

Jersey Cow Breeders From Halton Awarded Many Prizes at C.N.E.

Halton Jersey breeders were well and worthily represented at the Canadian National Exhibition by a strong string from the Lindale herd of Maurice C. Beatty of Trafalgar township. In competition with 35 top herds from Central and Western Ontario, the Lindale herd won no less than four red ribbons, not to mention numerous seconds, thirds, etc.

Those winning the highly coveted awards were Lindale Basil Estelle Lucille 4th, which animal topped the strong dry cow class and then went on to take the reserve senior and reserve grand championship awards; Lindale

Beacon Pinn Rose, the winner in the milking three-year-olds; Lindale Bijou D Fairy 2, the winning senior heifer calf class.

Fairy also won the reserve junior female award. The Lindale herd also won first on their progeny of Lindale Basil Star.

If you should perchance visit the cattle stables in the Coliseum, you will note the long string of red ribbons hanging in front of the Lindale herd and, therefore, you will not be surprised to learn that Maurice Beatty was tied with George H. Innes and Son for the Premier Breeder Award.

Halton Places Second In County Herd Class

The highlight of the Black and White Show, in the opinion of many, is the County Herd Class held at the conclusion of the Show.

An entry in this class calls for one senior bull, one junior bull, two senior females, two junior females, and one yearling, not to exceed more than two animals.

Ten counties entered herds in this class, which automatically means there will be 60 top animals in the ring at the one time. Peel County again won the coveted W. C. Wood Trophy for the 20th consecutive year.

However, the Halton herd was in second place, followed by Waterloo, Brant, Wellington, Wentworth, Lincoln, Welland, Gray and Hamilton.

Halton breeders who contributed to this achievement included the following: R. C. Alexander, Ashville Farms Ltd., Ward Brownridge, T. J. Brownridge and Son, Emerson, Ford, Howard, Givens, Tom Hays Jr., A. G. Hunter, Tom and Keith Leslie of Wilfrid Leslie and Sons, Barbara Y. Boyle, Ross Segsworth, Gordon R. Sinclair, Jack H. Taylor and Morley Watson.

Georgetown Bull Wins Top Award

Spring Farm Fund Prebe, senior sire at the Alluvialdale Farm of Wilfrid Leslie and Son, near Georgetown, was the grand champion male in the Halton Show at the 1957 C.N.E.

With some 120 exhibitors in competition, red ribbons were as scarce as "hen's teeth." However, Halton exhibitors secured one other major award—namely, C. Howard Goswami on his winning senior yearling bull, Sheffield Supreme Chico.

The entry of Ward Brownridge won third in the same class in the milking two-year-old heifers, the entry of Pelletier Bros. of Ashville Farms Ltd. took third.

The entry of Gordon R. Sinclair of Burlington took the same award on his senior yearling heifer and we must not forget that Tom Hays Jr. of Oakville also had third on his senior heifer calf.

List Halton Entries In C.N.E. Stock Shows

By the time this appears in print, the various breeds of beef and dual purpose cattle will have had their respective shows.

Following the conclusion of the dairy shows on Friday last, we took a stroll around the cattle, sheep, swine and horse barns at the C.N.E. and judging by what we saw, the little suburban county of Halton will really be on the map by the end of the current week.

In Shorthorns, there were entries from such noted herds as T. C. Ames, Grant and Scott Campbell and W. H. Black and Son, all of Moffat, S. G. Bennett of Georgetown, Bedford and Carolyn Gardhouse, H. Hendershott and W. H. and Bob Merry, all of Milton area.

In the Angus section, we saw a nice line-up from the herd of J. H. Willmott and Son of Milton.

Then we saw a long line-up of entries of Red Polls from the herds of Leonard W. Coulson, A. H. Couveter and George E. Readhead, all of Milton.

From the time we took a quick peek around the Swine barn and there we saw some nice entries from the Tamworth herd of T. J. Brownridge and Son of Georgetown.

Finally, out in the Horse Palace, were some of those outstanding Percherons of Stan May of Huronville.

If time had permitted, we no doubt would have found equally outstanding entries from Halton in other sections of that great Show. So, don't let anyone kid you—Halton may be small and she may have had quite a few farms in the past two or three years, but the little old county is still in the farming business in a big way and likely to remain so for some years to come.

Hold S.S. Service Followed by Picnic

Sunday morning was Italy Day for the Sunday school and no regular church was held. Mr. Smith Griffin led the service which was put on by the children. Miss Linda Swackhamer, Robert Denny and Donnie Swackhamer all read stories pertaining to missions. Mr. Robert Denny played a violin solo, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." The whole class sang Jesus Loves Me, a chorus. After the service, the children, teachers and parents went to the Sunday school room where a picnic was laid out and everyone enjoyed a social time.

