Fireflies stayed there on the strength of a two game win from Dim Wits. The latter copped the singleton for totals, though. The ladies couldn't make the grade for triples, but for singles, J. Ballouh 203, L. Toth 205, S. Turkosz 200, M. Cooney 202, P. Jordan 211 and I. Martin 225 shot a fair stick.

Acton Mixed
Nov. 27: Aces with N. Morton 789 and P. McKim 613 were too much for Jokers and picked up all the marbles. Despite P. LeSueur's 754 taking care of H. Townsley's 641, Doozy's only gaffed our game from Wildcats. Rock 'n' Roll snaffled two games from Terriers with W. Williams 670, J. Ballouh 621 leading the hit parade. R. Hulford with 637 was Terriers' best. Plenty of hot singles. Here's the top five: F. Wright 241, E. Williams 235, J. Knight 235, G. Masales 228, Jean Bullough 213.

League standing: Aces 43, Rock 'n' Roll 41, Terriers 38, Wildcats 33, Doozy's 32, Jokers 23.

High School
Nov. 28: With Sharon Gervais' 302 single standing out like a beacon light, Hound Dogs made it for all points against the Rockin' Blowers. The rival skips, M. Hurst and G. Oakes, tossed a 603 and 606 respectively. Pin Raiders took the big edge of a 5-2 go from Be-Bops. B. Agnew 600 was best for the Raiders with G. Hulford 619 pacing the Be-Bops. Groundhogs were bowling in the clutch, and came off best in a 5-2 hassle with Jokers. For singles, A. Theriault 233, V. Varey 228, B. Davidson 213, B. Cox 213, B. McPherson 203 and J. Fryer 246 were best.

Baxter Lab.
Nov. 29: Indians for the second week in a row went on the war path and scalped all points. Scalpers, the Braves. Athletics gained some ground when they won two from Yankees. Yankees picked up the odd point for totals. The well-filled stomachs of the Baxterites were not conducive to good bowling and it was of the single variety. Best scores were M. Hoare 201, E. Landsborough 211, I. Doozy's 210, H. Cox 202, B. Skidmore 267 and G. McQuay 289.

Bear Cats tried to shut out the Comets but dropped the last go. On the single theme were A. Williams 200, B. Agnew 202, B. Otterbein 200 and C. Goodwin 216. Top female doubler was Carol Goodwin 388; top male, Brian Otterbein 351.

League standing: Comets 31, Doodle Bugs 29, Bear Cats 26, Dim Wits 25, Cardinals 21, Pin Raiders 18.

Headpin Highlights
Fingers hit the wrong keys last week and we reported Andy Williams as trundling a 213 single in the High School league, should have been "312". Sorry, Andy. Inter-county gang made it two and totals from Streetsville here last Saturday. A 714 tricount gives Dot Earle "the Tups Cleaners" duet this week. Young Sharon Gervais knocked off the I.G.A. grocerettes with that big 302 single.

L. Flear's 345 was tops for Gordon's Hardware award. Norm Morton picks up the Gord McCutcheon haberdashery with a 789 triple. Carol Eisen, Susie Detels, W. Wilson and Andy Williams were the hidden score winners for Seven-up, Romantik's and Coca Cola awards. Andy Theriault with a 233 plus wins a George Holloway tonsorial job. That cleans up the awards and column too, so adios, amigos.

Ladies Present Gifts To Hospitalized Veterans
Several members of the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary paid another of their visits to Sunnybrook hospital recently. They report that the gratitude felt by the men for their small gifts was very moving and made them anxious to visit again. They hope to make another trip early in the new year.

It is these war veterans in hospital who make the poppies sold Remembrance Day. Many of them have not been out of the hospital for years, with no relatives in this part of the country. Ladies who have called on the men felt the visit was most rewarding.

Bannockburn W.I. School Purchases

Bannockburn Women's Institute held their regular meeting in the school. After opening exercises, the roll call was answered with, "What gives me pep?" During the business, it was decided to purchase denim to recover the school couch mattress and cushion and also to buy a blanket. Some new games will be purchased for the children. Plans were made for a special cuche and turkey draw in December. Miss Marion Porte gave the motto.

The girls and the mothers were special guests. Colored slides of her trip to Europe were commented on by Mrs. A. Buchanan.
