CHURCHILL

Pageant, Supper Part of Program

The Christmas program of the Churchill United Church was held on Sunday afternoon at the church. Organ music was softly playing as the congregation gathered. The orchestra led the audience in a carol sing, with the old traditional favorites. The scripture lessons were read by Bob Kerr and Ted Freeman.

The children put on a Christmas pageant under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Anderson and the teachers. This pageant showed the Christmas story as it was being read by a modern mother to her daughter.

The white gift service was held with the children presenting their gifts at the altar. Mrs. A. Kerr read a story of the Eskimo version of the Christmas story. Mr. Sweatman sang a fitting solo "Oh come to my heart".

A special message by Mr. Neelands Lord Kerr Christmas was given. This message was that Christmas must not be a commercial affair but must be a thought that was brought to the late Rex Post Marshall.

After the religious service the children, parents and teachers went to the Sunday school rooms in the basement for the merrier part of the program. The Christmas tree was all set up and decorated. Santa Claus gave out the gifts and candy.

School Concerts Feature Santa

Blue Mountain school concert was held when a nice program was given by the children under the guidance of Mrs. Shortell.

Peacock school held theirs when mostly a musical concert was given which all enjoyed under the leadership of Miss Webb. Santa Claus as usual visited both to the pleasure of the children and everyone. He is a very busy fellow these days.

We were sorry to learn that Miss Lilian Shortell is still confined to bed. We trust she may soon be up and around again.

Mr. Smith our new storekeeper was taken suddenly ill after returning from the school concert and is confined to bed. We trust he may soon be out again.
