Acton Y Athletes At Police Games

Representing Actor Y.M.C.A., 12 boys and girls took part in the Toronto Police Association district meet at Varsity Stadium in Toronto last evening.

Results were as follows: 100 yard dash, Frank Cooper, fourth; 220 yard dash, Frank Cooper, third; 440 yard dash, boys under 16, Frank Mariscak, fifth; 880 open, Morris Van Hemmen and Wayne Arbic, fourth and fifth respectively; girls' relay race, Acton, second; 440 yard boys' relay, Acton, third.

Those taking part were Wayne Arbic, Bill Skilling, Frank Cooper, Morris Van Hemmen, Frank Mariscak, Peter Newton, Peter Gibbons, Don Price, Ann Daintith, Carol Bradley, Ruth Landsborough, Ger-

180 Children Back to School Bible is Theme

It's vacation time, but 180 youngsters are back to school this week. And they are having a wonderful

The annual vacation Bible school is being held in three churches, and the theme is simply "The Bible" book shelf to illustrate the theme.

While Bible study is an important part of the program, there are also crafts and singing and fun.

Over 50 Juniors are meeting in the United church, 35 pre-schoolers and almost 60 kindergarten tots in St. Alban's parish hall and nearly 40 primary students in Knox church. Classes are held every morning this week. Volunteer helpers are teaching under the super-Repair Broken Valve vision of the Ministerial Association which sponsors the school each by Force Electric summer. Rev. Gordon Adams is superintendent. regularly for their program which ken valve on Church St. at the side will be a part of the parents' night of the Force Electric plant. Water

Guelph Doubles Defeat Locals

In the Inter-County Lawn Bowling League series, the Guelph team of five mixed doubles defeated Ac- of the Appreciation Day draw last 4. 69 points to 75. Chris Robinson the chest as well as an extra $5 for ologized for the conditions of the of the Week. Next week's chest is ion on the town's continuing ofgreens as they were being fixed. up to $400.

The winning skips for Acton were W. Near, Jim Fleming and B. Veldhuis, their respective leads being Mrs. V. Inglis, Mrs. W. Woodburn and Mrs. O. Cairns. Losing Exam Results Show teams were H. Rogers, Mrs. M Bell, D. Drysdale and Mrs. Holmes.

Rockwood travelled to Georgetown, where the former had tough time in winning by a score of 91 to 88. Rockwood still leads the league with Guelph going above Acton by two points. The local club is still interested in any newcomers. This week's schedule: Rockwood 60 Learn to Swim at Acton; Georgetown at Guelph. League Standings

	P	W	L Tot. Pts.
Rockwood	5	4	1 462 423
Guelph	5	3	2 439 459
Acton	5	2	3 437 410
Georgetown	5	1'	4 355 459

Horseshoe Pitching Winners Declared

Tuesday saw horseshoe pitching competitions as part of the special events program of the Y.M.C.A. summer schedule.

Eight boys competed in the junior sections, with Ted Quinriell taksecond and Bob Price third.

ing top place. Bob Groeneboer was was first and Bill Churchill second, tration.

-Staff Photo SCHOOL IS FUN for these youngsters-and for their teacher, Miss Arlene Gordon, too. Vacation new quarters while Jones and Van Bible School is being held at three churches every morning this week with an "open house" tomor-One of the groups is making a Bible row evening. The beaming young pupils, their names printed on signs are Ann Symon, Ken Adams.

Commission Deals With Reports Boys Going Nowhere And General Business at Meeting

Hydro employees worked into The groups are participating the night Tuesday to repair a broin Knox church tomorrow evening. was off in some sections and pressure low in others as the work was being done.

