Bannockburn W.I. Meets at School

Bannockburn Women's Institute held their regular meeting in Bannockburn school Wednesday evening. The meeting opened with the Ode, followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call was answered by an event in history that makes me glad I am a Canadian.

Thank you notes were received from Mrs. M. Gordon and Mr. Walter Linham for cards received while they were ill.

Committees were appointed to plan a bus trip and an apron display for the fall fair. It was decided to hold a euchre to benefit the Kirkpatrick family.

The motto, How to be a good Neighbor, was given by Mrs. E. Wilkinson. A splendid paper was prepared and read by Mrs. C. Sinclair for Citizenship and Education, followed by a humorous reading, Before the Meeting.

The meeting closed with the Queen and lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

EVERTON

Birthday Party, Visitors in News

Mrs. Ted Jestin entertained for her daughter Patsy's eighth birthday Saturday afternoon with 10 girl friends attending. Miss Donna Milne, Rockwood, spent the weekend with Patsy.

Mr. Ted Fountain, Guelph, and Tom Fountain, Toronto, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fountain and family.

Miss Laurie McDougall spent the holiday with her school chum, Miss Elizabeth Horlop.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones and family Hamilton, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac. McLeod and family, Thornbury, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Robertson.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Alton and Miss Jennie Tovell were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alton, Ian, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patten, Diane and Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Matheson and family, Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. John Alton and Miss Jennie Tovell accompanied Mr. Robert Patten, Guelph, and visited Mr. Alton's aunt, Mrs. Alice Wilkerson, Burlington, on Saturday.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. H. Uterwik and family were Mr. Deboer and family, Hamilton.

Hold Euchre Party To Assist Family

Euchre was held in Bannockburn school on Saturday, sponsored by Bannockburn Women's Institute. There were 18 tables playing. Ladies' first went to Mrs. W. Sinclair of Georgetown and second to Mrs. S. Robin of Georgetown; men's first to Ernie McEnery of Ballinafad and second to Fred Brooks of Limehouse.

Lunch was served and happy birthday was sung for two who were celebrating their birthdays. Prizes and coffee were donated. A pound of coffee was auctioned off, bringing the total to $58 to be donated to the Kirkpatrick family.

A paradox: we thought last Monday was the 24th of May, but judging by the calendar, it's today!

Sixth Annual Spring Recital In Rockwood

The sixth annual recital was presented in Rockwood town hall last Friday and Saturday evenings to appreciative audiences. The piano and vocal pupils of Miss Joan Kucharski, A.R.C.T., R.M.T., who teaches in Rockwood and Acton, took part in the two programs.

Impressive playing and singing by guests and Miss Kucharski interspersed the many numbers by pupils. Miss Dorothy Jonasson, student at the Conservatory of Music in Toronto, was guest violinist. Miss Marie Harris acted as accompanist. Miss Kucharski and Miss Dorothy Armstrong formed a two piano team. These talented performers added accomplished classical and semi-classical numbers to the varied program.

Ross Gordon was chairman Friday evening and John Lloyd chairman Saturday evening.

Acton pupils presented flowers to Miss Kucharski on Friday evening and Rockwood pupils gave her and Miss Jonasson bouquets Saturday.

National Secretary Presents Y Awards

Boys and girls who won competitions during the Easter tournament, the winners of the floor hockey and gymnastic events were feted Thursday evening of last week in the Y. Trophy for the floor hockey was won by H. A. Smith, Meaford, and about 40 by the Y Ladies' Auxiliary.

Wes McVicar, national secretary of physical education with Y.M.C.A. in Toronto spoke to the group on "the greatest wonder in the world." He pointed out that the body with its many thousands of miles of transportation system is the most wonderful thing in the world. He emphasized the need to keep in good shape.

He was introduced by Bob Brashaw and Ann Daintith, secretary of the leaders' corps, thanked him.

Mr. McVicar presented the hockey trophy to Wayne Ridley, team captain, and crests and certificates to the seven leaders who passed with their first and second year junior examinations.

