SILVER-WOOD

Mrs. McClure Tells W.I. of West Coast

Sixteen members of Silver-Wood W.I. met at the home of Mrs. K. C. Lindsay on May 10 for their meeting on Citizenship and Education, with Mrs. Henderson Sr. as convener. School Days was sung as the opening, followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was answered by giving a proverb. A committee was formed to look after the Institute Fair exhibit, consisting of Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Batkin, Mrs. Burt and Mrs. Bert Corbett. As secretary, Mrs. George Henderson was attending the secretaries' conference at the O.A.C. Her place was taken for the day by Mrs. Bert Corbett. Current events were given by Mrs. Burt and an interesting article on working wives was read by Mrs. Norton.

Mrs. McClure's talk on the province of the month, British Columbia, was made particularly interesting by descriptions of places seen by her on her two recent trips to the west coast and pictures of some of the places of interest. The convener read a paper on the life of Adelaide Hoodless, the founder of Women's Institutes. An exchange of flower slips was made, followed by a social hour, tea being served by Mrs. Lindsay and her assistants, Mrs. Burt and Mrs. Bert Corbett. Mrs. C. W. King of Detroit has been visiting with the Marchingtons.

Mrs. Susan Griffin Has 101st Birthday

A number of friends and neighbors called on Mrs. Susan Griffin of Erin on Tuesday, May 15 when she celebrated her 101st birthday. Mrs. Griffin resides at the home of Mrs. D. McDougall. She received many gifts, flowers and beautiful cards, and a telegram from Premier Leslie Frost. Mrs. Griffin is about daily, takes a keen interest in affairs of the day and enjoys remarkably good health. A dainty lunch was served including cake and ice cream.

The charge involved the 10-year-old daughter of his employer.

OBITUARY

Mrs. J. Kennedy First President Of Acton W.I.

The last surviving member of the family of the late John and Jane Nelson passed away at Unionville on Wednesday of last week when Mrs. John H. Kennedy entered into rest. She had been in failing health for some years the last seven of which she was confined to her room. Mrs. Kennedy was born at Rockwood and spent most of her life in this district, going to reside in Unionville 12 years ago to be near her daughter, Mrs. James Russell and family.

Before her marriage in 1903 to the late John H. Kennedy she was Miss Anusha Evelyn Nelson. Two children remain to revere the memory of a beloved mother. They are Angus of Guelph and Jean (Mrs. W. J. Russell) of Unionville. Six grandchildren also remain. The beloved father and husband passed on 24 years ago. Many present Actonians and readers will recall the busy life of Mrs. Kennedy in Acton. She was active in church work and for many years was organist in the old Methodist church, and a member of the Sunday school orchestra, she was also a vocalist who gave freely of her talent in the United and Knox church choirs. She was a member of the United church. There wasn't a ladies' organization in the church to which she did not lend a helpful and willing hand. She was the first president of Acton's Women's Institute and a charter member of the Dominion of Devonshire Chapter of the I.O.G.E. Her was a willing hand for all that was good. Many reverse with the family this life that meant much to the community.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon with service in Unionville conducted by her minister, Rev. Butler, who also conducted the service in Fairview cemetery in Acton.

BALLINAFAD

Honor Five W.I. Members

The May meeting of the W.I. was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Marshall, the president presiding. The meeting opened with the opening Ode and Mary Stewart Collect Roll call was answered by 15 members naming their favorite fancy work. The motto, Kindliness is the oil that keeps the hinges of friendship from rusting was given by Mrs. Jesse McEney. Mrs. William Kirkwood gave current events. Mrs. Snow took over for an impromptu debate, proving Men are better cooks than women, which proved to be very humorous. Membership pins were presented to five ladies who have been faithful workers in the W.I. Plans were considered as to the building of a Hall. A committee was named to locate a suitable place. Mrs. Archie McEney and Mrs. Archie Laxer were appointed to attend a banquet in Guelph in honor of Mrs. Berry of Australia. A C.W.W. president a eulogy will be held at the home of Mrs. Gibson in aid of the Welfare Fund when all members and their husbands are invited. The meeting closed with the Queen and hurch was served by the hostess and social committee. Anniversary services were held in the United church on Sunday, May 6 when four services had cordially congregations. Baskets of bright flowers added a spot of brightness. Rev. B. J. Warr of Milton in the morning and Rev. I. G. Stapleton of Streetsville at the evening service gave very inspiring messages. The choir assisted by Mr. Elmer Dredge of Campbellville in the morning and the Hillburgh Quartette in the evening, added much to the services. The turkey supper on Tuesday night was quite a success as usual.

Items of News We extend sympathy to Mrs. Marshall MacLaughlin in the loss of her mother, who passed away in Owen Sound. Visitors in the community over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cripps with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cotton. Mrs. Annie Vannatter with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kirkwood, Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas and Miss Laura of Clifford with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shortall. Mr. and Mrs. Ray McEney with Mrs. D. McKechnie. Miss Margaret Early and Mr. Elmer Dredge of Campbellville with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEney. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McEney with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEney. Mr. Jim Kirkwood, student minister left on Monday for his second year at Stone, Sask.