> $45 to New Winner Chest Up to $400 ton last Wednesday evening, July Saturday, and took home $40 from welcomed the Acton team and ap- knowing the name of the Merchant

Two Receive Honors

Conservatory of Music examination results show that Lillian Phillips obtained first class honors in valve turn-off on the property grade two piano. Lesley A. Duby driveway. This is to be attended to. received honors in grade four piano. These are additions to last week's article on results for Acton piano pupils. Classes Expanding

Although 60 are already registered and have begun their swimming reed to Hire additional H.E.P.C. lessons, two more children's classes linemen from Guelph for the day may now be added. That would in order to speed the work and bring the total of youngsters learning to swim here this summer to 80. Instructor Bob Murrow, a police officer who is directing the young swimmers in his off-hours, has divided the group of 60 into 10 classes. The course has begun with water familiarization and is proceeding toward floating and strokes. All non-swimmers, the boys and girls! are learning in the wading pool.

Now Mr. and Mrs. Doug Tarrant are available to teach, and two ad-In the senior contest, Don Price ditional classes are open for regis-ence on general business. Discussion figured early in the meeting on a planned water line installation into the six-lot private development proposed for the old Beverley House property Church St. A six-inch water line entry was recommended by the engineer, however, this was questioned and held over for later consideration.

At a regular session of the P.U.C. last week, members concerned

themselves with superintendents' reports and routine correspond-

Letters from the H.E.P.C. approved payment of regular remuneration to local commissioners, also advised of a revision in H.E.P.C.

Mrs. Doug Mason was the winner pole rental rates to $2 per year. A notice from the Ontario Water Resources Commission about meeting for this district in Brampton this week prompted a discussforts to locate more water sup-

> Order More Evergreens ergreens for additional planting near the disposal plant.

A letter from a Main St. resident complained of a high main Following a recent break-in at the disposal plant where damage Bill Henry. was done with a fire hydrant, members agreed to buy insurance coverage against malicious damage. Hydro superintendent R. Mason over on Churchill Road next Sunday. Power will be off in Glenlea and adjacent, rural areas while this work is being done. It was agreduce the inconvenience period when power would be off. The town hall fire siren was reported under repair after being hit by lightning in a recent storm. Superintendent Mason suggested another small truck might be useful to his department. This request is to be further looked into. Review Storm Damage Damage to the local system was reviewed following a violent storm

call for help from Guelph H.E.P.C. (Continued on Page Five)

In Hurry in Contest

last week. They strode a course will be held here. and stepped right back to where they started - the Y.M.C.A. - to determine the winner of a walking 150,000 Pennies race. He was Fred Landry, whom the stop watch timed at eight min- For Home Missions utes and 10 seconds.

close seconds.

'Robin Hood'

Clearly the "Robin Hood" of the easily took first place in the competitions there this week. He took | see at a fall fair. This handiwork top points in three sections, shooting on the target, distance and time. The commission ordered 1,000 ev- in the third category, he was able to let fly three arrows in 15 seconds. Jim Bullough and Bill Henry tied

> Eight boys qualified for the finals Don Harris, Frank Morton, John Price, Neil Franklin, Bob Tracy, Bill Dawkins, Jim Bullough and for second.

Newlyweds Honored described plans for a line switch- At Family Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hunter received the congratulations of relatives at a family gathering Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hunter, Georgetown. The newlyweds left Ontario this week for the west.

Attractive gifts were given to the young couple.

Hamilton Men Take Baptist Service Here

Speaker at the Sunday service at Acton Baptist church was Ashton Turner of Hamilton, a member of Mount Hamilton Baptist church and secretary of the Baptist Men's here recently. It was necessary to Brotherhood for Ontario and Quebec. With him came Bill Graham, who sang a solo during the service.

Council Names Engineers

Survey Crews Start Work On Roads Before Paving

Call Accepted To Knox Pulpit

Rev. Andrew H. McKenzie, B.A. B.D., has accepted the call to the pulpit of Knox Presbyterian church. Church officials learned this week that he will begin his ministry here the first of Septem-

A unanimous call was extended to Mr. McKenzie following a congregational meeting. He, his wife and five children live in Islington

Bigger Office For Y Secretary

Y.M.C.A. secretary Bob Brayshaw has a new office this week. He has been wielding a paint brush in his Gils are doing the woodwork and

