Value Of Wood Lot Explained To Men's Club By Zone Forester

Rockwood United church men's club held their annual meeting in the Sunday school hall Wednesday, January 11, with a good attendance. Mr. George Day was in the chair and opening the meeting with a hymn and prayer by Rev. J. Dilts. Ross Gordon gave the minutes of the last meeting and Gordon Harris presented the treasurer's statement for the year 1955.

The program for the meeting was in charge of Robert Bingham and Frank Stout. Mr. C. R. Groves of the Hespeler Branch Forestry Department gave a very fine address on the subject of wood lots. We have come to realize, he said, that wood lands should be properly harvested and replenished with new trees. He pointed out the extra income which is available to owners of woodlots in the sale of logs. Mr. Groves showed a film which further brought to the attention of the audience the need of planning in woodlot enterprises.

Mr. Garry Whorton of Guelph favored the audience with several fine selections on his piano accompaniment. The guests were introduced by Robert Bingham and thanked by Dave Armstrong.

Rev. J. Dilts conducted the election of officers, which resulted as follows: president, Gordon Ostrand; vice-president, Gordon Harris; secretary, Alvin Root; treasurer, Thomas Diamond; publicity, George Day.

Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Choir Officers
The United church choir held their annual meeting last Thursday with the following members installed: president, Stanley Harris; vice-president, Ross Gordon; secretary, Mrs. Shirley Harris; treasurer, Mrs. Jean Hosking.

Move South
Mr. Neil Gordon, who sold his residence on Harris St. to Mr. Jefferman of Guelph, brother of Mr. Charles Jefferman of the Red and White Store, has left with his wife and daughter for Sarasota, Florida, where they will reside.

Mr. Frank Fowke left last week for California, where they will reside.

Former Rector Writes
In the January issue of the Niagara Anglican paper, is a write-up by Rev. E. A. Brooks of St. Andrew's church, Guelph, who was a former rector of St. Alban's church, Acton and St. John's church, Rockwood, in connection with a recent trip to England. He spent some time in Exeter, Wells, Salisbury and Winchester Cathedrals, also in London at Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral and St. Martin's-in-the-Fields.

Mr. Brooks attended lectures at Canterbury with students of St. Augustine's College and other well known edifices, such as Ely Cathedral, King's College Chapel, Cambridge; Great St. Mary's, Oxford; St. Peter Mancroft, Norwich; places in Suffolk and Essex. On one occasion at St. Paul's Cathedral, Mrs. Brooks was nearby to the Queen Mother during an annual service of St. Paul's. He was also present at annual services of the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem in Salisbury Cathedral; at Bemerton where a person could be back in the 17th century with George Herbert; at Wilton House with Sir Philip Sydney; Shakespeare came there once to play "As You Like It."

Sunday evening, Rev. J. Dilts exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Sinn of Ebenezer church.

Annual church meetings are slated for next week including the United church, St. John's church and the Presbyterian church.

—Last Friday morning at 11 a.m. firemen answered a call to the home of W. Roberts, Main St. north, where a grease pad had taken fire. Considerable smoke filled the house. No serious damage resulted.

NEW WIRING
The HEPC have been working in the village the past week putting in new wiring and other repairs.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Miss Susanne Leeson, who passed away at London this week. Funeral was held from the Swackhamer funeral home, Hillburgh on Wednesday afternoon, with interment at Price's Corner's cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nevills spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cook, Orangeville. Mrs. Cook, who has been a patient in Dufferin Area hospital the past two weeks, was able to return home Thursday. We all wish her a complete and speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hooper and family spent Sunday at Collingwood with Mr. and Mrs. Mearl McGaulder.

Miss Anne Hall of the Bell telephone staff, Guelph, spent a couple of days this week at her home here.

A very successful euchre, sponsored by the Rifle club, was held in the Community Hall Friday evening with 16 tables playing. The high scores went to Mrs. Noah King and Mr. Elwood Nodwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Holly Fagin, Mona Mills, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nevills.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah King spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack McEachern and Robert.

—Skating is popular on many ponds throughout the district as well as in the arena.

Mrs. Gisby Hostess To W.M.S. Ladies

The W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Gisby on Thursday evening. Mrs. Roughley, vice-president, presiding. Scripture was taken by Miss Ivens and prayer by Mrs. James Noble. Mrs. Roughley read an article on the life and work of a hymn writer, James Montgomery, and Miss Ivens one on children of Believing Parents. Mrs. A. Bentor reviewed the life and work of Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

The treasurer read the annual report which showed over-reaching the allocation for the year by a few dollars. The secretary reported sending a card of sympathy to Mrs. Curr, our autumn guest speaker, who recently was bereaved, and Miss Ivens was delegated to get a gift for our president, Mrs. Mitchell, who has been in hospital. The hostess served refreshments after the meeting.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barber on the arrival of a little daughter on Monday.

We are pleased that Mrs. W. Mitchell was able to return home from Toronto General Hospital on Saturday after a month there which included eye surgery.

The Karn's attended a birthday party for Mr. William Karn, who is 79 at Inglewood on Friday evening. Happy birthday, Mr. Karn!

Name Mrs. L Collins President of W.A.

The January meeting of St. John's W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Ernie Hall on Thursday evening, with 15 present. The president, Mrs. Leslie Collins, opened the meeting with the singing of a hymn and prayer. The Bible reading was given by Mrs. Culley, followed by a short service of dedication of officers by Rev. E. Culley.

Officers for 1956 are as follows: president, Mrs. Les Collins; first vice-president, Mrs. E. Hall; second vice-president, Mrs. Ken Nevills; treasurer, Mrs. Wilfred Tilt; secretary, Mrs. E. Cheyne; pianist, Mrs. Bert Weeks; flower and sick committee, Mrs. Ken Nevills and Mrs. Wilfred Tilt; parsonage committee, Mrs. E. Cheyne and Mrs. E. Hall; missionary treasurer, Mrs. William Nevills.

A short business period and plans for a pot luck supper were completed. Mrs. Culley as program convener conducted a Bible quiz from the Book of Genesis. She then talked on the life and work of Dr. Surgeon among the Indians in Jamaica, which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Singing of Edward MacHugh's Evening Prayer and Benediction brought the meeting to a close. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and a social half hour enjoyed.

Readings of Interest To W.I. Members

The January meeting of Silver-Wood W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Henderson Sr. on Thursday last, 13 members and seven children attending. Roll call brought forth many old-fashioned ways of entertaining.

A copy of the book Pages of the Past by Gwendoline Clarke, is to be ordered for use in the Stone school. Arrangements have been made to hold small euchre parties in the homes in the near future, to augment the funds.

The convener of the day, Mrs. George Burt, was absent due to illness, and the speaker, Mr. Blake, of the Department of Planning and Development at Queen's Park, was also unable to be present.

Excerpts from letters from a Hudson's Bay factor's wife living in the Arctic were read by Mrs. Marchington.

Current events were given by Mrs. W. R. Norton and Mrs. K. C. Lindsay's reading was about early days in Halton, taken from the history of Boston church. An interesting paper on the province Manitoba by Mrs. Corbett completed the program.

A delightful tea was served by Mrs. E. L. Miller and Mrs. Russell Miller in conjunction with the hostess, Mrs. Henderson.

The clear, bright days this week resulted in more pleasantly phrased conversations about the weather and also in better walking and driving conditions.
