

Personal Notes...

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Miss Faye Garner is holidaying at Muskoka Baptist camp.

Spending a month in New York City is Mr. Bert Halladay.

Mr. Bob Cross of Toronto was visiting in town for a few days.

Mr. Wilf McCutcheon of Toronto was calling on Acton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hufnagel spent the week-end at Lake Simcoe.

At Wasaga Beach Sunday were Mr. Ken Mann and Mr. Fred Gordon.

Friends are happy to see Mr. Fred Coles again after his stay in hospital.

In Bracebridge on the long week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirkness.

Mrs. R. M. McDonald has returned home after a visit with her daughter in Detroit.

L.A.C. John E. Lambert was home from Rockcliffe airport for the week-end.

Visiting with Mr. H. N. Farmer at Orillia are Willard Halladay and Barry Kirkness.

At Wasaga Beach for the week-end were Miss Joyce Halladay and Miss Babe Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Robertson and little boys are holidaying at Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack South were in the Bracebridge district for the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Coles and their two youngsters are holidaying near Huntsville.

In Nova Scotia visiting relatives are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Braida, Linda, Paul and Anita.

Miss Betty Kirkness and Miss Dorothy McLellan of Toronto were in Acton for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Duval and Miss Yvonne Duval are holidaying at Vue du Lac, Bracebridge.

Mr. George Elliott was away visiting university friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schweitzer in Muskoka.

In Montreal to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Symon were Mr. and Mrs. Mac Symon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mackie and David Edington were visiting relatives here on the week-end.

Away on a trip to the southern States and Florida are Miss Ruby Smith and Miss Barbara Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Norman and Mrs. Edith McEachern spent the week-end at Wasaga Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Everdell spent several days at Bigwin Inn at the hydro convention.

Mr. and Mrs. James Greer spent the week-end visiting friends and relatives in Galt, Mitchell and Walkerton.

Campers at Summerland, the Orillia Y.M.C.A. camp, are three Acton boys, Bob Parker, Peter and Paul Wolfe.

Holidaying at Vue du Lac near Bracebridge are Mr. and Mrs. Archie Papillon and David, Mr. and Mrs. A. White.

Visiting relatives in Bracebridge over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Rino Braida, Janet and David, and Mrs. S. Braida.

Miss Dena Braida is taking a summer course in Hamilton during her vacation from her teaching position in Scarborough.

Friends regret that Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Schroeder have moved from Acton, but wish them happiness in their new home at Chesley.

Mr. Charles Ruddy of Sudbury, formerly of Temagami, was visiting with Mrs. Ada Near, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holmes on the week-end.

Mrs. R. S. McCutcheon, Erin and Mrs. Hugh McCutcheon, Acton, are holidaying this week with friends at Beamsville and Niagara Falls.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wood in St. Catharines on the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Don Ryder and David.

Miss Frances Kenney attended the meeting of the Ontario Association of the Deaf at the Royal Connaught Hotel in Hamilton last week-end.

Visitors with Mrs. Peter Sayers last week were Mr. and Mrs. John MacPherson, their daughter, Rev. Sister St. Thomas and Sister Margueretta of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mann visited in Waterloo with her brother, Mr. A. L. Buck and Mrs. Buck and enjoyed seeing some of the events of the day-long Music Festival.

Taking a special summer course from June 11 to June 29 given by the Leather Engineering department at Lowell Technological Institute was Paul Lawson of Beardmore & Co.

Out of town visitors with Miss E. Hawthorne were Mr. and Mrs. T. Wood, Mrs. W. McLeod, Mr. D. B. Smith and Mr. Gordon Harvey of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mrs. A. Scott and Patsy, Mr. J. Wilton and Miss Linda McGill of Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Warne of Hespeler, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Warne of Acton spent the week-end in Detroit and attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lantz and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Robertson, Acton, and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Lantz-Guelph, were in Toronto on Saturday attending the Heritage-Gordon wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sutcliffe and Bill, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Henry, Dearborn, Mich., visited friends here over the week-end and attended the Heritage-Gordon wedding in Toronto on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurmston were entertained at dinner at the Town and Country Restaurant, Toronto, on the occasion of their 49th wedding anniversary by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kincaid, Mrs. Anthony Hufnagel and Donnie.