His office is now two, with his former office space enlarged to include two small rooms. First there is a reception desk and counter, with a low swinging door. Beyond this is the secretary's private office -now furnished with a desk, paint-About 20 boys were going no splattered straight chairs and a ladplace in particular in quite a hurry der. When it is finished meetings

The Women's Missionary Council The course went from the Y down of Acton Pentecostal Assembly was John St., to Agnes, to Frederick, to represented by six members at the Frederick, along Church to John St. camp, Paris, on July 4, when wornand right back to the Y. None of en from all parts of Western Ontthe boys was far behind the winner, acio assembled to take in their pen- Mayor was "trying to cover up or Don Harris and Ted Quinnell were nies--- 150,000 of them and to enjoy an afternoon of music, skits and

The pennies are for home mission work. The $1,500, worth of them is to be given to a small assembly towards the building of a

The display room of missionary gifts at the camp, was well visited Y.M.C.A.'s archers, Bill Dawkins | There was a much greater display of fine handiwork than one would goes to missionaries on the different foreign and home fields such as Africa, Japan, British West Indies, the Canadian North, to name a few, also to Bethel Home for Girls, Toronto.

O.P.P. Accident Log For District in May

Figures released by the Ontario Provincial Police for May, pertaining to the No. 3 district which comprises five heavily populated study was a request from Reliable ies distribution. He said minutes counties in this section of Southern Taxi to raise the local taxi fare were copied for councillors in oth-Ontario, including Halton, reveal a from 35 cents to 50 cents and out- er municipalities. total of 204 accidents for the per- of-town rates from 25 cents to 30

There were four fatal accidents. with four persons killed and 69 injured in other accidents. A total of 14,368 vehicles were safety checked and 3,417 warnings issued. There were 1,118 charges laid.

JOHN ROBSON, for the past; three years a popular figure in quantity and auxiliary supplies. It North Halton as the Health Unit's stated the town is now seeking senior sanitary inspector, leaves further sources of supply. Three August 1 for Peterborough where he has been named chief

Sunday Concert

Seated in the shade of a large clump of trees, red-coated bandsmen ton's park when they played an imprornptu concert, there Sunday on Mill St. This was taken under afternoon. Hundreds were enjoying

While Council Monday evening | supply water for the wading pool passed a by-law naming R. V. And- at the park. expected to be completed this week | mended by the Health Unit, but and tenders likely to be awarded

It was learned that engineering supervision on the work, hoped to be finished by September, will be carried out by Acton and Milton's joint engineer, F. Pallesen R. V. Anderson Associates are employed to-conduct the survey and prepare specifications for the street hard-the first week in August.

came a motion to ask the P.U.C. to rat population

erson Associates engineers for this | J. Bullock appeared for the Ratesummer's town-wide paving pro- payers' Association to remind gram, survey crews were already council the dump was still not at work outside establishing levels | cleaned up. He said he could find and grade markers. Surveying is no rat poison stations, as recom-

could find plenty of rats. The refuse is still burned, he continued. and the smoke is sometimes like a "London fog." He concluded that adequate time had clapsed for the council to take action on these complaints.

Another complaint passed on by Mr Bullock concerned the dips in three intersections of Glenlea roads. Town foreman A. Kirkness said At the outset of the meeting, seven feeding stations with poison members discussed the high cost of have been set up in the dump power and water for off-season op- Mayor E. Tyler 'said it takes at eration of the arena. Out of this least six weeks to wipe out the first

Angry Argument Across Table

committee, a flare-up developed; ected to bicker. that lasted nearly half an hour with broiled in the hottest part of the reply Councillor Cook complained again of the lack d'road committee

Road committee chairman Brown defended his position and maintained he had seen to it road committee responsibilities were looked after. Councillor Cook charged it was his elected privilege to attend all road committee meetings and demanded he be notified before any meeting is held.

