergast, Toronto Gore, became the bride of Mr. Kenneth McLam Adamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Adamson of Acton. The Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Paul Pendergast, S.F.M., first cousin of the bride, who also performed the marriage ceremony, with Rev. Father Morgan of St. Joseph's Parish, Acton, and Rev. Father Johnston of St. Patrick's Parish, Toronto Gore, seated in the Sanctuary.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a beautiful ballerina gown of white tulle over satin with a Chantilly bodice of lace and a fingertip veil caught up by a tiara of pearls. Her flowers were a semi-cascade of yellow roses, white stephanotis and ivy.

Her maid of honor and sister, Miss Ethel Pendergast, chose a ballerina gown of aqua crystalite with matching accessories and carried a semi-cascade of mums and stephanotis.

The bridesmaid, Miss Gwen Boughen, wore a ballerina gown of coral crystalite with matching accessories. Her flowers were a semi-cascade of stephanotis and mums. The two little flower girls, Dolores and Mabel Pendergast, sisters of the bride, looked sweet in yellow nylon with nosegays of roses and mums.

Melbourne Blow of Acton acted as best man with Frank Pendergast of Kitchener and Fred Crewson of West Flamboro as ushers.

The choir from Immaculate Heart of Mary Separate School, assisted by Miss Mary Pendergast of Colgan, Miss Teresa Frawley of Mt. St. Louis and Miss Shirley Pendergast of Lake Park, all cousins of the bride, sang the ever beautiful, On This Day O Beautiful Mother and Ava Maria during the Mass and at the signing of the register, Panis Angelicus. The choir was directed by Mother Camilla of the Sisters of Loretta with Mrs. J. P. Sullivan as organist.

At the reception held in the parish auditorium, the bride's stepmother, Mrs. Marion Pendergast, received in a teal blue ensemble, wearing a corsage of yellow roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, Mrs. Stella Adamson, also in teal blue and wearing a corsage of pink carnations. After the reception a beautiful wedding breakfast was served with catering by members of the C.W.L.

For a honeymoon trip to Detroit and other parts of Michigan state, the bride chose a tailored suit of pale blue with royal blue accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Upon their return the bridal couple took up residence in Acton.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH ADAMSON are pictured after their marriage in St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Toronto Gore. The bride is the former Edra Margaret Pendergast, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pendergast of Toronto Gore and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Adamson of Acton.

ICELANDIC SETTLERS Edmonton (CP) - A history of Markerville, one of the province's oldest communities, has been compiled by Roy W. Devore of Edmonton and placed in the Alberta archives. Now a mixed farming and dairying centre, it was settled in 1887 by Icelandic immigrants from North Dakota.

"I wonder what's happened to Nancy..."

"Oh! I'm glad you called - I was worried."

The telephone rings and everything's OK

So many of the calls you make every day say "Don't worry"! When someone has to work late, or can't keep a date, or has to cancel an appointment, the telephone lets other people know.

At times like this - whether you are making the call or receiving it - the ready reassurance provided by your telephone can be precious beyond words.

This is just one of countless examples of how your telephone pays its way, as it makes life happier, easier, more secure.

LIGNY-DUFFERIN Presentation Held For Teacher, Wife

A presentation was held at Ligny school recently for the teacher and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson. They were presented with a lovely coffee table and vase.

W. I. Entertained A number of Scotch Block W. I. members were entertained by the Mountain Union W. I. ladies at the home of Mrs. J. J. Kennedy, Main St., Milton on Wednesday evening, September 21. It being their health program, Mr. MacNab showed the ladies a film on the rehabilitation of TB patients.

The sympathy of the community is extended Mr. George Bonnett whose wife passed away recently in Milton Private hospital and to Cecil and Miss Eva Chisholm, whose uncle, Mr. John Easterbrook, Toronto, died on Sunday morning. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Finlay Currie on the birth of their son.

Congratulations to Campbellville Women's Institute on winning the special award for their display at Milton Fair.

Mrs. Edgar Howden and Wayne are recovering nicely from a bout with mumps.

LEAVEN OF MALICE By Robertson Davies

Among the people who read the "engagement" column of The Evening Bellman with astonishment were the two young people whose names were linked there. Solly Bridgetower, a junior professor, and pretty Pearl Vambrace had been out together once and certainly hadn't even mentioned getting married on November 31.

The engagement notice was a very foolish joke, the young pair thought separately.

To their parents it was far worse since they had been feuding for years. Pearl's father rampaged to the newspaper office and to the lawyers and shouted for vengeance in court.

Salterton, a small Canadian city, is the setting for this delightful mystery turned comedy. The author, bearded Robertson Davies, lives in Peterborough and writes for Saturday Night.
