Will Tour World With Famed Orchestra

A bass player with the London Philharmonic orchestra, John Meyer, visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips and family, R.R. 4, Acton, on Friday. That evening he played with the world-famed orchestra at its concert in Massey Hall in Toronto. His aunt, Mrs. Phillips, and Robert Herman of Alderwood attended.

Mrs. Phillips had a welcoming dinner for her nephew from England on Friday. He was one of 16 chosen to play at the Coronation. He will now be touring the principal cities of the world with the orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer have two children, Nicholas, six, and Julia, three. Their home is in London, England.

New Home Opened To Ospringle Ladies

Mrs. E. Fisher opened her lovely new home to the Ospringle Ladies Aid of Knox Church on Wednesday evening, November 9. The president, Mrs. G. Aitken, presided and opened with a hymn and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. The stilly book, The Flanner House, was given by Mrs. Grundy, predicting the realization of broadening community development, both materially and spiritually through which the residents were helped to meet their many needs.

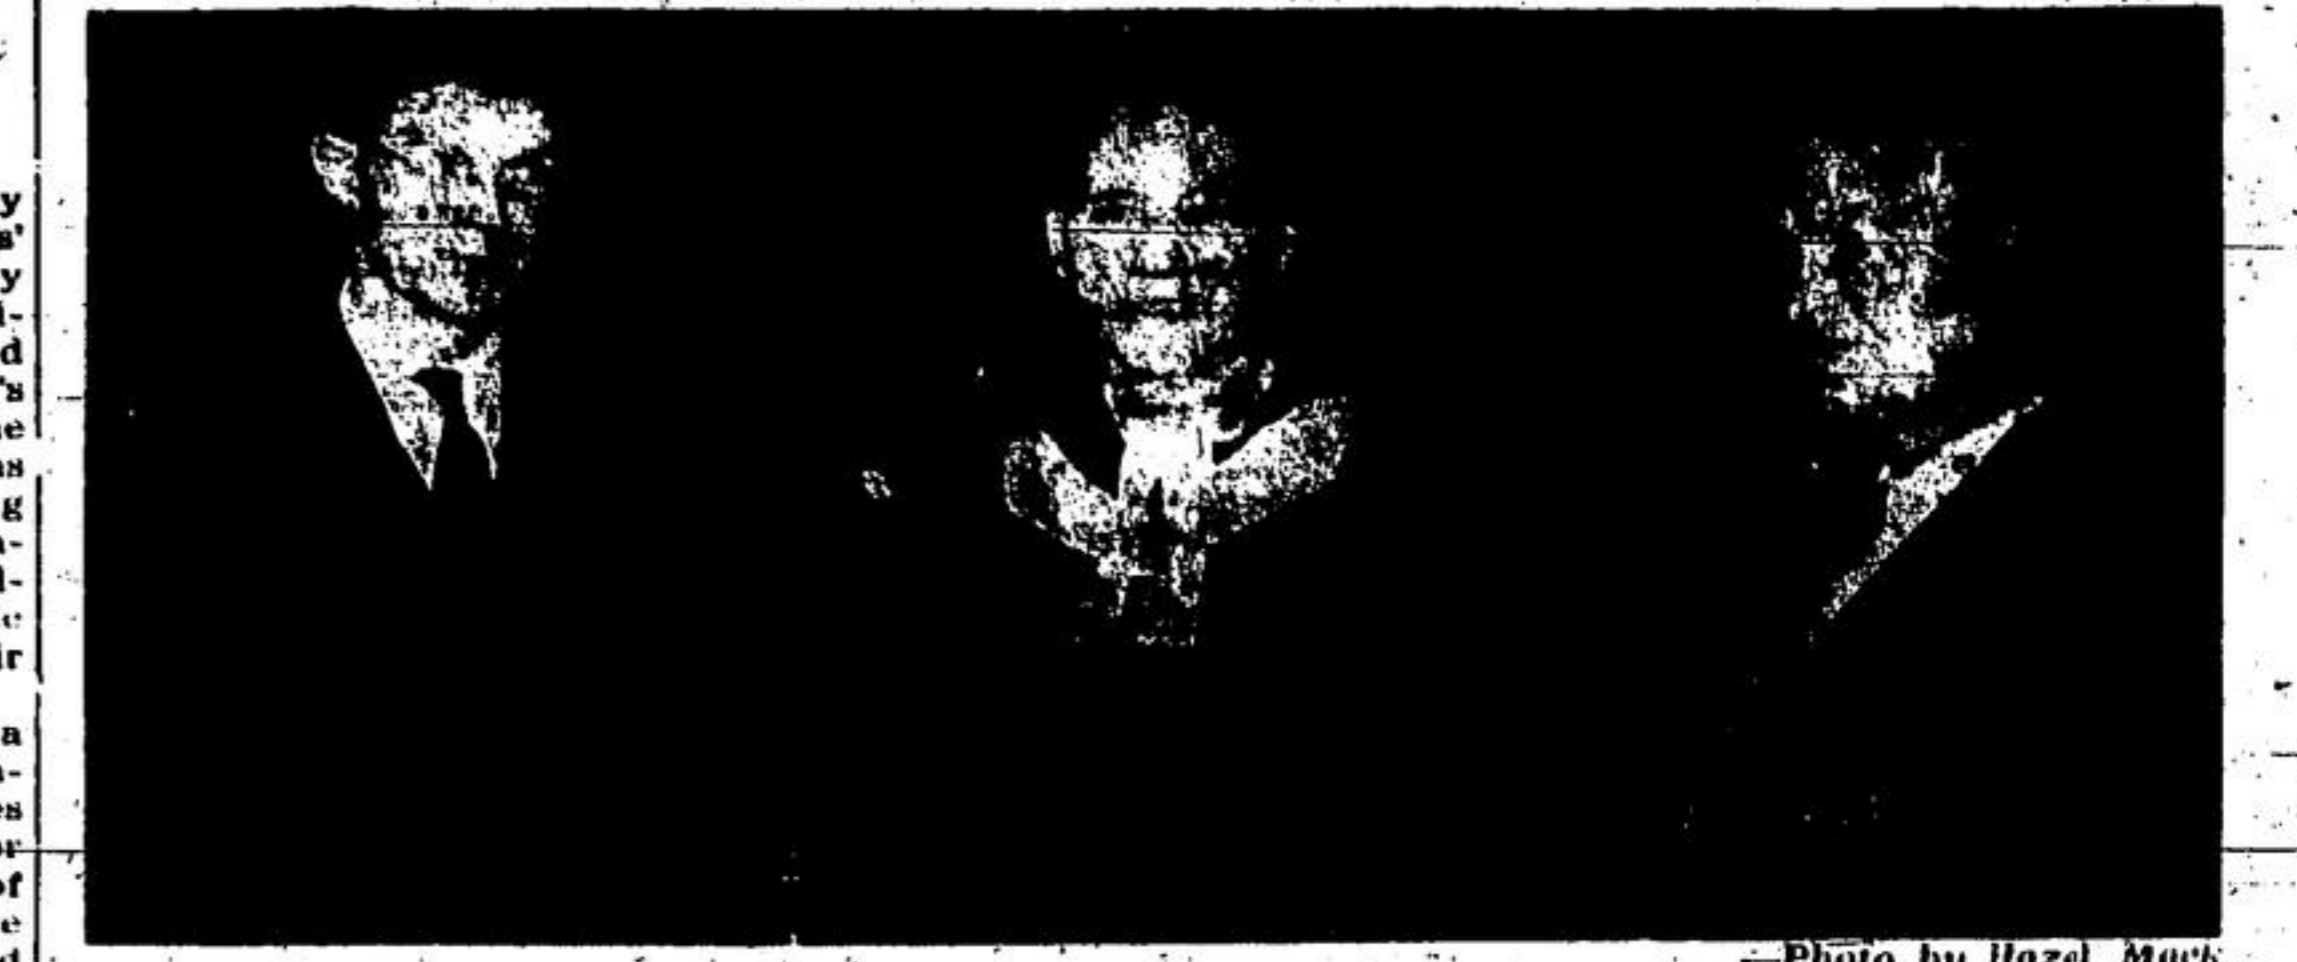

The roll call was answered with a verse on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Sumner, the secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Thanks for cards from shut-ins and items of business, followed. Plans were made for the Christmas supper and concert to be held on December 16.

The motto, "If you cannot say anything good about a person do not say anything at all," was given by Mrs. Sinclair. Scripture questionnaires on the 28th Chapter of Matthew was taken by Mrs. B. Bruce. A Christmas contest was conducted with Mrs. McEwan and Mrs. B. Bruce as winners.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. Luncheon was served and a social half hour followed.

Rev. G. Adams Guest Speaker At Anniversary

Anniversary service was held with large congregations attending both services. Rev. Gordon Adams of Acton was guest speaker, taking as his text, "There is a new heaven and a new earth." The evening text was from John 13:12. "This is my commandment that ye love one another as I have loved you." Both were very inspiring.

Minions made quaffed as guest singers at the morning service, a number in the choir, the girls' quartet and choir in the evening, added much to the service. The church was decorated with baskets and bouquets of lovely Chrysanthemums.