Here for the week-end visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holmes and family were Mrs. Holmes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. MacDonald and her grandfather, Mr. Tom Watson of Orangeville. Mr. Watson is now 85 years of age.

Visiting with Acton relatives on the week-end were Miss Bertha Brown, Mr. Ern Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brown of Peterborough and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown of Ottawa.

Tom Fountain of Everton Church of Christ (Disciples) attended the All-Canada Planning Conference of the Churches of Christ (Disciples) at the Disciples Conference Grounds Sweet Corners, Ontario last week. Tom Fountain is among representatives from eight provinces. It is the first such meeting of this Church in Canada.

The girls heard messages on You and Your Home. Where are You Going and You and Your Family. Group discussions were held on such topics as Your Club and You, Your Club and Your Home, Your Club and Your Community. Addresses were given on Youth and Citizenship and What is UNICEF, and Dr. C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, was guest speaker at a special banquet.

The Canada Presbyterian church and the United Presbyterian church united in September, 1861.

Norman S. Marshall, postmaster at Eden Mills, owns a similar coin or token as they were called. He intends to place his in the church parlor to be treasured as a memento of the early days. A few items have already been gathered that were once owned by former members of the church, including some photographs of early persons belonging to the village. These have made the parlor a most interesting place to spend a few minutes.

Flower bearers were Bill Struthers, Jerry Foggett, Fred Fowke, Lloyd Robinson and Jim Brown.

Floral offerings included wreaths, a corsage, baskets of containers from Jack and Blinny; Mother and Helen; Ray, Hazel, Ruth and Rickie; Sharon and Steven; Aunt Ena; Uncle Will and Aunt Mabel; Aunt Minnie, Ruby, Jerry and Laura; Aunt Hattie, Bill and Marjorie; Stuart and Lula; Carol, Ida and Ab; Grandma McCutcheon, Jay, Edna and Barry; Ab and Norma; Employees First Division Court; staff of Bailiff's Office, First Division Court; staff of Nines Division Court; Mrs. Glassford, Louella Hall; T. W. Fursley, Eighth Division Court; Bill and Irene McLeod; Ileen and Jim Sockett; Earl and Lois Shewell; Bob; Ruth and Wes, Jean and Kerwin, Helen, Shirley and Gord; Bill and Helen Vincent; Jean Hooker; Gale, Chester, Clint; E. A. Clarke and staff, 11th Division Court; Jean Richard, Joe and Helen Papalia; the Erwin family; Margaret, Elizabeth, Rose and Anne; Midge and Frank Moth.

Caroline Jane Rawson was born in 1877 in Nassagaweya township, daughter of John Richardson and Jane Jacques. She was married there 53 years ago to Richard Rawson, who survives her at their home on Willow St. Also remaining are a daughter Myrna (Mrs. Jack Wardlaw) Weston, a son, Harvey of Winnipeg, a brother Thomas Richardson and three sisters, Mrs. Rachel Scott, Acton, Mrs. Mary Rawson and Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin of Kinsland, Sask.

The Canada-United States boundary is 3,988 miles in length.

Haltonians Help At Conference

"You and Your Home" was the theme of the third annual Provincial Conference for 4-H Homemaking Club girls, held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, last week. About 180 girls, representing all parts of Ontario, participated in three days of talks, discussions and campus tours, which will help them prepare for their future as individuals, club members, family members and citizens. They also made new friends and enjoyed sports, games and singing.

Margaret Bird of Halton County and Margaret Peacock of York County presented a demonstration entitled, "The Hows and Whys of Tea Biscuits" during the conference. The girls heard messages on You and Your Home. Where are You Going and You and Your Family. Group discussions were held on such topics as Your Club and You, Your Club and Your Home, Your Club and Your Community. Addresses were given on Youth and Citizenship and What is UNICEF, and Dr. C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, was guest speaker at a special banquet.

The Canada Presbyterian church and the United Presbyterian church united in September, 1861.

Norman S. Marshall, postmaster at Eden Mills, owns a similar coin or token as they were called. He intends to place his in the church parlor to be treasured as a memento of the early days. A few items have already been gathered that were once owned by former members of the church, including some photographs of early persons belonging to the village. These have made the parlor a most interesting place to spend a few minutes.

