Fergus Minister Anniversary Guest

The 95th anniversary of the Presbyterian church was observed Sunday with large congregations morning and evening, with Rev. W. Ross Adams, B.A. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Fergus, as guest minister. The church was decorated with numerous autumn flowers which added much to the occasion. There were special numbers by the choir with a vocal number by Mertin Bauer Jr. in the morning service. Mr. Adams had as his Reid. subject, Back to Bethel, dealing with an incident in the life of Jacob. Genesis, chapter 35. In the evening, Mr. Adam's subject was Doors-Open or Closed, Matthew 17: 1-8. Miss Caroline Clarke of Guelph was soloist.

and Mrs. Fred Croft, Kitchener; Mr. Thomas Maltby, Puslinch; Mrs. To Two Pack Outings Robert Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. John McKay and daughter, Guelph; Mr. Ross Allan and son of Toronto. Members of the United church were present for the evening service. Recent visitors in the community: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burns, and Mrs. Clark McArthur, Wind-

Employees of the Bell Telephone C. Allan farm on R.R. 2, Acton. Co. are busy making up new con nections between new building and points about town.

Following an illness of some duration, Mrs. Arch McNabb passed away in Guelph General hospital. The funeral took place last Friday with service at Rumley Funeral Home, Acton, and was largely attended, Mr. Douglas Black officiating. Interment was in Rockwood cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. McNabb celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in June, when they were recipients of congratulations as well as gifts and flowers.

Pallbearers were Messrs. George McAlpine, George Young. Angus McNabb, Peter Sim, Roy Young, A. J. Elliott. Flower bearers were Charles Weatherston, Kingston; Keith Hamilton, Guelph; Sandy McPhedran, Rockwood; A. Mc-Nabb; J. McNabb, D. McNabb and F. McNabb, Ashgrove.

Flowers in the church on Sunday were in memory of Mrs. Mc-Nabb. There were numerous floral wreaths and bouquets the day of the funeral.

Three carloads went from Rockwood to Confirmation classes at St. Alban's church, Acton.
