Girls Tour Europe In '39 Austin

BURLINGTON - The thought touring Europe intrigues many. To tour it by car appeals to the more rugged, adventurous types, but to see close to 5,000 miles of it from a 1939 · Austin taxi in its last stages of decay leaves a good many people a bit uneasy.

But four district people did itand girls at that. June Etter of 62 Martha St., drove across the continent with three chums, Oriole Rust, Aldershot;"-"Marie Lavigne and Olive Tarry, the latter two from Hamilton.

The four left Burlington August and three days later boarded the S.S. United States for the crossing.