Flower bearers were Bill Struthers, Jerry Foggett, Fred Fowke, Lloyd Robinson and Jim Brown.

Floral offerings included wreaths, a corsage, baskets of containers from Jack and Blinny; Mother and Helen; Ray, Hazel, Ruth and Rickie; Sharon and Steven; Aunt Ena; Uncle Will and Aunt Mabel; Aunt Minnie, Ruby, Jerry and Laura; Aunt Hattie, Bill and Marjorie; Stuart and Lula; Carol, Ida and Ab; Grandma McCutcheon, Jay, Edna and Barry; Ab and Norma; Employees First Division Court; staff of Bailiff's Office, First Division Court; staff of Nines Division Court; Mrs. Glassford, Louella Hall; T. W. Fursley, Eighth Division Court; Bill and Irene McLeod; Ileen and Jim Sockett; Earl and Lois Shewell; Bob; Ruth and Wes, Jean and Kerwin, Helen, Shirley and Gord; Bill and Helen Vincent; Jean Hooker; Gale, Chester, Clint; E. A. Clarke and staff, 11th Division Court; Jean Richard, Joe and Helen Papalia; the Erwin family; Margaret, Elizabeth, Rose and Anne; Midge and Frank Moth.

Caroline Jane Rawson was born in 1877 in Nassagaweya township, daughter of John Richardson and Jane Jacques. She was married there 53 years ago to Richard Rawson, who survives her at their home on Willow St. Also remaining are a daughter Myrna (Mrs. Jack Wardlaw) Weston, a son, Harvey of Winnipeg, a brother Thomas Richardson and three sisters, Mrs. Rachel Scott, Acton, Mrs. Mary Rawson and Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin of Kinsland, Sask.

The Canada-United States boundary is 3,988 miles in length.

Haltonians Help At Conference

"You and Your Home" was the theme of the third annual Provincial Conference for 4-H Homemaking Club girls, held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, last week. About 180 girls, representing all parts of Ontario, participated in three days of talks, discussions and campus tours, which will help them prepare for their future as individuals, club members, family members and citizens. They also made new friends and enjoyed sports, games and singing.

Margaret Bird of Halton County and Margaret Peacock of York County presented a demonstration entitled, "The Hows and Whys of Tea Biscuits" during the conference. The girls heard messages on You and Your Home. Where are You Going and You and Your Family. Group discussions were held on such topics as Your Club and You, Your Club and Your Home, Your Club and Your Community. Addresses were given on Youth and Citizenship and What is UNICEF, and Dr. C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, was guest speaker at a special banquet.

The Canada Presbyterian church and the United Presbyterian church united in September, 1861.

Norman S. Marshall, postmaster at Eden Mills, owns a similar coin or token as they were called. He intends to place his in the church parlor to be treasured as a memento of the early days. A few items have already been gathered that were once owned by former members of the church, including some photographs of early persons belonging to the village. These have made the parlor a most interesting place to spend a few minutes.

Flower bearers were Bill Struthers, Jerry Foggett, Fred Fowke, Lloyd Robinson and Jim Brown.

Floral offerings included wreaths, a corsage, baskets of containers from Jack and Blinny; Mother and Helen; Ray, Hazel, Ruth and Rickie; Sharon and Steven; Aunt Ena; Uncle Will and Aunt Mabel; Aunt Minnie, Ruby, Jerry and Laura; Aunt Hattie, Bill and Marjorie; Stuart and Lula; Carol, Ida and Ab; Grandma McCutcheon, Jay, Edna and Barry; Ab and Norma; Employees First Division Court; staff of Bailiff's Office, First Division Court; staff of Nines Division Court; Mrs. Glassford, Louella Hall; T. W. Fursley, Eighth Division Court; Bill and Irene McLeod; Ileen and Jim Sockett; Earl and Lois Shewell; Bob; Ruth and Wes, Jean and Kerwin, Helen, Shirley and Gord; Bill and Helen Vincent; Jean Hooker; Gale, Chester, Clint; E. A. Clarke and staff, 11th Division Court; Jean Richard, Joe and Helen Papalia; the Erwin family; Margaret, Elizabeth, Rose and Anne; Midge and Frank Moth.

