Mr. Oag is 26 years old and celebrated his birthday at the Picket home on Friday. He has noted considerable difference between the farming in Scotland and Canada. He is one of four Scottish young farmers in Canada for the three months' stay. The other three are Robert Howie in Lincoln county, Allistair Grant in Greg county and Mary Adam in Wentworth county.

Mr. Oag and his three companions left Scotland in April and plan to return in June. He will stay in Halton from May 1 to 10, then spend four days at the O.A.C. in Guelph and at Niagara Falls. Following this, he will visit York
