Presbyterian Pastor And Family Honored At Church Gathering

The family of Rev. R. H. Armstrong was honored Friday night at a congregational gathering in Knox Presbyterian church. Mr. Armstrong is leaving the Acton charge, where he has been pastor for seven years, to go to Hamilton. On behalf of the congregation, clerk of session A. Mann presented the family with a TV set, and a billfold of money. Miss Isobel Anderson read a poem, composed by herself, prior to the presentation as an address of farewell and good wishes. On behalf of the choir, E. A. Hanson presented the family with a TV lamp. Mrs. Armstrong was also given a bouquet of flowers.

Wm. Gordon, clerk for the Rockwood parish, also spoke and presented a gift to the popular minister, his wife and three children. Mr. Black, student minister to the Rockwood and Eden Mills Presbyterian congregations, took part in the evening and praised the influence of Mr. Armstrong during his incumbency.

The departing pastor replied for himself and his family. He spoke fondly of the associations they had made here in seven years.

A program preceded the presentation. Charles Kirkness was chairman and duets were sung by Mrs. J. Davidson and Mrs. W. Durmarch. R. Spielvogel played the violin and three humorous readings were given by Mrs. R. R. Parker.

Acton Mixed

May 8: Dirty Skunks with two and totals win from Terriers took a strangle hold on the second series and only a mathematical chance will stop them from making the play-offs. Pin Clippers with a like win from Shamrocks kept their hopes alive. Although out of contention, Thistles clobbered High Rollers for the works just to show there were no hard feelings. One lonesome triple reared its head, a 675 tricount by Ed Molody.

League standing: Dirty Skunks 64 1/2, Pin Clippers 58, Thistles 54 1/2, Terriers 40, High Rollers 39, Shamrocks 38.

Baxter Lab.

May 9: This final of the Baxterites was a ball. In the three game, total pinfall to count go. Braves and Yankees were hooked up and Braves surged into a 63 pin lead, picked up nine pins more in the second game and then the roof fell in. Hank Kelly and Ed Landsborough of the Yankees bowled identical scores of 244 to give the Yankees the championship by 11 pins. Final pinfall being Braves 2499, Yankees 2510. Had DeForest of the Braves wound up a chump instead of a champ. Last frame, last game, had went for the bundle and punched the headpin. Stough Had, but that's the breaks of the game.

Acton Ladies

May 9: In the semi wind-up it was Lucky Strikes giving the heaveho to Hot Cats and Sloppy Spares writing fairs to Go-Getters. The following night saw Lucky Strikes toing the foul line with Sloppy Spares. The first game was close enough to give Sloppy Spares hopes of bringing home the bacon but Lucky Strikes were of a different mind, took the next two by plenty to wind up as champs. Total pinfall, three games, Lucky Strikes 2557, Sloppy Spares 2206, H. LeSueur, H. Otterbein, D. Earle, J. Coles, D. Henry and P. Goldman can wipe the sweat from their fevered brows and enjoy the spoils of victory. Congrats.

Teen-Agers

May 12: This one was the play-off to end all play-offs, and the kids gave all they had. Bulls Eyes and Hot Shots were in the final. A two game roll total pins to count. Hot Shots were on the headpin for 70 pins in the first go, but the Bulls Eyes rallied to snare the second go and is looked as if they might make up the deficit, but they faltered in the last frame and it was Hot Shots by 32 pins. Final count was Hot Shots 1880, Bulls Eyes 1948. It would be hard to single individual performances, all the gang tried their best, so we'll congratulate B. Kirkness, R. Lambert, D. Wilds, D. Dawkins and G. Hulford as champs and to the losers, better luck next year.

Dissa and Data

With the award winners, it was almost a clean sweep for the Le-Sueurs, Helen took the "Tops Cleaners" and the Ledgers I.G.A. with 276 single and 873 triple. Phil with a 758 won the Gord McCutcheon haberdashery. Bill Williams with a 319 picked off the Carroll's voucher... that winds up this week's check to mention that the rubber chicken circuit is in full swing... so adios amigos.
