

Many Shower Gifts For Saturday Bride

Fellow employees of Miss Betty Williamson from Mason Knitting Company gathered at the home of Mrs. J. Turkosz to shower her with gifts before her marriage.

Name Guelph Mason D.D.G.M. for District

John F. Marr, widely known Guelph Mason, was elected District Deputy Grand Master of Wellington Masonic District, at the annual summer meeting of the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario, held at Toronto.

COMPLETE EXTENSIVE DISPERSAL SALE

Of 36 Registered and Vaccinated Jersey Cows and Heifers, Farm Machinery, Dairy Equipment, Hay, Straw and Furniture.

to sell by Public Auction at his farm on the Town line between the Counties of Halton and Peel, 2 1/2 miles north of No. 5 Highway, 3 miles south-west of Streetsville on

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15th, 1956 at 1 o'clock, the following:

- Reg. Jersey Cows and Heifers—Don Elm Royal Glim, due time of sale; Don Elm Silver Pin, due time of sale; Don Elm Panzana (II) due Aug. 26; Don Elm Roland, due Sept. 17; Don Elm Belina, due Sept. 28; Don Elm Gamella Bel, due Sept. 17; Don Elm Royal Star, due Oct. 1; Don Elm Almbell, due Sept. 27; Don Elm Lady Bas, due Oct. 3; Don Elm Erica, due Nov. 28; Don Elm Rojuzanabel, due Oct. 11; Don Elm Hazel Van, due Nov. 9; Don Elm Gipsy Queen, due Nov. 3; Don Elm Gipsy Van Ban, due Nov. 3; Don Elm Judy, due Dec. 16; Don Elm Forward J.C. in full flow, bred May 22; Don Elm Tillerica-zanabel, in full flow, bred May 25; Don Elm Heatherbella, in full flow, bred June 30; Don Elm Mathilde, in full flow, bred June 15; Don Elm Basils Silver Lady, 2 year old, bred June 18; Don Elm Royal Star, in full flow, bred June 3; Don Elm Inaniscarra Bene Pinn Laura, in full flow, bred June 18; Panzana A.I. in full flow, bred July 1; Lady Heifer Calves, under 1 year old.

This herd has been entered under No. 3 district, I.A.A., with several individuals producing over 1000 lbs. per year.

Sun Flower Royal Silver Vanguard, Edelweiss Beacon, Tribute of the Maple Unit sires have been used in this herd in the past.

POWER MACHINERY, FARM IMPLEMENTS, Etc.—Ferguson Tractor, No. 35, with 200 hours work; Ferguson tractor plow, 3-furrow, 12'; Ford tractor, 4-cylinder, with loader; Buckrake; Tractor grader; Wokimi broadcaster; J. D. No. 5 power mower with Ferguson quick hitch; Tractor, 4-cylinder, with attachment; Ford belt pulley; Tractor Jack; M.D. mower, 5 ft., with Carter 'D.H.' roller; superior manure spreader for tractor; M.I. Grain Binder, 6 ft.; Power cement mixer; M.H. hoe drill with fertilizer attachment; 4-cylinder, 12-hp. shutt drag harrows; set of heavy 3-section harrows; rubber tired farm wagon with flat hayrack; 2-wheel tractor trailer with steel rack; land packer; 2 colony houses, 12x12; 2 electric brooders; dump rake; garden roller; garden planter; single scuffler; walking plow; 2 hay tedders; silo rods; a quantity of scrap iron chains, bars and other small hardware.

DAIRY EQUIPMENT, HAY and FEED—Surge milker, 2 unit, motor pump and pipe; Cocksfoot, Victor 8-can cooler; electric milk pump; scales, strainers; rotary pump, water tank; Beauty litter carrier, 175 feet of track and steel pole; Beauty hay car, ropes and slings; 2000 bales of hay; quantity of baled straw; loose cut straw; quantity of Beaver-ants.