Caroline Jane Rawson was born in 1877 in Nassagaweya township, daughter of John Richardson and Jane Jacques. She was married there 53 years ago to Richard Rawson, who survives her at their home on Willow St. Also remaining are a daughter Myrna (Mrs. Jack Wardlaw) Weston, a son, Harvey of Winnipeg, a brother Thomas Richardson and three sisters, Mrs. Rachel Scott, Acton, Mrs. Mary Rawson and Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin of Kinsland, Sask.

The Canada-United States boundary is 3,988 miles in length.

Haltonians Help At Conference

"You and Your Home" was the theme of the third annual Provincial Conference for 4-H Homemaking Club girls, held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, last week. About 180 girls, representing all parts of Ontario, participated in three days of talks, discussions and campus tours, which will help them prepare for their future as individuals, club members, family members and citizens. They also made new friends and enjoyed sports, games and singing.

Margaret Bird of Halton County and Margaret Peacock of York County presented a demonstration entitled, "The Hows and Whys of Tea Biscuits" during the conference. The girls heard messages on You and Your Home. Where are You Going and You and Your Family. Group discussions were held on such topics as Your Club and You, Your Club and Your Home, Your Club and Your Community. Addresses were given on Youth and Citizenship and What is UNICEF, and Dr. C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, was guest speaker at a special banquet.

The Canada Presbyterian church and the United Presbyterian church united in September, 1861.

Norman S. Marshall, postmaster at Eden Mills, owns a similar coin or token as they were called. He intends to place his in the church parlor to be treasured as a memento of the early days. A few items have already been gathered that were once owned by former members of the church, including some photographs of early persons belonging to the village. These have made the parlor a most interesting place to spend a few minutes.

Flower bearers were Bill Struthers, Jerry Foggett, Fred Fowke, Lloyd Robinson and Jim Brown.

Floral offerings included wreaths, a corsage, baskets of containers from Jack and Blinny; Mother and Helen; Ray, Hazel, Ruth and Rickie; Sharon and Steven; Aunt Ena; Uncle Will and Aunt Mabel; Aunt Minnie, Ruby, Jerry and Laura; Aunt Hattie, Bill and Marjorie; Stuart and Lula; Carol, Ida and Ab; Grandma McCutcheon, Jay, Edna and Barry; Ab and Norma; Employees First Division Court; staff of Bailiff's Office, First Division Court; staff of Nines Division Court; Mrs. Glassford, Louella Hall; T. W. Fursley, Eighth Division Court; Bill and Irene McLeod; Ileen and Jim Sockett; Earl and Lois Shewell; Bob; Ruth and Wes, Jean and Kerwin, Helen, Shirley and Gord; Bill and Helen Vincent; Jean Hooker; Gale, Chester, Clint; E. A. Clarke and staff, 11th Division Court; Jean Richard, Joe and Helen Papalia; the Erwin family; Margaret, Elizabeth, Rose and Anne; Midge and Frank Moth.

Caroline Jane Rawson was born in 1877 in Nassagaweya township, daughter of John Richardson and Jane Jacques. She was married there 53 years ago to Richard Rawson, who survives her at their home on Willow St. Also remaining are a daughter Myrna (Mrs. Jack Wardlaw) Weston, a son, Harvey of Winnipeg, a brother Thomas Richardson and three sisters, Mrs. Rachel Scott, Acton, Mrs. Mary Rawson and Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin of Kinsland, Sask.

The Canada-United States boundary is 3,988 miles in length.

Haltonians Help At Conference

"You and Your Home" was the theme of the third annual Provincial Conference for 4-H Homemaking Club girls, held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, last week. About 180 girls, representing all parts of Ontario, participated in three days of talks, discussions and campus tours, which will help them prepare for their future as individuals, club members, family members and citizens. They also made new friends and enjoyed sports, games and singing.

Margaret Bird of Halton County and Margaret Peacock of York County presented a demonstration entitled, "The Hows and Whys of Tea Biscuits" during the conference. The girls heard messages on You and Your Home. Where are You Going and You and Your Family. Group discussions were held on such topics as Your Club and You, Your Club and Your Home, Your Club and Your Community. Addresses were given on Youth and Citizenship and What is UNICEF, and Dr. C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, was guest speaker at a special banquet.

The Canada Presbyterian church and the United Presbyterian church united in September, 1861.