Mayor Tyler suggested many of the meetings were emergency get- beau quickly agreed. However, he togethers that left no time to conto annual Penny Day at Braeside tact members of the committee who happen to work out of town. To this, Councillor Cook said the road committee.

make excuses" for the lack of full Councillor Cook answered, "I've meetings. The Mayor angrily denied this.

turbance here tonight, don't you?" been no co-operation. Councillor Brown shouted at Councillor Cook the work there is to be done.' "Are you trying to" call me a. The argument cooled, and under coward?" Councillor Brown de- insistent urging from Councillor

Mayor Tyler started to pound his business

When the matter of the intersect- | seldom-used gavel on the table and ion dips was referred to the road told Councillor Cook he wasn't el-

"This isn't bickering, Mr. Mayor, Councillors Cook and Brown em- it's the town's business," was the

"I'll take no more dirt from you." Councillor Brown shot in. Deputy-reeve W. Wilson added his voice to the din and urged the arguing councillors to address their remarks through the chair.

"Much to be Desired" Councillor Cook repeated that committee meetings have still not been called to look after pressing work in several parts of town.

When Councillor Cook commented that the situation "left much to be desired," Councillor G. Baradded it was doubtful if the attitude displayed would get much cooperation from the chairman of the

"I've tried to get co-operation," tried to arrange with Mr. Brown and even the Mayor has urged Mr. "You just want to make a dis- Brown to call meetings, but there's Councillor S. Brunelle came into the argument to suggest any mem-Councillor Cook: "I want meet- ber of a committee should be able ings to be held. The committee to call a meeting when the need chairman hasn't bothered to face prises. Councillor C. Lindsay ag-

Brown, members turned to other

Taxi Fare Increases Sought Here

C. Mason was present at the Councillor Cook introduced a on a driveway into a nearby indus- January 9. The motion lost. try. The engineer is to view the drive and make recommendation to council for its improvement.

Turned over to committee for apply to restriction of minutes' copcents per mile. V. Peycha cited higher cost of cars, gasoline and labor as the reason for the increase request. The rate has stayed the same for over 10 years, it was not-

Regarding complaints brought to council by M. Sprowl at a previous there has been no action taken as was time for extra copies of the far as he knew. Mr. Sprowl had minutes to be produced. complained of the condition of his fences and property adjacent to the der what other councillors who had third line after the town's road voted down the first motion, had work there was completed. The against the supplying of minutes' matter was left in road committee. Council concurred with the P.U.

surance to its buildings.

meeting to complain of the condit- motion that all council members ion of his drive entry which has who so desire be supplied with been undermined following work copies of minutes retroactive to Later Councillor Cook again introduced the motion. He explained that the Municipal Act does not Councillor Barbeau suggested employees did not have time to make the extra copies. Here Councillor Cook produced a copy of a frontage schedule for service charges supplied for a third line petition. He submitted if there was time for the office staff meeting. Reeve J. Hargrave said to type this kind of work, there Councillor Cook went on to woncopies. Those who didn't want them wouldn't have to take them, he C. and added malicious damage in- said. Councillor Cook tabled the motion again, and again it lost.

Variety of Business and Requests

Council heard information in a of the bridge to direct pedestrian office dealing with a claim for re- bankment. lief and legal action connected Deputy-reeve Wilson asked if with the claim. Council accepted there was going to be an official

Written approval from the Department of Highways for a supplemental by-law on the $73,000 Maria the discontinued practice of circul-St. bridge was recorded. The June ating work sheets at council meetpolice report was read and the reg- ings. This initiated a discussion on ular magistrate's summary. A letter from the H.E.P.C. out-

P.U.C. members here at $8 per council consideration. meeting for the chairman and $6 " The circulation of work sheets per meeting for commissioners, up is to be reinstated. to 24 meetings per year. The Halton Assessor's Association thanked the town for hospitality tendered during their June 28 meeting here. Council held over a suggestion that two more blocks on Mill St. sidewalk, John to Elgin Streets on the north side, be relaid by town employees. The suggestion is to be considered later this month. Deputy-reeve Wilson asked if car length marks could be painted in from the parallel lines to the curb advisement.

