Forum Members Learn of Rural Organizations Need

That there is a definite need of organizations in rural communities where people may meet and discuss their common problems, was very ably shown by Harold Speers when he addressed the members of Halton county farm forum committee when they met to discuss plans for the coming season. Mr. Speers emphasized the fact that farm forum offers a splendid opportunity for these discussions.

But farm forums must not become mere social gatherings, he stressed. We should have a purpose. If we firmly believe in what we are doing, always striving for the good of the most, we can expect to make progress. There is a need for diplomatic leaders who can prevent personal clashes, he said. Most people don't object to being led but refuse to be pushed.

During the business part of the meeting, arrangements were made for a training class for farm forum officers and for the annual fall rally.

Officers for the coming year are: honorary chairman, S. Turner and the president of the County Federation of Agriculture, chairman, Clifford Brown; vice-chairman, William Hume, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Brown.

Mr. Hume expressed the appreciation of farm forum members for the efficient service Mr. Turner had given during his term of office as county chairman.

Holsteins from Halton Breeders Among Shipment of 300 to Peru

300 head of pure bred Holsteins left Oakville, Ont., on September 30 on the first leg of a 6,000 mile journey that will take them to a new home in Peru. The cattle, all first calf heifers, will board ship at Montreal.

This is the first large shipment of Canadian Holsteins to Peru and is the largest single shipment of pure bred Canadian Holsteins made since 1940 when 400 head were sold to Chile.

The animals selected were first record bulls and all are in calf to high record sires. Health standards are high, all being certified free from Tuberculosis and having been officially vaccinated and found negative to the blood test for contagious abortion.

Assembled by International Livestock Exporters and Hays Farms of Oakville, Ont., they were inspected and approved by Fernando Lara Zepeda of Lima, Peru. He is a representative of El Banco de Fomento Agropecuario del Peru, a Peruvian bank that is loaning money to the farmers of that country to make the purchases. The bank is interested in improving the quality of the cattle in Peru and through Mr. Lara, has handled the entire project.

Before leaving Oakville, the cattle were inspected by G. M. Clements, Brantford, secretary of the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada, who expressed the view that they would be well received by the breeders of Peru. Mr. Clements has twice judged the National cattle exposition at Lima.

Holstein breeders in Halton county who contributed animals to this shipment included M. and W. Greeniaus, Clarkson; J. C. Bell, Burlington; Barbara Y. Boyle, Oakville; Clayton May, Milton; Ross Greeniaus, Sheridan; J. M. Wickson and Son, Brantford; Dryden Ross, Burlington; R. M. Jessup, Brantford; E. F. Hearn, Barby; Elton McLean, Oakville; Harold Bingham and Son, Georgetown; A. Hancock Jr., Georgetown; A. M. Sherwood, Burlington; A. G. Hunter, Burlington; W. H. Robinson, Georgetown; Charles J. Hunter, Burlington; Anna Meagher, Oakville; Fred W. Hamilton and Sons, Burlington.

Beardmore

September 25 In the Beardmore league J. Turkoz 833 (330), A. Rutcliffe 683, G. Lambert 681, B. Williams 651, B. Rudy 628 and H. Thompson 600 were best. Upper Leather won three games from Cutso. Winning two games and totals were Curry and Chrono from Rolling Room and Beambouse.

League standing: Upper Leather 7, Chrome 5, Curry 5, Rolling Room 2, Beambouse 2, Cutso 0.

September 26 It was a witty night with Hal Wits taking two and totals from Doodle Bug, as did Dim Wits from Fireflies. Phyllis Angell led the ladies with a 513 (220) triple.

League standing: Hal Wits 10, Doodle Bug 7, Dim Wits 7, Fireflies 4.

September 26 "His" turned the tables on "Hers" with a vengeance and zered them for all games. G. Oakes led the hit parade with a 600 (280), closely followed by S. Bowen with 550, Edie McEachern's 200 and Effie Bowman's 200 score. The best single effort turned in by the gals.

League standing: Hers 12, His 9.

September 27 Krazy Kats bowled like crazy against Go-Fers and took the works. Hot Shots and Bumbler, doped Pin Toppers and Bouncers respectively for two and totals. Joyce Masales 675 (320) and Beryl Creighton 615 were tops for the night.

League standing: Pin Toppers 16, Hot Shots 13, Go-Fers 9, Bouncers 9, Krazy Kats 9, Bumpers 7.

September 28 Bonnie Dowling 640 and George Williams 606 turned in the best treouts for the Baxter Lab league. Athletes swept all games from the Baxter Grounds. Yankees (shades of baseball) took two and totals from Dodgers. Tigers clawed the Indians' scalps for a like result.

League standing: Yankees 9, Dodgers 9, Tigers 8, Braves 7, Athletics 7, Indians 2.

September 28 Gibbons won two from Jordans but failed to pick up the singleton point for totals. Earles tested Brunelles for two and totals. Best single efforts came from Mac Hills 229, Rheta Goodwin 207, Dot Earle 200 and Jessa Cotes 207.

League standing: Earles 5, Gibbons 4, Jordans 3, Brunelles 2.

September 29 Two and totals was the theme down the line for Acton Major. Combines, Tiger Cats and Vagabonds took Dominion Hotel, Firenze and Carrolls in that order. Hank Earle 705 was best for the night. Just missing the 700 bracket were P. Turkoz 690, M. Ross 680, B. Williams 667 and S. Snyder 667.

League standing: Combines 5, Tiger Cats 5, Vagabonds 5, Dom. Hotel 2, Firemen 2, Carrolls 2.

September 29 Ink Spots on the strength of J. Cunningham's 631 and H. Marshall's 605 made it two and totals from Goy Carriage. A-1 Delivery with J. Gibson 648, C. DeForest 610 and H. DeForest clocked Rosdals for two and totals despite E. McHugh's 614. With Alex Comanda punning a 624 to offset J. Ayles 628 for A. P. Green, six Bumpers hand the Firemen, which fit the short end of a 5-2 decision.

League standing: Rosdals 5, A-1 Delivery 5, Ink Spots 5, A. P. Green 2, Rosdale 2, Goy Carriage 2.

October 1 Robins with B. Skilling 416 and G. Williams 450 shot out Hot Shots. Tumbling Teens tumbled Orioles for the works and Bulls' Eyes, not to be outdone, gave the same treatment to Eagle. G. Williamson, but for a blow in the ninth, would have had a 300 game. But many an adult bowler would gladly take his 287.

League standing: Orioles 5, Robins 3, Bulls' Eyes 3, Hot Shots 2, Tumbling Teens 2, Eagles (forgive me gang) 0.
