Historic Line To Be Marked

The Wellington County Historical Research Society expect to have the marker up that will show where the "Bee Line," the first run in that section in 1792, crosses No. 7 Highway, before the end of November, or as soon after as possible.

The townships of Guelph and Brantford are bearing the cost of the marker's erection. Reeve David Gray of Brantford and Reeve Robert Pallframan of Guelph have taken much interest in recognition of this historic line since it was brought to their attention a few months ago. "We need more placemark of historic interest marked to interest travellers in our county, they agreed."

No reserve is the farm is sold. Please come on time as this is a large offering on grounds. WM. A. GIBSON, Auctioneer, Phone Guelph 7435. T. Gilchrist, W. Hunter, clerks.

HALTON MANOR Remembrance Day, Concert Of Interest

Remembrance Day, which was celebrated in the churches of Milton on Sunday, November 13, was also observed at Halton Manor on that same day. Rev. E. Osborn, minister of Knox Presbyterian church, Milton, conducted the service in the chapel of the Manor. Mrs. S. Locke played the accompaniment for the hymns and led in the singing of them with her lovely voice.

Mr. Osborn spoke of three wars that have devastated the world since 1914: the first world war, the second world war and the war in Korea. These have had their origins in atheistic philosophies, philosophies that have contradicted the principles of Christianity. It was in defense of these Christian principles that our men fought and died overseas and it is the principles of the religion of Jesus that are the only way by which world peace can be attained today.

Musical Concert
At 7:30 in the evening of the same day, Sunday, November 13, the Eaton Concert Party came to the Manor to put on a musical program for the residents. This concert party consisted of two ladies and three gentlemen. Mr. Fawcett Eaton of Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Eaton and Miss Sydney Hordbeck of Mofat and Mr. Roger Wilson of St. Catharines. Mrs. Fawcett Eaton accompanied the party.

After being introduced by Mr. Clarke, the superintendent, Mr. Fawcett Eaton acted as chairman to introduce a program of choral, vocal and instrumental numbers. The choir as a whole sang such well-loved old favorites as Put on your old Grey Bonnet, and It's a Long Way to Tipperary, and the sweet old southern songs, O. Susanna, Golden Slippers and others.

Miss Hordbeck played the accompaniment for the chorus. Miss Hordbeck and Mrs. Bruce Eaton displayed fine musical talent in the playing of several piano duets, when they played compositions by Schubert, Chopin and Handel. Mr. Roger Wilson played as a piano solo his own composition, Melody in Blue.

There were also a number of vocal solos by Mrs. Bruce Eaton, Mr. Bruce Eaton and Mr. Roger Wilson. The program was brought to a close with the singing of a number of hymns by the chorus alone and then by the chorus and residents in unison.

The playing of such a varied program reflects great credit on the versatility of the musicians and their musical numbers were greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the residents. Mr. Clarke expressed the views of all present when he thanked the musicians for a very enjoyable evening and asked them to come again soon.
