Legion's I.G.A.
Feb. 25: Well, it finally happened. After threatening to overtake the Duke several times and then falling short, Kings finally did it when they won all games. Must have done some powerful clutch bowling 'cause the big scores were 822, J. Hopkins 219, D. Manne 201. League standing: Kings 78, Duke 76.

Masson Knit
Feb. 24: Jazzy Janes were on the beam for this go and made over 700 a game winning one when they met up with Dead Beats B. Creighton was tops in this go with a 600 triple. Heebie Jeebies came out with the big edge of a 5-2 go from Pin Spinners with G. Hulford pacing the field with 602. Crazy Kats wrapped up the first two and totals. Lucky Strikers then bowed out in the third go to wind up with two and totals. The gals as usual had some good singles. A. DeForest 212, R. Goodwin 201, E. Williams 204, D. Tyler 201, J. Dowling 201, A. McLaughlin 237, L. W. Walker 237, it right this time. Lili, B. Dolphin 204, J. McCreas 205, B. Tyler 206, C. Wallis 213, D. Stapleton 204, A. Chew 245.

Acton Mixed
Feb. 26: Three winning games for Jokers against the Terriers gave them possession of first place. While this was going on, Doozys were taking a fall out of the rest while leaders Aces, with a two and totals win. Rock 'n' Roll snared the first two from Wildcats but the latter got going in the last can to avert a shut-out. Tumbling the pins for the triples were LeSueur 622, N. Morton 720, McLean 600 (330), E. McKim 648, D. Grein 628, and for the ladies, it was Jean Bullough 607, Phyllis McKim 601 making the spotlight.

League standing: Jokers 85, Aces 81, Doozys 73, Rock 'n' Roll 60, Terriers 67, Wildcats 66.

Headpin Highlights
Talk about fast action. Geoff Bell landed in Acton last week, while leading Jason Thursday afternoon and was bowling in the Glenelg Friday night. Wasn't low man on the team either. Inter-county action saw the boys in Oakville Saturday afternoon, after dropping a first game, topped the last two and totals. They're still high in the saddle for first place. A neat 700 triple by Mary Cooney wins the "Toys Cleaners" award this week. Gayle Hulford with her 317 single, gathers up the I.G.A. foodstuffs.

High School
Feb. 27: Pin Raiders made the jump from last place to fourth with a three game win from Jokers. Be-Bops hang onto first place by virtue of a two and totals win from Rockin' Blowers. Groundhogs made it two and totals from Hound Dogs despite a hot 718 tricont from "Rusty" Cox. The singles had the best scores with B. Greer 250, B. Agnew 207, C. Bradley 200, T. Arbie 200, B. McEachern 228, G. Hulford 277, G. Oakes 223, M. Hurst 204 marking them up.

League standing: Be-Bops 79, Hound Dogs 72, Jokers 71, Pin Raiders 67, Groundhogs 65, Rockin' Blowers 64.

Industrial - Commercial
Feb. 27: Might as well come crupper. Reliable Taxi taking them for a ride to the tune of a two and totals win. D. Grein with 682 was at the wheel for Taxi with J. Gibson 615 and H. DeForest Jr. 636 being best for Micro Ink Spots with Bill Taylor 624, R. Morton 614 and H. Coles 603, got the big side of a 5-2 go from A. P. Green. The "Muddlingers" snared the last spasm. Goy's Cartage were in high gear for the first two gos, then went into reverse in the finale and Riddales clamped onto a win. Totals were close, Goy's getting the nod by four pins.

Acton Ladies
Feb. 27: It was a "two and totals" night for the "Ladies". Elens set down Family Outfitters, Dare Devils had the edge over Rollerettes and Mildred Bells rang the bell on Speed Balls. Top triples were trumped by D. Earle 620 and H. LeSueur 624. Getting the singles were B. Armstrong 222, V. Marsh 206, N. Hurst 231, C. Holmes 202, V. Arbie 211, M. Marks 213, I. Mellon 252, R. League standing: Elens 91, Rollerettes 86, Dare Devils 82, Mildred Bells 78, Speed Balls 74, Family Outfitters 72.

Acton Major
Feb. 28: If the Vagabonds could have been locked up for vagrancy, Combines would have been happy. Cause all the "Vags" did was wrap up all games from Combines. Even P. LaSueur's 694 (359) tricont couldn't help the Combines. F. Irving 608 and G. Lee were tops for

Baptists Organize Adult Fellowship

An organizational meeting of the Baptist Adult Fellowship was held recently at the home of Fred West. An old-fashioned sleigh ride was enjoyed—the old-fashioned way—with horses! Hot soup was served afterwards and a sing song enjoyed.

The Adult Fellowship is for all the adults of the church. A weekly Bible class and discussion group and monthly get-togethers are planned.

On the executive are president, John Chapman; vice-president, Lloyd Halsey; treasurer, Gordon Wagner; and secretary, Miss Jessie Coles.

Baxter Lab.
Feb. 25: Another week and another change in the Baxter standings. Yankees took 'em all from the Braves and the Athletics made it two and totals from Indians with the result both Athletics and Yankees have a chunk of first place. E. Landsborough and B. Skidmore led the trundlers with 651 and 636 respectively. B. Anderson and J. Martin 215, G. Agnew 234, P. Angell 237, R. Cook 233.

League standing: Athletics 86, Yankees 84, Indians 85, Braves 79, Skidmore 78.

Time marches on, so do Snapping A—another seven points. This week Puddle Jumpers took it on the chin. A big upset in "League Suburbia", Lucky Six, who the last few weeks have been matching Snapping A, win for win, had a zero count handed to them by the lowly Frogs. Frogs jumped last to third place tie as a result. Another shut-out was registered when Go-Getters met up with Eskimos, the latter going into a state of frozen animation for no points. J. Martin paced all and sundry with his 765 (324) tricont. Next in line were J. Bullough 754 (357), H. Earle 627, R. Morton 625, D. Grein 611.

League standing: Snapping A 134, Lucky Six 99, Go-Getters 90, Frogs 80, Eskimos 56, Puddle Jumpers 53.

Teen-Agers
March 2: With the Saturday morning gang, it was a case of 3-2 splits down the line. Bear Cats took Dragons' measure. Doodle Bugs knocked off Dim Wits and Pin Raiders had Cardinals' number. Two bang-up doubles were racked up, B. Agnew 507 and T. Masales 459. Coming through with the singles were A. Williams 219, B. Dawkins 201, S. Detels 206, R. Bernard 204, G. Walker 228.

League standing: Dragons 62, Bear Cats 60, Cardinals 55, Doodle Bugs 53, Dim Wits 50, Pin Raiders 48.
