EDEN MILLS Attendance Tripled At Sunday Service

The attendance was tripled at the Sunday afternoon service, held in Eden Mills United Church. The new minister, Mr. Kenneth Griffiths is a gifted speaker and constantly holds the interest and attention of his congregation.

Plans are being made to form a choir and an anniversary service is to be held later in the summer. Service is every Sunday at two o'clock and visitors are welcomed at this small, but historic church, founded almost 100 years ago.

JINX AT WORK

The Free Press was jinxed when it came to putting the captions underneath the pictures in this week's issue.

The caption below the picture on page 10 of the two proud girls with their diploma should have been under another picture altogether. The two girls in that photo, who received County Honors for completion of six homemaking units, were not Ruth Wilson and Glenna Rose as indicated, they are Pat Hamilton of Hornby and Shirley Brennan of Ashgrove.
