

HALTON MANOR

Acton Knox Groups Entertain, Hobby Class Concludes Season

A town whose organizations have been very generous in entertaining the residents of Halton Manor was represented at another delightful evening for the residents on Tuesday evening, April 30, when a number of ladies and gentlemen from the Alert Evening Auxiliary and from the Acton Knox Presbyterian church in Acton came to present a program in the dining room Rev. Andrew McKenzie, minister of the church, accompanied the group.

Mrs. J. Inglis, president of the Auxiliary, and Mrs. Fred Anderson, program convener for the evening, were in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Clarke extended a cordial welcome to the visitors, after which Mrs. Inglis expressed the pleasure of the visitors in coming to the Manor.

Two-Part Program
Mrs. Anderson explained that the first half of the program would be of a sacred nature and would be unannounced. Then followed a program of readings in prose and poetry interspersed with sacred songs and hymns. Several hymns were sung as well as duets and solos.

The duets were "Take Time to be Holy," sung by Miss Isabel Anderson and Mrs. J. L. Davidson, and "In the Garden," by Mrs. J. L. Davidson and Norman Elliott. The solos were "My Task," by Mrs. Davidson and "Bless This House," by Norman Elliott.

The readings were given by six ladies and were read with fine expression. All the readings and sacred selections gave great pleasure to the audience. Mrs. Alec Mann was the capable accompanist for the evening.

Short Address
At the close of this inspiring program, Mr. McKenzie gave a short address. He expressed greetings from his church and spoke of the power of God in all our lives.

The second half of the program, which was of a secular nature, came next. Mrs. George Young evoked gales of laughter with her very humorous reading, "Bears and the Twins," and was called on to give an encore. Especially Jim.

Pipe Music
Several selections of a kind of music that is always very popular with the residents of the Manor came next on the program. This was pipe-band music, played by two pipers and a drummer. Messrs. Bob McVey, Phil Caldwell and Bob Riddale. As they played such stirring tunes as "The Road to the Isles" and "We a Hundred Pipers," the pipers and the drummer marched around the dining room, presenting a stirring sight.

Mrs. Bennie expressed the thanks of the visitors for having been given the opportunity to present this program for the residents, and in his reply to Mrs. Bennie, Mr. Clarke expressed the gratitude of all present for this varied, inspiring and entertaining program.

The serving of a most attractive and appetizing lunch, for which Mrs. Donna Krupsek was the convener, brought this very pleasant evening to a close.

Catharine Heenan
The winter and spring sessions of the Hobby Class, during which regular weekly meetings have been held, culminated for the present season in a merry social on Wednesday afternoon, May 1, in the dining room, when over 30 members of the class, including Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Stewart Lockie, assembled to hold their last weekly meeting until next fall.

Very brief devotional and business meetings were held to open the meeting.

As a mark of sincere and affectionate gratitude for all that she has done for the Hobby Class since its initial meeting for this year on January 16, an address of appreciation in honor of Mrs. Lockie was read by Miss Harriet Metcalfe and the gift of a plastic travelling case was presented to her on behalf of all the members by Mary Shaw.

In her thank you speech, Mrs. Lockie expressed the great pleasure she had derived from making her contribution to this very worthwhile organization.

much amusement as did the contests that followed.

In the game, the Musical Parcel, Hilda Marcy was the winner, and in the candle blowing contest for those having birthdays in May, Agnes Kingsbury was the winner.

Last Winners
The third contest, which was in the form of a questionnaire, resulted in the following prizes being awarded: person with the longest feet, Norman Viggers, with the brightest smile, Mrs. Jessie Morton, with the shortest dress, Nora Steadman, with the brightest eyes, Mrs. M. Ford, with the birthplace farthest from Milton, Mrs. J. Jamieson from Ireland, and Mrs. Costerton from Scotland.

Refreshment Time
Refreshment time was headed by the carrying in of two birthday cakes ablaze with candles in honor of Mrs. Eric Clarke, the Matron, who had celebrated her birthday on the preceding Saturday. The two cake bearers were Mrs. Olive Howard and Miss Della Richardson.

An address of gratitude to Mrs. Clarke for having given so much of her time and effort to the success of the Hobby Class and extending all good wishes for her birthday and for another happy year was read by Mrs. Metcalfe and a birthday card was presented to Mrs. Clarke.

