It takes money to make good gasoline

Gasoline quality has risen tremendously in the past few years. Two gallons of today's gasoline do the work of three in the '20s.

Finding new techniques to make these improved gasolines, and new equipment to put these techniques to work, has cost a lot of money

Imperial, with by far Canada's most extensive oil research facilities, has spent 20 million dollars over the past ten years on research alone.

Imperial spent 65 million in the same period directly on new equipment to improve gasoline quality.

It's costing more and more money to make the gasolines required by today's more powerful cars.

Band Concert Aids Student Minister
Ballinaghs new student minister, Alan Neelon, was the centre of a community band concert recently when the citizens of Chesley, his home town, gathered in their arena to donate $340 to help cover Mr. Neelon's residential fees at the University of Toronto.

The band of the R.C.A.F. Training Command appeared under arrangement by the Session and Rev. W. M. Whidden of St. John's United church. Mr. Whidden spoke briefly of the great need for ministers and Mr. Neelon told of his career to date. He served four churches in the "Duhville" area while taking his B.A. course at McMaster.

He also took part in the service in the United church, singing before the large congregation.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
OCTOBER 7 to 13th

Matches and Careless Smoking Habits
Careless discarding of lighted matches and smoking materials was responsible for nearly 30 per cent. of all fires from known causes over a ten-year period. A burning match or tobacco debris recklessly tossed aside may start a disastrous fire taking heavy toll of lives and property.

This hazard will remain enormous until caution as a national habit replaces carelessness. Remember, one little thoughtless act may take your home—ever your life!

Here are a few common sense precautions:

- Keep all matches out of the reach of small children. Matches with easily inflammable heads should be kept in non-combustible containers.
- Have plenty of ash trays conveniently placed—and keep them clean.
- Anywhere—be sure your lighted matches or smokes are completely snuffed out before you discard them.
- Don't smoke in bed or where "No Smoking Signs are posted.
- Don't strike matches in closets, garages or other places where inflammable materials, dust or vapors may be ignited.

Faulty Electrical Wiring and Apparatus
One in ten fires of known causes is of electrical origin. Circuits are designed to carry certain loads. The blowing of a fuse is a danger signal that the circuit is overloaded or defective.

The use of a fuse of larger amperage than that for which the circuit was designed destroys this protective feature. An overload of current may heat the wire to the point of starting a fire. Be sure your fuses are of correct amperage for your circuits—15 amperes usually are right, and don't tamper with this "safety valve".

A few common sense precautions:

- Employ a skilled electrician to repair or extend wiring when this is necessary.
- Buy electric appliances and cords bearing the seal or label of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc.
- Don't string wires under rugs, over hooks, or in any exposed places. Wear may make them dangerous.

Heating and Cooking Stoves, etc.
One out of every four or five fires is caused by faulty chimneys, flues, cooking or heating stoves, furnaces, carelessness with fire places or hot ashes, or sparks on roofs, etc. Most frequent causes of destructive fires in heating plants or appliances are: sub-standard equipment, incorrect installation and construction, lack of care in maintenance and unsafe operation.

All heating plants, pipes or appliances should be at least 18 inches away from any wall or burnable material. Heaters, including stoves, should be on insulated metal, cement or other incombustible bases. Walls and ceilings near stoves should be protected by asbestos sheeting or other insulating material listed by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. Consult your local fire ordinance or building code, your fire chief or insurance agent for advice, if needed.

Clean chimney every year and repair promptly when cracks or loose mortar appear. Never "force" a furnace to get more heat. Consult your heating man about increasing its efficiency safely. Empty hot ashes into metal containers—never into wooden boxes.

Kerosene and Carelessness
One in ten fires is caused by incautious use of kerosene, gasoline or other inflammable fluids, and by carelessness in handling candles, open lights, lamps, open gas jets, torches, etc. Sloshing or pouring kerosene on wood or coal fires is an example of recklessness.

Using gasoline, benzene, naphtha and other inflammable liquids in the house for cleaning or similar purposes causes many tragedies each year. They vaporize when exposed to air and may quickly produce an explosive mixture that is readily ignited by a match, pilot light, sparking motor or even a static spark developed from rubbing textiles together. Or the quickly spreading vapor may be exploded by a smoker or a fire in another room.

You can never be safe using inflammable, explosive fluids in your house—or in filling kerosene or gasoline stoves or lamps while they are lighted.

If your clothing catches fire do not run. Running fans the flames and increases them. Lie down on the floor and roll, in a rug if you can.

Don't wear fuzzy, filmy, inflammable clothing that might catch fire around a stove or range.

Let's GROW UP -- Not BURN UP
90 PER CENT. OF ALL FIRES ARE PREVENTABLE IF YOU—

- INSPECT PROPERTY REGULARLY
- DETECT FIRE HAZARDS PROMPTLY
- BUILD SAFELY AND WELL
- CORRECT FIRE HAZARDS COMPLETELY
- LIMIT WHAT THERE IS TO BURN
- SAFEGUARD ALL SOURCES OF IGNITION
- REMEMBER THAT CANDLE PROPERTY SELDOM BURNS
- KNOW WHAT TO DO IF FIRE BREAKS OUT

ROCKWOOD
Bible Society Plans Canvass
Jitney Concludes Record Year

Organized activity on the lawn bowling greens came to an end for this season with the jitney games on Tuesday night. The club has enjoyed one of the best years with a record membership. This year, six ladies have joined the club, and are keenly interested in the game. Highlights of the year have been the inter-county league, the singles championship for the John Henderson Memorial Cup won by Bob Vincent, and the doubles championship for the Dave Gray cup won by Tom Hutchinson and Ron Estell.

Winners at the jitneys on Tuesday were: Ron Estell 2 wins 11; George Day 2 wins 10; Albert Malby 2 wins 8; Fred Alton 1 win 4; and George Perry 1 win 3. The members expect to do some work on the greens this fall. Plans for the annual meeting will be made at the executive meeting this week.

Douglas McNabb, Rockwood, also survives.

In closing, she urged all to take time for all things, especially the works of the church.

The quartette and choir again added to the music in the evening when Mr. Neelon sang a solo, and a duet with the guest speaker.

J. Bennett of Carleton addressed the congregation on Flying on the Beam. Attendance was excellent in spite of bad weather.

The largest crowd ever—between 400 and 500—sat down to the turkey supper provided by the ladies of the congregation in the basement of the church Tuesday. Many from Acton and Georgetown joined the local people in filling their plates to overflowing. Faced with the record crowd, the ladies ran short by the time they were eating themselves, and were left, at the end of the evening, with half a dozen pieces of pie and one bowl of potatoes.

The program afterwards included selections by the Churchill orchestra, concert solos by Charles Landsborough, readings by Mrs. William Ballentine.
