Marketing of Hogs is Topic At Farm Union Local Meeting

Bailiwakad Farm Union Local 130 held their January meeting in Peacock school on Thursday night. Guest speaker was Mr. Archie Newkirk, secretary of hog producers of Milton. Mr. Ed Davenport, president of Milton Hog Producers, was also present and a lengthy discussion followed which everyone enjoyed. All felt they had received much information on the marketing of hogs.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Willett, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McEnery spent Wednesday last in Hamilton. Mrs. Mc-

S.S. Growing Name Teachers

A meeting of the teachers of the Eden Mills United Church Sunday School was held on Friday evening when plans were made for the classes which have been steadily growing.

Norman S. Marshall Sr. will conduct the adult Bible class, Ralph Thompson, Boys' Intermediate, Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Girls' Intermediate, Junior, Miss Jean James, Primary; Mrs. Norman S. Marshall and the Kindergarten, Mrs. Mabel Parker. Mrs. Phillip Shreve and Mrs. G. Mark will be auxiliary teachers for the present.

The new superintendent, Mrs. Norman, Togmeyer, conducted the meeting. There is a need of two or three more teachers in the Sunday school. The time is late afternoons instead of in the morning which will be continued for six months on a trial basis.

Ladies' Aid Discusses Mans' Improvements

Knob Ladies' Aid held their first meeting of the new year in the church parlor. Mrs. Wm. McLeod, the newly elected president was in the chair.

The worship service included the hymn, Unto the Hills, scripture lesson read by Mrs. Fred Cole and prayer by Mrs. F. Anderson. Reports of secretary and treasurer were read and a large number of Christmas cheer and thank you notes were also heard.

The committee reported on the progress of the new entrance at the station and a discussion on more improvements was carried on. A committee was appointed to make the necessary findings for this project.

Work for the coming month was discussed and it was decided to hold a Valentine Tea with baking table and candy offered for sale. Various ones were appointed to take care of these tea tables. Mrs. Murray Smith, to choose her helpers, baking table, Mrs. A. Robinson, Mrs. F. J. McPherson and Mrs. McPherson, candy, Mrs. F. Anderson.

To close the business meeting all repeated the Lord's Prayer. Readings were given by Mrs. Wm. McLeod, Little Words of the Bible and a new year's prayer and an interesting item by Mrs. A. J. Boenham, The Stranger in Your Church.

The meeting closed by singing. Work for the Night is Coming and repeating the Mitnah benediction. Everyone was invited to the basement kitchen where lunch was prepared by Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. F. Anderson. A friendly time was enjoyed and an invitation extended from Mrs. B. R. Parker to hold the next meeting at her home. Miss Marjorie Hall moved a vote of all to who can contribute in any way to the pleasure of the afternoon.

"A" Pack

There was a good deal of activity around the Scout Hall last Thursday evening when "A" Pack met. At the evening assembly, two new chums, Jerry Okendorn and Ted Quennell, were invested as Cubs by Akela, Mrs. Helen Weston, having successfully passed their Tenderfoot tests. Akela Murray Seovic of "B" Pack was present at the investiture.

After a couple of games in which all Sixes did very well, there was a bustle and a shout, aplenty with instruction and test passing in first and second star tests. Then came a rousing sing song led by Bagheera and Baloo, followed by another investiture when Fraser Reid was presented with the coveted scarf and badges of the Cub.

Michael Churchill was awarded his House Orderly badge to show his ability as a cook and handyman.

In the points standing, Red Six leads with 95 points, followed by White Six with 91, Yellow Six and Town Six bringing up the rear with 85 and 84 respectively.

OBITUARY

Merchant's Mother Passes-on-in Midland

Father was sorry to learn of the death of Bill Benson's mother, Mrs. J. A. Benson, in St. Andrew's hospital, Midland, on Saturday. Mrs. Benson, the former Mary Mabel Peterson, had been in ill health for some time.

Funeral service was held in Midland on Monday.

Surviving are her husband, James Albert Benson; daughters, Orma of Toronto, Donna (Mrs. H. A. Creates) of Willowdale, sons Harold of Midland and William of Acton.

Benson's Shoe Store was closed temporarily.

Hold First in Series Of Euchres in School

The S.S. No. 9 ladies of the Dublin Women's Institute held the first of a series of euchres at Bloomsbury school, Nassagawaya on Friday evening. 11 tables played euchre. Prize winners were ladies' first, Mrs. Charles Thompson; second, Mrs. R. L. Davidson; men's first, Ross Snow; second, R. L. Davidson. The travelling prizes went to Mrs. Christina Britton and Duncan Moffat.

Rev. A. H. McKenzie was present and closed the meeting with prayer.

The hostess and her assistants served lunch and a period of social fellowship was enjoyed. Thanks was given by Mrs. Mc. McCullough.

A nice sum of money was added to the Institute treasury as a result of this pleasant evening.

LEGION NEWS

Dates were set for the Daily Vacation Bible School when the Ministerial Association met yesterday. Instruction will be given from July 8 to July 12. Instructors have not yet been determined, but it is hoped the same leaders as last year, with further assistance, will be able to continue this year.

Plans will be finalized later.

At the regular Friday night supper February 1, Ted Elliott took top prize. Jack Drysdale was second, Archie Koutner third. Hector Lambert, master player of them all (as he says), had the low score of the evening.

Saturday night about 25 members and their wives from the Orangeville Legion attended the dance in the Acton Legion Auditorium and a very enjoyable evening was spent with the Legion members.

Tom Hume is confined to his home this week through illness and George Hollinger is laid up with a bad leg. He seems George didn't move out of bed fast enough while refereeing one of the Minor Sports League hockey games and was hit in the shin with the puck. You'll have to watch these kids George, they are getting to be real fast hockey players.
