

Ex-President Of Fair Ninety On Thursday

Another former resident of Acton will next Thursday, February 23, join that fine group of over 90 years when Robert Lowrie marks his 90th birthday at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. McDonald, R.R. 1, Streetsville.

Father, Son Farm Transfers Talked By Local Forums

National Farm Radio Forum last week studied the important topic of father and son partnership. Forums were asked what they considered the most important points to be taken into consideration when drawing up such a partnership and what arrangements should be made to provide transfer of the farm business to the son.

LOCAL NEWS

Lunch and presentations were special features at the closing classes of the night school this week. —Got your 1956 plates and driving licence yet? Only 11 shopping days left before the February 29 deadline.

—One of the season's largest crowds turned out Friday night at the Acton Square Dance Club. Guests from Fergus, Hamilton, Guelph and Rockwood swelled the numbers.

—The Anglican Church Men's Club postponed a planned music appreciation night last week. Next week the group proposes a tour through the A. P. Green plant here.

—Pleased to hear that the mayor of a small town in the midwestern States proclaimed last week as "Nothing Week." He said the people were tired of weeks set aside to glorify everything from dogs and cats to pickles and pumpernickel, and decided they needed a rest.

—Winners of the euchre held in St. Joseph's church hall on Friday evening were: ladies' first, Mrs. Wes Marchant; men's first, Mr. W. Duval; Sr. ladies' second, Mrs. Norm Morton; men's second, Mrs. W. Roberts; low, Mrs. Lazenby.
