Mystery Councillors Are No Longer Nameless

Old Costume Parade, History Of W.I. Featured at Greenock

A very interesting January meeting of Greenock Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Mrs. E. Patterson presiding. After the usual opening and scripture reading by Mrs. J. Near, the roll call was answered by A Favorite Hymn. Mrs. E. Johnson read the minutes and thank you notes and items of business were discussed.

The temperance convener, Mrs. R. Allan and Mrs. A. McNiven took over. Mrs. Allan gave many appealing figures on alcohol costs as released from Parliament Buildings, Toronto. For example, its cost to our province in a year is over 778 million dollars more than the cost of roads.

Mrs. R. McKinnon gave a poem, The Business Man, Mrs. H. Reid a poem, Strong Drink is Raging, and Mrs. C. Aitken a poem, The Face on the Bar Room Floor.

The meeting celebrated ten years since the founding of the W.I. and the ladies were glad to have Mrs. A. McKinnon present, for it was through her efforts and in whose home Greenock Institute first met. To celebrate this and also the founding of the Women's Institute by Adelaide Hoodless, 60 years ago, a huge Valentine trimmed angel cake provided part of the sumptuous lunch.

A real anniversary program was given. Mrs. E. Patterson gave a talk on the Institute. Mrs. Hensley a talk on The Mary Stewart Collect used since 1904 to open meetings the world over wherever the English language is spoken. A reading by Mrs. Ballentine concerned on the founding of the Institute by Adelaide Hoodless, who lost her first child through the use of impure milk. She studied Home Economics and was able to convince MacDonald, the tobacco king, funds were needed to provide a college to teach this subject and thus MacDonald College at the O.A.C. was founded, with the assistance of $175,000 from Mr. MacDonald. Miss Hoodless, in an address she was asked to deliver at a Farmer's Institute meeting, stressed the need for work among the women to better conditions, and in 1897 one was formed. In 1900 there were 33 and today we have 1489 branches, the aims of which are:
1. Helping to develop happier and more useful citizens.

Ladies' Aid, Group Hold Valentine Tea

A very successful Valentine tea was held at Knox church Saturday afternoon. Baking and candy offered for sale by the Ladies' Aid was all sold out and the girls of the Ellen Anderson group realized a good sum from a table of novelties.

Girls of the group served under the convenering of Mrs. Murray Smith. Pouring tea were Mrs. A. McKenzie, Mrs. W. McLeod, Mrs. R. M. McDonald, Mrs. A. J. Buchanan, Mrs. H. L. Bennie and Mrs. A. J. Murray.

Hungarian Relief Fund Reported Over the Top

Over the top success was reported today by the Canadian Hungarian Relief Fund. Contributions amount to $512,971 with a final objective of $500,000.

The co-chairmen, G. S. Thorvaldson, Winnipeg, and G. G. Tommsvary, Toronto, were both enthusiastic about the Canadian public's response to the appeal.

Once again, Canadians have opened their hearts and showed their willingness to share their good fortune with those who have suffered to preserve our way of life. The success of the fund is most gratifying.
