

Workmen Busy Clearing Stumps

On Saturday last, many volunteer workmen assisted the Parks Board, with the help of their boats and manual labor, in clearing stumps and brush from the lake at Acton Park. The men are shown above as they are about to tackle one of many hazards.

Scout, Guide Mothers Hold May Meeting

The May meeting of the Scout and Guide Mothers Auxiliary was held in the scout hall. A good attendance was present and Mrs. Haggitt presided. The secretary's report was read and approved. The treasurer's report was given. It indicated a very successful financial season. Two new members were introduced and welcomed into the Auxiliary.

Plans were made for a social evening to end the season's activities. Before the meeting closed, election of officers took place with the following results: president, Mrs. Ethel Haggitt; vice-president, Beryl Newton; secretary, Kay Graham; treasurer, Laura McEachern; social convener, Mrs. Alice Newton. The meeting closed with the Missions Benediction. Lunch was served by the committee in charge.

HALTON MANOR Rev. Snyder Conducts Chapel Service

It was a pleasure for the residents to welcome back to the Manor, after an absence of several months, Rev. R. F. Snyder, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church, Milton, who came to conduct the service in the chapel on Sunday afternoon, June 3. Mr. Snyder was accompanied by two other welcome visitors, Mrs. Snyder and their little son, David. Mr. Snyder read his scripture lesson and then delivered a scholarly and interesting sermon on the topic, "What the Cross Meant to Those Present at the Crucifixion." Mrs. Snyder was the accompanist for the hymns and for a solo sung by Mr. Snyder, "How Sweet the Name of Jesus Sounds."

Oldest Barn in Twp. Scene of Huge Fire

Fire destroyed one of the oldest and largest barns in Esqueping township, about a half mile west of Georgetown, during last week-end. Plans were so spectacular at the height of the blaze that traffic piled up along No. 7 Highway as sightseers and passing motorists stopped to watch the burn's end. The building was part of the estate of the late Dr. Allan McCullough. There were no animals in the barn but a tractor and some hay were destroyed.

(Continued from Page One) Centennial. It is to be hoped that the school children will be present as well as many town residents in order to give a hearty welcome.

Councillor Cook reported the Municipal Act states the fire chief may condemn any building that is a hazard and suggested the fire chief be instructed to carry out an inspection of the barn on the Lakeview property. He further suggested the fire chief, police and the P.U.C. be supplied with a phone number from the Gas Company in case of an emergency such as a gas leak.

Propose suggests No decisive action was taken on a proposal from Councillor Guy on the possibility of amending the Ball Club with the erection of dugouts.

They enjoyed the discussions and reports, as well as the excellent lunch prepared by the capable Ballinacree ladies.

Acton Volunteer Fire Department have placed garbage disposal units at the park this past week.

Mrs. E. Lambert Hostess to W.I.

Mrs. E. Lambert was hostess for the W.I. meeting of the Acton United Church, June 4. There were 32 present with Mrs. A. B. Shoemaker presiding.

The meeting opened with the Old and prayer, followed by a hymn. The various reports were heard and approved. The visiting committee reported that 74 calls were made last month.

Mrs. D. Lindsay outlined the activities of the annual bus trip scheduled for June 13, when all will be participating a good time. A committee was formed to plan for a July 27 dinner to be served in the church school room. The devotional period, in charge of Mrs. Veldhuis, was taken from a portion of Job.

The thought was based on integrity. Mrs. Shoemaker gave a report on the Halton Rally of the W.I. and W.M.S. held in Burlington. The Celebrate picnic was postponed till June 18.

The meeting closed with the Missions Benediction. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her committee.

On behalf of the ladies present, Mrs. G. Adams extended a vote of thanks to Mrs. Lambert and those helping.

The inter-estate ball club are getting rigorous workouts these nights under coach Bob Anderson.
