

Supper, Program Precede Visit Of Santa Claus

A full evening for the whole family at the Baptist church on Friday evening included supper, a program and a climactic visit from Santa Claus. Ladies of the church served supper to about 80 in the church basement, and more arrived afterwards.

The pastor, Ray Costerus, led in carol singing before the program began. Joanne Landsborough recited a Welcome followed by Judy Gordon and Paul Dunk with recitations. Three girls, Ruthie Costerus, Linda Gordon and Jean Bulmer, gave a Christmas Message and then three more recitations were given by Billy Landsborough, Joan Gordon and Ruthie Costerus.

Tots of the nursery and beginners class sang. Their teachers are Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Morris. The primary students, whose teacher is Miss Fay Garner, sang next.

Members of the Explorers and the Young Peoples each put on plays which were most timely. The Explorers play, "While Mortals Sleep," depicted the writing of the carol, "O Little Town of Bethlehem." John Tripp played the part of the hymn writer, Lewis Redner, who dreamed he heard angels singing, awoke and quickly wrote down the beautiful melody. Others in the cast were Ruth Landsborough as his wife, Margie Suter as an angel, Betty Garner, Brenda Cripps, Susan Cohen and Shirley Cohen as four shepherds. Charles Suter, Roy Dunk and Reg Dunk as the three Wise Men and Ralph Tripp as a lame boy. Miss Dorothea Grode directed the play, assisted by Mrs. John Chapman.

The Crowded Life was the title of the play put on by the Young Peoples. A modern-day family found deeper meaning in Christmas. In the cast were Warren Wagner, Fay Garner, John Tripp, Ruth Landsborough, Roy Dunk and Bob Landsborough.

Santa Claus arrived with candy, fruit and individual gifts for about 35 children.

Do Your Best - Be Prepared

The boys of both the cub packs are having their Christmas parties this week. One was held on Tuesday at the regular meeting and the next one is tonight (Thursday).

The boys all brought gifts, which are going to be taken to the Children's Hospital in Toronto.

The games all had a Christmas theme. One was a gift unwrapping contest, with the winning boy the proud possessor of a rubber mouse! There was also a relay and a Christmas card scramble.

Hot dogs and chocolate milk made the evening complete.

There will be no Cub meetings held next week.

About 35 Scouts of the First Acton Troop were at the Scout Hall for the regular meeting on Monday, which turned out to be a Christmas party. After games and stunts, hot dogs and chocolate milk were enjoyed by all the boys and their leaders. Hartley Coles, Henry de Vries, Roy Kirkness and David Dills. Wayne Currie made a presentation to the scoutmaster before the group broke up.
