Acton Suffers Player Shortage In 18-5 Defeat at Bronte Park

The Acton Intermediate suffered another defeat at the hands of the Bronte team last Saturday in Bronte park, when they lost 18-5. Unaccustomed to the soggy clay diamond, and suffering from acute shortage of players, the Acton nine (actually 10 last Saturday) scored the first run of the game in the first half inning after Arbie filed out. Skilling walked, stole second and dug for home on Paul Lawson's double.

Scott singled and Lawson was thrown out going to third. Bruce struck out to retire the side, and a game crew trotted to the field to hold the Bronte team scoreless in the latter half of the first.

Bronte scored two runs in the second after downing the Acton batters one, two, three in the second. Two walks and a double accounted for the Bronte runs.

A player shortage posed a problem for manager Murray Hood as the bench relief showed only one extra player. With no alternative, manager Hood sent J. Cunningham to the mound and replaced Arbie in right field with Gibbs, who started pitching for Acton, but was having difficulty stopping the Bronte hitters.

Walks and base hits seemed to be in the books for the opposition as they piled up their score with good base running.

Manager Hood scratched his hair in the fifth when Cunningham ran into trouble and made the decision to try Spike Scott on the mound and P. Lawson as receiver. Scott had previously been catching. Cunningham went to first, replacing Lawson.

Another Loss

A late report reveals Acton Intermediate ball team suffered another defeat at the hands of the Brampton Flower Town boys, in the time of 7-6. The game was played in Brampton park last night (Wednesday).

Minor League Sandlot Sessions

Havana Sugar Kings, under manager Hec Lambert, tightened their hold on first spot last Thursday night, when they defeated the third place Montreal Royals, handled by John Chapman, to a tune of 16-4.

Behind the steady pitching of B. Shultz, the Sugar Kings played heads up ball and scored steadily for the first four innings. They wrapped up all their runs in these innings.

Although tagged for two homers, by B. Bugala and A. Chesnam, Shultz never appeared to be in any difficulty.

Brian Barbeau knocked a homer for the winners and team-mate Gord Mason potted a triple.

Winning pitcher, B. Shultz, losing pitcher, F. Dawkins.

Umpire, I. Harris.

Manager Hec Lambert has his team rounded out to a steady hitting and playing group.

The Miami Marlins defeated the Toronto Maple Leafs 12-9 at the public school last Thursday evening.

The Marlins, guided by Hugh O'Rourke, came from behind to overcome the lead gained by the Maple Leafs, and surged ahead to a 12-9 win.

Doug Ford, pitching for the Marlins, proved effective not only on the mound, but came through with three triples.

The Toronto team battled hard to the finish but lacked a manager to assist them. Not having a manager out to the games to guide them might account for their cellar position in the league.

Lawn Bowling

Acton had the pleasure of playing against Rockwood last week in the league. It was a perfect night for lawn bowling. A large turnout attended on the Acton greens.

The league this year comprises four teams. The play is very close, so close that each week it seems the top bracket is being held by a different team. Each team is giving their best and there is a friendly spirit, which makes the game of lawn bowling an enjoyable night out.

The game between Acton and Rockwood comprised all five sets of doubles for each team. Play was very keen and interesting. Rockwood took the two points with a score of 88. Acton had 66. Rockwood is now in the top spot.

In the other league game, Georgetown travelled to Guelph on Thursday night, owing to the Guelph club having a troubles tournament on Wednesday night. Guelph was in good form and defeated Georgetown by a score of 92 to 73, which put the Guelph bowlers in second spot in the league.

Two Married Couples Honored by Friends

On Friday evening of last week, friends and neighbors gathered at Greenock school to honor Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hemaley and Mr. and Mrs. Murray Scoyne on their recent marriages.

C. McKeown acted as chairman for the evening and a variety program was enjoyed consisting of solos by Miss Mary Reid; readings, Mrs. Wm. Ballentine; piano accordion music by Mrs. Frank Thompson; piano solos, Miss Helen Landsborough; and music by the Freeman family.

Mrs. C. Aitken read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Hemaley and E. Patterson presented them with a TV chair.

Mrs. R. McKeown read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Scoyne and A. Thompson, C. Aitken and C. Binnie made the presentation of an end table and a coffee table.

The newlyweds expressed their appreciation for the gifts and Mr. McKeown and Bert Davidson extended the good wishes of all present to the recently married couples.

Lunch was served and a social hour spent.

Golfers' Corner

Rev. A. H. McKenzie and Jim Greer motored to Kitchener to gain a few pointers at the Canadian Open being held there.

It will be interesting to see if the fine points of the game rubbed off on the ardent golfers. Wonder if they can cover the 6,200 yard course at Cuten in 70?

A foursome was enjoyed at Cuten last Saturday with Bill Coon, Gord Beatty, Mick Holmes and Hugh Graham. No broken bones or clubs were reported.

Ted Force and Bill Graham played a twosome at Cuten last Wednesday night. Bob Healey and Hugh Graham also tangled in a twosome.

Sam Brunelle and Julian Zajac opposed Don Black and Bill Coon. Playing under their own rules, they finished after 18 holes.

Don Black took nine holes before he settled down and Bill Coon suggested Don bring along his transit to use on the fourth hole (just like surveying a new highway, eh Don?).

It is rumored a grudge game is in order between Mike and Bill. Any volunteers for partners? Johnny Goy, Mike Coxe, Lorne Arbie and Al Rubin had a go on the course last Wednesday (no comment).

Port Credit Tops Campbellville 3-1

The Port Credit Juniors, unable to use their own ball park for last week, played their Monday game at Campbellville at the Campbellville diamond.

Many strike-outs by Port Credit's left-hander, contributed to their 3-1 win over the Campbellville club. Bruce Hamilton, one of Campbellville's strong right-handers, with pitch after pitch, led his team, fighting to the last of the seven innings game, before a crowd of Campbellville supporters.

The Port Credit club, consisting of Kalatchwik, T. Cherwioho, Southern, Tahburn, G. Cherwioho, Sawchuk, Percy, Young and Hlbert, opened up in the second inning for three runs, leading Campbellville 3-0.

The Campbellville club, consisting of L. Hamilton, D. Winstgrove, McCartney, Eaton, Phillips, Newell, Perrella, Watson and B. Hamilton, fought back in the fifth driving in one run by Harold Walker and leaving one on base, making the final score 3-1.