Norman S. Marshall, postmaster at Eden Mills, owns a similar coin or token as they were called. He intends to place his in the church parlor to be treasured as a memento of the early days. A few items have already been gathered that were once owned by former members of the church, including some photographs of early persons belonging to the village. These have made the parlor a most interesting place to spend a few minutes.

Flower bearers were Bill Struthers, Jerry Foggett, Fred Fowke, Lloyd Robinson and Jim Brown.

Floral offerings included wreaths, a corsage, baskets of containers from Jack and Blinny; Mother and Helen; Ray, Hazel, Ruth and Rickie; Sharon and Steven; Aunt Ena; Uncle Will and Aunt Mabel; Aunt Minnie, Ruby, Jerry and Laura; Aunt Hattie, Bill and Marjorie; Stuart and Lula; Carol, Ida and Ab; Grandma McCutcheon, Jay, Edna and Barry; Ab and Norma; Employees First Division Court; staff of Bailiff's Office, First Division Court; staff of Nines Division Court; Mrs. Glassford, Louella Hall; T. W. Fursley, Eighth Division Court; Bill and Irene McLeod; Ileen and Jim Sockett; Earl and Lois Shewell; Bob; Ruth and Wes, Jean and Kerwin, Helen, Shirley and Gord; Bill and Helen Vincent; Jean Hooker; Gale, Chester, Clint; E. A. Clarke and staff, 11th Division Court; Jean Richard, Joe and Helen Papalia; the Erwin family; Margaret, Elizabeth, Rose and Anne; Midge and Frank Moth.

Caroline Jane Rawson was born in 1877 in Nassagaweya township, daughter of John Richardson and Jane Jacques. She was married there 53 years ago to Richard Rawson, who survives her at their home on Willow St. Also remaining are a daughter Myrna (Mrs. Jack Wardlaw) Weston, a son, Harvey of Winnipeg, a brother Thomas Richardson and three sisters, Mrs. Rachel Scott, Acton, Mrs. Mary Rawson and Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin of Kinsland, Sask.

The Canada-United States boundary is 3,988 miles in length.

Haltonians Help At Conference

"You and Your Home" was the theme of the third annual Provincial Conference for 4-H Homemaking Club girls, held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, last week. About 180 girls, representing all parts of Ontario, participated in three days of talks, discussions and campus tours, which will help them prepare for their future as individuals, club members, family members and citizens. They also made new friends and enjoyed sports, games and singing.

Margaret Bird of Halton County and Margaret Peacock of York County presented a demonstration entitled, "The Hows and Whys of Tea Biscuits" during the conference. The girls heard messages on You and Your Home. Where are You Going and You and Your Family. Group discussions were held on such topics as Your Club and You, Your Club and Your Home, Your Club and Your Community. Addresses were given on Youth and Citizenship and What is UNICEF, and Dr. C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, was guest speaker at a special banquet.

The Canada Presbyterian church and the United Presbyterian church united in September, 1861.

Norman S. Marshall, postmaster at Eden Mills, owns a similar coin or token as they were called. He intends to place his in the church parlor to be treasured as a memento of the early days. A few items have already been gathered that were once owned by former members of the church, including some photographs of early persons belonging to the village. These have made the parlor a most interesting place to spend a few minutes.

Flower bearers were Bill Struthers, Jerry Foggett, Fred Fowke, Lloyd Robinson and Jim Brown.

Floral offerings included wreaths, a corsage, baskets of containers from Jack and Blinny; Mother and Helen; Ray, Hazel, Ruth and Rickie; Sharon and Steven; Aunt Ena; Uncle Will and Aunt Mabel; Aunt Minnie, Ruby, Jerry and Laura; Aunt Hattie, Bill and Marjorie; Stuart and Lula; Carol, Ida and Ab; Grandma McCutcheon, Jay, Edna and Barry; Ab and Norma; Employees First Division Court; staff of Bailiff's Office, First Division Court; staff of Nines Division Court; Mrs. Glassford, Louella Hall; T. W. Fursley, Eighth Division Court; Bill and Irene McLeod; Ileen and Jim Sockett; Earl and Lois Shewell; Bob; Ruth and Wes, Jean and Kerwin, Helen, Shirley and Gord; Bill and Helen Vincent; Jean Hooker; Gale, Chester, Clint; E. A. Clarke and staff, 11th Division Court; Jean Richard, Joe and Helen Papalia; the Erwin family; Margaret, Elizabeth, Rose and Anne; Midge and Frank Moth.

