Bills given first reading would eliminate the $40 ceiling on three social assistance allowances and pave the way for increasing the amounts if the Federal Government increases its share.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Reader Praises Policy On Liquor Advertising

RR 1, Georgetown, March 1st, 1957

Mr. G. A. Dilla
Dear Sir:

At our Missionary meeting on Wednesday, February 27, I had the opportunity of saying something about the liquor problem in our country.

First, I told of a woman who had become an alcoholic, then I read from the February Temperance Advocate that there are 78,000 alcoholics in Ontario, followed by the question, "Where do we, our homes, our schools and our churches stand on this question?"

After that I read "Policy Unchanged" from page two of the Acton Free Press January 17.

The members of the Afternoon Auxiliary of the Woman's Missionary Society at Ballinacraig requested me to write to you to say how much we appreciate the stand you and your sons have taken in regard to publishing no liquor ads on your paper.

Today, too many people are lowering their standards, even some ministers and just going with the crowd.

We are pleased to know one editor and sons have not yielded - I look forward to the arrival of the Free Press every Friday at noon.

Wishing you continued success, I remain a faithful reader.

Yours truly,
B. Ballinacraig,
RR 1, Georgetown
