ognition of her work. A visit to her home the following day assured the members she was feeling much better and the flowers were presented to her. Mrs. Clonkey, accepted into her place at the last moment to supply the music at the piano. In Acton, there are the facilities, the talent, and the people to convene such an event. Let's use it all together in an annual communal effort to stage something unique that will be Acton's. The Gaelic members of the club have contributed their share in procuring the many artists to make it a success. The club now starts making arrangements for the St. Andrew's Night dinner.

The Duke of Devonshire Chapter I.O.D.E. who supplied the refreshments, were kept busy throughout the evening supplying the crowd with many delicacies of Scottish fare.

A colorful stage set up by Ed Tyler was decorated with greenery and tartans and lit up with the cooperation of D. Mason and the Public Utilities Commission.

In all, a very pleasant and entertaining evening was had by all and it was felt all around that the event was a great success. To complete the proceedings, a bouquet of flowers was presented to Mrs. Buckner by Miss Sally Wilson.

The Women's Mission Circle of the Baptist church held their September meeting at Mrs. L. Illsley's home, Lakeview Heights.

The president, Mrs. J. Chapman, opened the meeting with a hymn and prayer. The secretary, Mrs. L. McCutcheon, read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved as read. Fall activities were discussed. Mrs. C. Landborough and Mrs. R. Costerus had charge of the devotional.

Mrs. Costerus, using an acoustic, had Missions as the basis for her scripture readings. Mrs. Landborough gave a paper on the work of the missionaries in Bolivia, India and Africa. Mrs. Costerus read a poem entitled Sir Mc Lord and Mrs. Landborough closed the devotional with prayer.

A social hour with Mrs. L. Dummer and Mrs. J. Chapman as tea hostesses was enjoyed by the group.
