Mrs. L. W. Agar W.M.S. Hostess

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. L. W. Agar welcomed the ladies of the W.M.S. for their July meeting.

Mrs. M. Z. Bennett presided. The meeting opened with a hymn followed by prayer, with the approval of the minutes and other reports. Mrs. E. W. Lidka took charge. The topic was on senior citizenship.

With the assistance of Miss M. Manly, many ways of bringing happiness and contentment to those after retirement were outlined.

This was followed by the singing of a hymn and a prayer for the elderly folk and closed with God Save the Queen.

A vote of thanks was expressed to the hostess and the committee in charge of refreshments, and a social time was enjoyed.

Prince Edwards Island becomes a hunter's paradise in the autumn months with the emphasis on Hungarian partridge and ring-necked pheasant.
