Thanksgiving Themes For Church Services

Thanksgiving Day passed off quietly in town. Sunday services were mainly along Thanksgiving themes. At St. John's church Sunday afternoon, Harvest Festival service was observed. The interior of the edifice was decorated with products of garden, orchard and field. On the altar were a loaf and grapes, symbols of the bread and wine. Rev. E. H. Jones, rector, conducted the service. Despite unfavorable weather conditions, quite a number were present. Preceding the service, Rev. E. H. Jones officiated at baptism for two families and during the service for the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lovell. At the United church in the evening, Mr. Stanley Harris addressed the congregation and Rev. John Hills conducted the service. Some of the Thanksgiving Day visitors:

Miss Enid McNabb of Toronto. Miss Frances Julliffe of Toronto University. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hurd of Weston. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Greer and family of Aldershot. Mr. Roy Day, Toronto. The annual Thanksgiving Day races in Guelph were largely attended. Both side of Wyndham St. from lower side St. George's Square to Macdonnell St. were lined behind barricades. Events were carried out both morning and afternoon and created much interest in the spectators. Except for breezy weather, the day was all that could be desired for sports. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirvan and family of Hamilton were holiday visitors with Mr. Stewart S. Royce. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Patterson of Sault Ste. Marie were visiting the latter's father, Mr. S. S. Royce. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bickensider of Wickenburg, Arizona, have been visiting with the latter's sister, Mrs. G. F. Woods of Alma and her brother, Mr. Robert Bingham of Rockwood and with other members of the family during the past two weeks.