Recent Nuptials At Guelph Church
The Dublin Street United Church, Guelph, was decked with pink and white streamers for the lovely spring wedding of Miss Joan Marie Thorpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thorpe of Woodbridge, to William John Sinclair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair of Guelph.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a white length gown of white nylon net over tulle with lace and sleeves of lace. Her fingertip veil was held in place by an abandon and she carried sweetest roses and gladioli.

She had three attendants dressed identically in ballerina length strapless gowns with jackets of nylon lace and net over tulle. The maid of honor, Miss Marie Hepburn of Erin, was in pink while Miss Beth McEwen, Ballinacraig, cousin of the groom and Mrs. Lorette Thorpe, sister of the bride, were dressed alike in turquoise. They carried bouquets of carnations set in tulle to match their dresses.

Little Miss Judy Thorpe, small sister of the bride, was flower girl, wearing white lace over pink satin and carrying a pink nosegay.

William Somerville, Acton, attended the groom while Ken Thorpe Jr. and George Gibson, Ballinacraig, ushered the guests.

Miss Anne Jackson, great aunt of the bride, sang beautifully during the signing of the register.

Mrs. Thorpe received in a beige and brown ensemble with a bronze corsage. Mrs. Sinclair assisted, wearing black lace with pink accessories.

For a honeymoon to Niagara Falls and New York State, the bride wore a dusty rose suit and light blue coat with white accessories.

The happy couple will make their home in Guelph, where the groom is in the employ of Doughty and McFarlane.

The birthday cakes for Mrs. Clarke, ice cream and cookies, were served to all present and the fruit dish marked as the lucky prize dish won a prize for Mrs. A. T. Brown.

This wonderful meeting, the last of the current session, was brought to a close with the repeating of the Matruh benediction.

Sunday Service
In the unavoidable absence of Rev. R. F. Suster, the church service in the chapel on Sunday afternoon, May 5, was conducted by Jack Howson, assisted by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morton. Mr. Morton, who has a very fine voice, led in the singing of a number of very familiar hymns, while Mrs. Morton played the accompaniments in expert fashion.

After reading the scripture, Mr. Howson gave a sincere address on the topic, "Things We can Find in the Bible." Mr. Howson pointed out that not only is the Bible a wonderful book but it is also a book that can solve all our problems.

From Genesis to Revelations there is from the beginning of things to the end of things, the Bible can impart much knowledge and inspiration. Mr. Howson chose a few representative books from the Bible and described the things to be found in them, such as, among other prophetic things in the Book of Daniel, things of action in the four Gospels and things accomplished by the Disciples in the Book of the Acts.

THE PEOPLES' WISHES WILL BE OBEYED

IN THE LAST Federal election, in 1953, the present Liberal Government was re-elected by less than half the number of ballots cast. This happened because some people voted Progressive Conservative, some Liberal, some CCF and some Social Credit. In other words, most Canadians were opposed to the Liberal Government but they split their vote three ways and allowed the Liberals a free spending hand for another four years.

People who supported the CCF and Social Credit Parties were sincere in their feelings, and still are. Some are your neighbours and some are mine and all are law-abiding and loyal Canadians. But it must be apparent to them, as it is now to a lot of Liberals, that the national rule in this country can be stopped only by a majority of the people voting for the only national party opposing the Government, namely the Progressive Conservatives.

I fully believe that you must talk face to face with people to understand their problems and try to help them. That is why I have personally called on several thousand Halton citizens to date and intend to vote a lot more before election day on June 10th.

I know what people are thinking and how they are going to vote. The recent Ontario public opinion poll which showed a majority favouring the Progressive Conservative Party completely with the general attitude in our country.

People resent the fact that they were overtaxed 236 million dollars by the Federal Government in the last few months of last year. They resent the Government's tight credit policy, which is putting them and their neighbours out of business and preventing needed home construction. They resent the present Liberal Government in every respect.

Halton County people know a Progressive Conservative Government will put a quick end to these and many other social injustices. They know the Progressive Conservative Party will uphold the Rights of the People. So vote Progressive Conservative on June 10th and be 50% of a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Yours sincerely,
Sandy Best