Caroline Jane Rawson was born in 1877 in Nassagaweya township, daughter of John Richardson and Jane Jacques. She was married there 53 years ago to Richard Rawson, who survives her at their home on Willow St. Also remaining are a daughter Myrna (Mrs. Jack Wardlaw) Weston, a son, Harvey of Winnipeg, a brother Thomas Richardson and three sisters, Mrs. Rachel Scott, Acton, Mrs. Mary Rawson and Mrs. Hannah McLaughlin of Kinsland, Sask.

The Canada-United States boundary is 3,988 miles in length.

Haltonians Help At Conference

"You and Your Home" was the theme of the third annual Provincial Conference for 4-H Homemaking Club girls, held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, last week. About 180 girls, representing all parts of Ontario, participated in three days of talks, discussions and campus tours, which will help them prepare for their future as individuals, club members, family members and citizens. They also made new friends and enjoyed sports, games and singing.

Margaret Bird of Halton County and Margaret Peacock of York County presented a demonstration entitled, "The Hows and Whys of Tea Biscuits" during the conference. The girls heard messages on You and Your Home. Where are You Going and You and Your Family. Group discussions were held on such topics as Your Club and You, Your Club and Your Home, Your Club and Your Community. Addresses were given on Youth and Citizenship and What is UNICEF, and Dr. C. D. Graham, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, was guest speaker at a special banquet.

The Canada Presbyterian church and the United Presbyterian church united in September, 1861.

Norman S. Marshall, postmaster at Eden Mills, owns a similar coin or token as they were called. He intends to place his in the church parlor to be treasured as a memento of the early days. A few items have already been gathered that were once owned by former members of the church, including some photographs of early persons belonging to the village. These have made the parlor a most interesting place to spend a few minutes.

Flower bearers were Bill Struthers, Jerry Foggett, Fred Fowke, Lloyd Robinson and Jim Brown.

Floral offerings included wreaths, a corsage, baskets of containers from Jack and Blinny; Mother and Helen; Ray, Hazel, Ruth and Rickie; Sharon and Steven; Aunt Ena; Uncle Will and Aunt Mabel; Aunt Minnie, Ruby, Jerry and Laura; Aunt Hattie, Bill and Marjorie; Stuart and Lula; Carol, Ida and Ab; Grandma McCutcheon, Jay, Edna and Barry; Ab and Norma; Employees First Division Court; staff of Bailiff's Office, First Division Court; staff of Nines Division Court; Mrs. Glassford, Louella Hall; T. W. Fursley, Eighth Division Court; Bill and Irene McLeod; Ileen and Jim Sockett; Earl and Lois Shewell; Bob; Ruth and Wes, Jean and Kerwin, Helen, Shirley and Gord; Bill and Helen Vincent; Jean Hooker; Gale, Chester, Clint; E. A. Clarke and staff, 11th Division Court; Jean Richard, Joe and Helen Papalia; the Erwin family; Margaret, Elizabeth, Rose and Anne; Midge and Frank Moth.

Doreen Barnes Wears Traditional White For Service in Knox

An early summer ceremony united in marriage Phyllis Doreen Barnes, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barnes of Acton, and Robert John Heatley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heatley of Acton. Rev. R. H. Armstrong officiated at the double-ring marriage Saturday afternoon, June 30, in a setting of pastel chrysanthemums and carnations.

E. A. Hanson played the organ for the service and accompanied Miss Inez McLellan who sang O Perfect Love and I Love You Truly.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional floor length white gown of tulle, illusion which had been topped with a bolero of lace with lily-pointed sleeves. Her headpiece, highlighted with sequins and seed pearls, held the fingertip veil of tulle, illusion which had been topped with a bolero of lace with lily-pointed sleeves. Her headpiece, highlighted with sequins and seed pearls, held the fingertip veil of tulle, illusion which had been topped with a bolero of lace with lily-pointed sleeves.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

The groom's younger sister, Miss Joanne Heatley, was flower girl. Her long gown was of yellow nylon net over taffeta, and she carried a basket of yellow and pink sweetheart roses.

