REVIEW SHOWS MANY PEOPLE MAKE THE NEWS DURING YEAR

CENSUS ENUMERATORS for Acton in Canada's first nation-wide quinquennial information hunt were Joan McKnight and Eileen Wensley. Each enumerator covered about half the town.

JEAN MANES won a new wardrobe and all-expense trip to New York City in June when she was named Acton's Queen for a Week.

LAWN BOWLING TROPHY was competed for in the Inter-County Lawn Bowling league this year. Presented by Beardmore's it is shown here with Harry Rogers and Jim Fleming.

DIAMOND WEDDING anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freeman was celebrated in April at the home of their son Frank in Esquesing.

CERTIFICATE OF MERIT was presented to Acton branch by the Canadian Legion's Dominion chairman at the 25th anniversary. From the left are G. Beatty, Major John Anderson, Vic Patrick, E. Burgess, G. Musselle.

LESLEY ANN DUBY was the proud winner of the B. D. Rachlin Public Speaking Trophy in November of this year.

DISTRICT CUBAREE held in Acton had participants from Acton, Milton, Georgetown and Erin. Among the feminine participants in the June event were Doris Allan, Hilda Hill, Shirley Mason, Pauline Marks, Brenda Cripps and Faye Sagaskie.

ACTON SINGERS WON second place in a senior choir class at urban Music Festival Finals in May. Music teacher Evelyn Goodwin holds the shield won.

SCHOOL IS FUN for these youngsters at the Vacation Bible School held in July at three churches. Ann Symon, Arlene Gordon and Kerl Adams are shown.

ACTON Y RUNNERS were chalking up honors in middle distance events in May of this year. Shown are Morris Van Hemmen, Delmar Watson, Ed Molody, Jim Malloy and Frank Mariscak.

THE PUMPKIN QUEEN was Beth McEnery of Ballinafad at Acton's September Fall Fair. The entrant's pumpkin weighed 60 pounds. William Davey is shown making the presentation.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRANTS, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Norton, residents of Limehouse for 41 years, marked their 50th anniversary in May of this year. They are shown with some of the flowers received