The ladies of the Church Hill WA held a catering service last Thursday afternoon. Delicious looking salad plates were prepared at the church and, then at supper time, were delivered to homes, which had ordered them. The women were well pleased with the results.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMillan of Shelbyville, Indiana, visited Sunday with the Kerr families.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Harold Griffin is no ill and has to be confined to hospital. We hope he soon feels well enough to come home.

Mrs. Archie Kerr, Bob and Marie visited with cousins from Rochester at Belmont Lake last week.

Miss Barbara Gillis of Dundalk spent several days last week with Miss Marie Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Turner spent the long week-end with his parents at North Bay.

Mrs. Frank Freyman visited with friends at North Bay on the week-end.

All the school children in the neighbourhood have returned to their classrooms and are settling down to ten months hard work.

STARTLED SPECTATOR

ATIKOKAN, Ont. (CP)—A 400 pound circus bear in a travelling safe show here reached out and scratched Mrs. A. Hubbs, a spectator, on the leg. She was allowed to go home after hospital treatment.

In 1956 retail spending in Canada averaged about $3,800 per family, taxation about $2,000 per family.

Editors, Publishers to Gather At Banff for Annual Convention

An army of weekly newspaper editors and publishers, wives and families, will descend on Banff next Sunday as the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association opens its 38th annual convention.

The three-day meeting will centre around discussions of the problems facing the industry and the study of improvement in printing and publishing standards. Round-table discussions on more than a dozen industry subjects will be held with representatives of the Association of Canadian Advertising Agencies and the Audit Bureau of Circulation taking part.

One of the major topics of discussion, both formal and informal, will concern the increasing problems of the newspaper industry.

Among guests at the convention are 20 British newspaper publishers who are touring Canada and will attend the convention as representatives of the Newspaper Society of Britain.

Amie Gagne of A.vida, Quebec, president of the French language Weekly Newspapers Association, and other association officers will also be present at the convention.

Local Shorthorn Herds Dominate C.N.E. Showing

A strong group of Shorthorn breeders in the Wellington, Halton, and Peel areas took the lion's share of the Shorthorn awards at the Canadian National Exhibition. The Scotdale herd of S. G. Bennett, Georgetown, took both Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor banners, with George L. Lashby, Guelph, runner-up in both instances.

The Grand Champion Female (Bennett) was the summer yearling, Scotdale Letty Broadbush. Both Junior and Reserve Junior Champion bulls, Scotdale Lieutenant and Scotdale Lucifer, came from the same herd. All told, seven fraises went to Scotdale, including get of sire, breeder's herd, last three calves, and best pair of bulls.

The Lashby herd had two first placings in bull classes, two seconds in female classes and were well up in competition throughout. W. H. Merry, Milton, had the Reserve Senior Champion Female, with Merry Brook Augusta Maid.

Others in the area placing well in the top of a number of classes were T. C. Ames, Moffat; Grant Campbell, Moffat; Bedford Gardhouse, Milton; T. E. Beardmore, Mono Mills; J. W. Daunt, Inglewood, and H. Hendershott, Milton.

Labor Day was quiet in town, especially with the rains.

Open Hog Yards Near Ancaster

The 11th provincial assembly will be opened by the Ontario Hog Producers' Co-operative, with commencement operations at Ancaster, Ontario, on Tuesday, September 10, Charles McInnis, president of the Co-operative, announced.

The new assembly yard at Ancaster, Mr. McInnis said, "will give producers greater freedom of the open market where competition is a factor in establishing price rather than permitting the trade to fix the price."

Mr. McInnis added "This yard will provide an open market outlet for hog producers in Wentworth and adjoining counties."

Willmott Flock Award Winner

In the strong Hampshire Show, the entries of J. H. Willmott and Son of Milton were prominent throughout.

A few of their top awards included the following: first and fourth on ram lambs, first, third and seventh on ewe lambs, first on pen of lambs, second and third on yearling rams, second on flock and second on get-of-sire group.

By the way, the general Joe and Johnnie also had the Reserve Female Championship on their winning ewe lamb.

Both have a bank account—and a purpose for saving

She is saving so she can continue her music studies. He is saving so he and his wife can take an extended motor trip.

The difference between reaching a goal and missing it can be the savings you put by, now, in a bank account. Such savings don't just happen. They involve some sacrifice, definite planning. But as your dollars mount up you feel a sense of accomplishment, of getting somewhere, that makes the effort more than worth while. Your bank account provides ready cash that can help take care of any emergency that may arise, or open the way to bargains or other opportunities. Whatever objective you may have in mind, and whatever use your savings may ultimately serve, you'll always be glad you saved. Save at a bank — millions do!