ROCKWOOD

Rockwood's "Grand Old Lady" Dies in Fergus in 102nd Year

At Fergus, Sunday, May 13, there passed away Rockwood's grand old lady, Mrs. O'Brien-Cann, in her 102nd year. Mrs. O'Brien-Cann was a native of Rockwood, and before her previous marriage, was Matilda Soper, and long a resident on Harris St. A sister, Mrs. Alex Hunter, predeceased her some years ago. Two nephews and a niece survive her.

Funeral took place last Wednesday from the Rumley Funeral Home, Acton, with Mr. Douglas Black student minister at the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment took place in Rockwood cemetery in the family plot. Pallbearers were Messrs. Frank Day, Douglas McNabb, Albert Shultz, Harvey Laverty, Rockwood, Stanley and Dyer Cripps, Acton.

Floral wreaths bore silent tribute to the memory of the deceased.

C.G.I.T. Open Night

Tuesday evening last week, the final meeting for the season of the C.G.I.T. group was held in the Sunday school room of the United church, it being an open night for parents of the young folks. Miss Pearl Hamilton, senior leader, welcomed the guests and thanked the W.A. and W.M.S. for help during the year. A short program by senior and junior groups was held. 10 girls under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Stout and accompanied by Mrs. Frank Speck, sang three numbers. Story Book Ball, Swing Low Sweet Chariot and Speed Away.

The senior girls, under the leadership of Mrs. Loren Guild demonstrated hand puppets using the story of Hansel and Gretel. The Junior group under the direction of Miss Gladys Hanna, sang songs from the play. Miss G. Hanna explained the purpose and aims of the C.G.I.T. and announced that Naomi Julliffe had been selected for camp and the selection was made on points. A John Edwards and Eleanor Hosking were next in points and each received the gift of a book. Miss G. Hanna presented each junior with a C.G.I.T. pin. M. Edwards and E. Hosking of the senior group were selected for camp. The senior group received World Friendship badges.

Mrs. Fred Hosking, president of the W.M.S. and C.G.I.T. leaders and six girls participated in a candle-lighting ceremony.

Bible Film Sunday evening the annual meeting of the Rockwood and Everton Branch Bible Society was held in the Sunday school room of the United church. Rev. J. Dilts opened the meeting with a hymn and prayer. He introduced Rev. Mr. Keyes, representative of Upper Canada Bible Society, who had a sound film, dealing with the Bible, the Book for the World of Tomorrow. One portion of the film dealt with Hitler indulging in sarcastic remarks about the Bible. The film all through was very interesting, owing to showing former issues of the scriptures in different languages and old methods of printing portions of scripture with hand presses.

During the service, Mr. Charles H. Harris led in prayer and as president of the local Society, presided for the business part of the meeting. Mr. Ross Gordon secretary of the Society, gave reports of the past year's activities and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, treasurer, gave the financial report. Rev. Mr. Keyes dealt largely with the work of the Society at large. At the conclusion of the service, Rev. Mr. Keyes pronounced the benediction.

Monday evening, two interesting sound films were shown in the Presbyterian church, one dealing with the trip Mr. and Mrs. Dave D. Gray took in March to the West Indies and near South America.

Presiding the film showing, Mr. Douglas Black opened the meeting with a hymn and Martin Bauer Jr. contributed some selections on the Hammond organ. The second film dealt with the trip on board one of the Oceanic line of boats. Miss Minnie Nickell took to Europe during the winter and through the Mediterranean Sea to different ports such as Alexandria, Egypt, Istanbul and Venice and Algiers, North Africa. Previous to the film showing, Miss M. Nickell spoke at some length in connection with the cruise.

The cruise Mr. and Mrs. D. Gray took was in connection with the Cunard line of ships and all were very interesting, dealing with people of different countries, their ways of living and everyday life.

Holiday visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Allan and son John, Toronto; Mrs. George Adamson, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Gamble, Mitchell; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Munro, Hamilton.

The holiday passed off quietly here. A number from other points spent the day fishing and others driving down Valley Road for scenery.