FURNITURE—Stanley piano, in natural oak finish, excellent condition; bookcase and writing desk; 2 dressers with bevelled mirrors; rockers; studio couch; hallrack; magazine rack; odd tables; kitchen range; no. of built-in dishes; electric irons; 2 congoletum rugs; small churn; wash stand; tub stand; barbed wire; clippers; and other small household articles.

Terms—Cash Settlement with the clerk day of sale. Nothing to be returned until the highest bidder thinks they to the highest bidder as the farm is sold. Wesley United Church in charge of refreshment booth.

George Currie, Clerk. Hindley and Elliott, Auctioneers. Phone Milton TR 8-9233

LOCAL NEWS

—No Free Press next week. The plant is closing for a week's holiday.

—Quite a few have been to Stratford to attend concerts or plays at the Stratford festival.

—Swimming classes are proving most successful. They are being held regularly in the park.

—Week-end traffic through town is exceptionally heavy. Cars with past Mill and Main St. homes steadily all day Saturday and Sunday.

—The population of Acton will be considerably less than that indicated on the signs at the edges of town next week. Many are away on trips or up north at cottages and lodges.

—An excavation at the corner of Wallace and Mill Streets this week was to locate a damaged storm drain which prevented drainage of rainwater from the Highway curve.

—Mrs. Beatrice Sprowl has become even better known since her appearance on the TV show Graphic. Since then she's been on the radio and television news in connection with her search for the source of oil on some property near Toronto.

—Neil E. McKinnon of Hillsburgh, prominent livestock agent, has shipped five high class Clydesdale show horses to Nova Scotia. The animals made the long trip by truck and are reported to have suffered no ill effects from the 1,300-mile journey to the Eastern seaboard. The order for the horses was placed by mail, Mr. McKinnon said, as result of a previous transaction in which six other horses had been sent to Nova Scotia last spring.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

—A grocery store run almost completely by automation was described by Jim Ledger to Rotary club members Tuesday. He has been away attending the IGA convention in New York. In this store, each customer takes a key and merely turns it in a slot in front of the store. She proceeds through the store empty-handed. Then, at the cashier's desk, the goods indicated are conveyed out from a storeroom, the totals added up without assistance from any attendants.

FREE PRESS

WANT ADS

FOR QUICK RESULTS

Births, Marriages Deaths, Etc.

BORN

MATTHEWS—Don and Ida (nee Archibald) RR. 2, Acton are happy to announce the arrival of their son, Randy Donald, at the Guelph General Hospital on Saturday, July 21st, 1956.

DEED

SNYDER—At the Ross Memorial Pavilion on July 21, 1956, Mary Sophia Penfold, beloved wife of the late Louis Phillip Snyder, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn (Mrs. E. Clifford Marr), of Toronto.

O'HARA—At the Toronto General Hospital on Friday, July 20, 1956, Elizabeth Patrick, beloved wife of Robert S. O'Hara and dear sister of Mrs. Kathleen Dadds of Acton, Burt of Toronto and Mrs. Marjorie Anderson of Galt.

TALBOT—At his home in Acton on Monday, July 23, 1956, William Donald Talbot, son of Priscilla and the late Richard Talbot, beloved husband of Anne McGregor and dear father of June (Mrs. John McHugh).

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

AGNEW—At his residence, 284 Westmoreland Ave., Toronto, on Monday, July 23, 1956, George R. O. Agnew, beloved husband of Jessie Agnew, and dear father of Hazel, George and Vernon, dear uncle of Ray Agnew of Acton, dear brother-in-law of Mrs. H. Pickard and Mrs. Wm. Galbraith.

IN MEMORIAM (Continued)

CROSS—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Robert Cross who passed away, August 4th, 1955. A wonderful mother, woman and friend.

One who was better God never made. A wonderful worker, loyal and true. One in a million, that mother, was you.

Honest and liberal, ever upright; Loved by your friends and all you knew. A wonderful mother, that mother, was you.

Lovingly remembered by Sally, Elmer and grandchildren. a-4

Coming Events