A turkey supper was held on Tuesday night with a splendid crowd. A good program of readings and musical numbers was enjoyed by all.

The annual meeting of the Ballinapad Hall was held on Monday night. Elwood Snow was elected chairman and Mrs. F. Smith secretary for the meeting. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. E. McElroy gave the secretary's report.

Lloyd Marshall was re-elected as trustee for three years. Jesse McElroy and Archie Lawer are also trustees and E. McElroy secretary. Treasurer. A lengthy discussion on ways and means of remodeling the hall followed. A fund was started to raise money with a very nice start being made. We hope it may increase rapidly. Chester Swandich was appointed treasurer of the building fund.

We were sorry to learn that Alex Mitchell was in an accident while on his way to a hunting trip up north. He had to stop at a stop sign. He had to have 25 stitches in his forehead. He returned to his home.

Pastor Resigns Local Charge For Mission

Regret was expressed at the resignation of Mr. Allan Wain, pastor of the local Presbyterian church. Mr. Wain leaves shortly to work in Afghanistan. Although Mr. and Mrs. Wain have only been here a year, their loss will be felt as their friendliness and interest have endeared them to all whom they met. Best wishes of this community follow them in this phase of the Magister's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McDonald, David and Judy of Rochester, N.Y., spent a few days with the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Alec Towel of Green Sound spent Thursday at the same home.

Mrs. Frank Shukis entertained a number of ladies at her home on Wednesday evening at a brush demonstration with Mrs. McGillivray of Guelph in charge. At the close of an interesting program the ladies served a delightful refreshment.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson and Brian visited on Sunday evening with the former's aunt, Mrs. J. D. Robertson, Orangeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Len J. Buck, Judy and Marjorie attended the Mink Show at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto on Friday and Saturday.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Enoch Wood and family in the sudden passing of Mr. Wood last week.

Recall Armistice At S.S. Meeting

In observance of Armistice on Sunday, at the opening of the Sabbath School, names of men in uniform for the First World War were read from the Honour Roll by Dorothy Knapfack, and for the Second World War by Peter Eyles.

The W.M.S. meeting was held at the home of Mr. Jack Noble on Thursday evening with 14 ladies attending. Scripture was read by Mrs. Sanford and prayer by Mrs. Mills.

Two minutes silence was observed in memory of those who had given their lives in the world wars followed by prayer read by the president, Mrs. Mitchell. Several ladies read appropriate passages for observance of armistice. Bible was the text and used in a verse. Scripture was repeated by each. The Lord's Prayer in unison closed the meeting.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late William Shebourne, who died suddenly early Saturday morning.

Visitors: Mr. David Sims home with Mr. A. C. Bourne for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Dixon of Toronto, with the Campbell Sinclairs. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mills of Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mills and Mrs. Helen Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Bennett of Detroit a couple of weeks ago.

Entertain Neighbors

Mr. and Mrs. E. Fisher entertained 70 of their neighbors at their lovely new home on Friday evening. Games and dancing were enjoyed at the reception, followed by a dainty lunch. Prizes for cards were won by Mrs. F. Baple, Mrs. Harvey Fisher, Mr. Fred Archibald and Mr. Ralph Sinclair.

Play Piano Game

Mrs. Harold McMillan was hostess for the Ospringle Women's Institute for the November meeting with 19 ladies present. Rollcall was answered by A. Current. Event: "Pillules" and treasurer's report were given by Mrs. Wilfred Awey. Mrs. George Grundy reported on cards sent to the sick. Miss Doris Fines gave the report of the exhibit at Erin Fair, which won second prize. Mrs. Eanley voiced her appreciation for a box of fruit she had received.

A report of the recent District Directors' meeting was given by Mrs. Ken Stubbington. Five dollars was voted to the Unitarian service for relief to Greece and Korea. Highlights of the Canadian Association of Consumers' Bulletin was given by Miss Doris Fines.

The first vice-president, Mrs. Ken Stubbington, took charge of the meeting and spoke a few words of regret on losing Mrs. George Young from our community. Mrs. Young was presented with a table planter. Although taken by surprise she made a fitting reply. A paper on the topic, Community Activities and Public Relations, was read by Mrs. E. Archibald.

Mrs. D. G. Robertson acted as master of ceremonies for the panel show. "I've got a secret." Members of the panel were Mrs. E. Fisher, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. Dan Winter. The contestants who puzzled the panel were Mrs. A. Tanley, Miss Doris Fines and Mrs. W. Awey. An auction of plants and personalia with Mrs. G. Young as auctioneer concluded the program.

An exchange of Christmas gifts was planned for the next meeting when Miss Doris Fines will show films of her recent trip to the west coast. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Margaret and Mrs. A. Tanley and Mrs. Dan Winter.
