BALLINAFAD

Old Costumes Shown at W.I.

Mrs Clarence Snow was hostess for the March meeting of the W.I. on Wednesday evening with a good attendance. The president presided and the meeting opened with the opening Ode and Mary Stewart Collect and When You and I were Young Maggie Roll call was answered by wearing something from grandmother's time, when many old time things were worn.

Current events were given by Mrs I. Jamieson and the motto by Mrs Norman Sinclair, "Looks as if one man's religion might become another man's meat."

It being Mrs Snow's meeting on historical research, pictures were shown by Mrs Lawr, which all enjoyed. The social committee of Mrs Baker and Mrs A. McEnery, assisted by the hostess, served lunch.

The W.I. euchre was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Leo Jamieson on Monday night when nine tables were played. High scorers were Mrs Wm Kirkwood, Robert McEnery playing as a lady, Tom Given and Ray Swindlehurst.

Mr. Neelon took the temperance service on Sunday instead of having someone come in to take it and a splendid sermon was given. Text was Belshazzar's Feast from the fifth chapter of Daniel.

The World Day of Prayer was held at the home of Mrs. John Black on Friday afternoon.

Master Allan and Master Murray Jamieson spent the week-end with their grandmother, Mrs. Jamieson in Georgetown.

Mr. Herbert Breithaupt, son of the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario who is attending university at Toronto, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Neelon on Sunday.

TRAIN CYCLISTS

VANCOUVER (CP)—A stepped-up educational program for young cyclists in Vancouver is sought by the B.C. Automobile Association. The group's board of directors at its latest meeting also decided to ask for "stricter enforcement" for regulations for cyclists.

Mrs. Robert Parker Ladies' Aid Hostess

Mrs R R Parker of Park Ave opened her home to the members of Knox church Ladies' Aid for the regular monthly meeting presided over by Mrs Wm McLeod.

The meeting opened with a worship service, singing hymn, Take My Life and Let It Be. Mrs F J McCutcheon read the scripture lesson and Mrs. H L. Bennie led in prayer.

Miss Marjorie Hall, assistant secretary, read the report and correspondence. Mrs S Matthews gave a treasurer's report with a gratifying return from the tea and baking sale.

Mrs J Jany was appointed flower convener with her helpers, Mrs R Turner, Miss Ruby Clark and Mrs Ken McKenzie.

Mrs McLeod reported on the manse project and it was decided the committee would meet with the managing board to decide on future plans.

Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. McCutcheon are in charge of arranging groups and appointing a convener for each to create new ideas on money making ventures.

Mrs A J Murray read two nice poems, Grandmother's Button Box and The Lilac Tree.

The meeting closed with a hymn and the Lord's Prayer. The committee of the month, convened by Mrs Murray Smith, served a tasty lunch.