Councillor Lindsay urged the curve on the western approach to the new Maria St. bridge be let out. arter of a mile from the Black the old stand will be torn down. It accepted was $100. The other ten- adequate water supply at present Bandmaster Perrot conducted the He was told the fence lines had letter from Port Arthur municipal traffic away from the railway em-opening of the bridge. The answer

Councillor Cook queried about pay rates for town employees. Councillor Cook also brought atlined approval of remuneration for bring in a new wage schedule for Councillor Cook also brought attention to various spots in town which require drainage correction. Councillor Barbeau complained of a buried cable on Wallace St. also asked the fuse box in the arena be locked.

Sends Greetings

Acton was sent greetings from across the Atlantic Monday night. The following telegram was read to councillors at their regular session: "Acton, London, is happy and proud on the inauguration of Commonwealth Namesake Greet-

Esquesing Assails Acton

Creek Pollution Charges Refuted

read by clark J. McGeachie, the per cent. pure. he continued, and an deckared the tannery did not chan- found true. He denied, however, Commission, chaired by A. M. Snid- official at the hearing agreed with nel waste into the creek. In recent that the bulk of the ratepayers' aler, was treated to a long list of the clerk that Acton's disposal sys- years waste had entered the creek legations had any truth. brief against Acton and alleged pollution of the Black Creek. Foster, was reportedly signed by 40 property owners along the Black Greek, a tributary of the Credit

The claims in the property owners' brief were supported by a report from Esquesing township council, read by Campbell Sinclair. Between the two papers, charges were made that: seepage from Acton's dump enters the creek; effluent from the town disposal system pollutes the stream; waste from the local tannery, Beardmore and for some 40 years. The charges were countered by Clerk McGeachie and J. H. Creighton, secretary-treasurer of the com- Board had plans for replacement of the tender for the lunch concession

Co. Ltd., has been causing pollution

Mr. McGeachie said, the dump is date was fixed. At the present time Milton Lunch Service. Tender bid and it is his belief that Acton has an listened to the music. Creek and scepage could not pos- was declared a hazardous liability der was submitted by Reliable Taxi sufficient for a population of 6,000 program, which was planned after been moved to make the curve not sibly reach it past the railway cut and council recently agreed with of Acton. The concession is not people in the park so sharp. A discussion followed on es for the future progress and which is between the dump and the the Board on the insurance com- valid on fall fair days and August erect a one million gallon reserv- previous Sundays had been noted placement of an eight foot chain creek. Department of Health tests pany's recommendation that the 6, the mirror sports day.

Following a report from Acton have shown the sewage effluent 97 beds and vacant land spray. He the situation if the charges were and safe types in operation.

recently declared unsafe.

waste. This is through settling pany would be willing to improve charges in an Esquesing ratepayers' tem was one of the most efficient twice by accident, he said. Mr. Creighton explained the two pany would welcome an inquiry-The brief, presented by Clement methods of disposal used by the the Esquesing charges demanded an company to dispose of its industrial investigation - and said the com-

Parks Board Lets Tender to Tear.

Mr. Creighton suggested his com-

Down Grandstand Said Unsate A special meeting of the Parks stand should be removed. Board of Management was held Four bids for the stand's demoli-Friday evening with representatives tion were opened, with Grant Allen of the Agricultural Society to dis- awarded the tender. "He will tear cuss the local park, particulary in the shed down, assume liability regard to the grandstand which was during demolition and pay the municipalities, is raising the neces-Board $35. The Society was assured the The Parks Board has awarded of supply.

Earlier, the Acton brief on water reviewed present sources of supply, known sources were mentioned as possible additional supply points, all within a three mile radius of sanitary inspector for the city. town. The points were not named. The report declared the town had

The brief concluded: "It would seem the source and supply (of D water) is established for our future; needs, unless the growth of the town far exceeds our expectations.

sary money to develop new sources no trouble with pollution of its

the grandstand, however no definite in the park during the summer to now completed his investigation ing off-shore breeze while they

Our only problem, like so many added to the pleasant setting of Ac-"Our engineer advised that he has the sum or the shade, and the cool-