

SUNDAY MARKED the 96th Anniversary of the Rockwood Presbyterian Church, when Rev. G. Lockhart Royal of Norval was the guest minister. Pictured with the visiting minister are left to right, R. Young, W. Gordon, A. Gray, A. McNabb, E. Pearen, P. Sim, and Rev. Royal.

BALLINAFAD

Local Residents Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNeely and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold McNeely returned from Friday's motor trip through northern Ontario calling on Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rider and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sinclair at Fort William and relatives in Amesdale and Dryden. Brandon and Doug were returning through the S.S. crossing at Sault Ste. Marie, stopping at Copper Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Hobden and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Russ at Sudbury.

They report that crops were good but around Boveyman croats are still in the fields. Some are still under water or so buried in the ground that they will never be harvested.

Mrs. Neelon visited with her son and family over the week end also Rev. Dobbie of Toronto.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill. Quite a number from Ballinafad and Melville attended Mr. Neelon had charge with Rev. Prof. Robert Dobbie of Emmanuel College, Toronto, guest speaker.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, who is in Guelph General hospital, is improving and will soon be returning home.

Bracebridge Church Setting for Wedding

The wedding at Knox Presbyterian church, Bracebridge on Saturday afternoon, September 21, of Diane Carolyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammond to Donald Scott Davidson of Bracebridge son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. Davidson of Acton, was a pretty occasion of late summer.

Rev. Kieran Guerro performed the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white gladioli, and ferns. Mrs. Reginald Kirk played the wedding music and the soloist, Mrs. Harry Scott, sang O God of Loveversus and O Father All Creation.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white nylon chiffon over taffeta, with tatted lace bodice, rounded neckline and a fingertip veil gathered to a satin train with simulated pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her attendants were Mrs. Karen Black, the bride's sister, as matron of honor, and Miss Joan McCormack, bridesmaid. They wore pink and blue waltz length dresses of embroidered net over white taffeta with hats and sashes to match. Mrs. Black's in pink and Miss McCormack's in blue. The matron of honor carried pink roses and white carnations, and the bridesmaids' flowers were blue cornflowers and white carnations.

The groom's brother, Mr. Douglas Davidson, was best man, and the ushers were brothers of the bridal couple, Mr. Jack Davidson and Mr. Douglas Hammond.

Knox church hall was decorated with pink and white gladioli and ferns for the reception which followed. The dinner table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake and pink and white tapers in crystal candelabra.

Guests were received by the bride's mother, who wore an ice blue sheath dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Herbert Price of Acton, whose dress was of silvered black faille with matching accessories.

For going away the bride wore a royal blue wool jersey dress with white accessories and white carriage. Upon their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will reside in Bracebridge.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Doug Davidson, Fort Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Price and Cheryl, Acton; Mr. Jack Davidson, Mr. Thomas Barker, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Showart, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Dalton and Heather, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Donald and Lynn, all of Port Carling.

Knox Auxiliary Ladies Introduce New Study

Mrs. Mel McCullough of No. 1 Highway was hostess for the September meeting of the Knox Evening Group. Mrs. George Muselle, program convener, presided and conducted a worship service, assisted by Mrs. Robert Adams and Mrs. H. L. Benne. The new study on Japan was presented by Mrs. R. Parker of the Senior W.M.F.

The business of the meeting was conducted by Mrs. George Young, first vice president. Arrangements were made for some members to attend a leadership training meeting at Knox church, Guelph.

The life membership committee reported plans to have one presentation fall with the cooperation of all members. The gifts for the bale were received by Mrs. Muselle and a nice variety of articles for the baby layette were donated.

The meeting closed with prayer and a social time was enjoyed during the tea hour. Mrs. Somerville expressed the thanks to the hostess and the committee of the month.

Now everyone received a letter from the town this week, in the form of an assessment notice. The Brownies are holding a Cookie Day this Saturday.

Many Acton residents attended the County Fair in Milton last week-end.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from Ballinafad and Melville attended Mr. Neelon had charge with Rev. Prof. Robert Dobbie of Emmanuel College, Toronto, guest speaker.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, who is in Guelph General hospital, is improving and will soon be returning home.

Bracebridge Church Setting for Wedding

The wedding at Knox Presbyterian church, Bracebridge on Saturday afternoon, September 21, of Diane Carolyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammond to Donald Scott Davidson of Bracebridge son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. Davidson of Acton, was a pretty occasion of late summer.

Rev. Kieran Guerro performed the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white gladioli, and ferns. Mrs. Reginald Kirk played the wedding music and the soloist, Mrs. Harry Scott, sang O God of Loveversus and O Father All Creation.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white nylon chiffon over taffeta, with tatted lace bodice, rounded neckline and a fingertip veil gathered to a satin train with simulated pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her attendants were Mrs. Karen Black, the bride's sister, as matron of honor, and Miss Joan McCormack, bridesmaid. They wore pink and blue waltz length dresses of embroidered net over white taffeta with hats and sashes to match. Mrs. Black's in pink and Miss McCormack's in blue. The matron of honor carried pink roses and white carnations, and the bridesmaids' flowers were blue cornflowers and white carnations.

The groom's brother, Mr. Douglas Davidson, was best man, and the ushers were brothers of the bridal couple, Mr. Jack Davidson and Mr. Douglas Hammond.

Knox church hall was decorated with pink and white gladioli and ferns for the reception which followed. The dinner table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake and pink and white tapers in crystal candelabra.

Guests were received by the bride's mother, who wore an ice blue sheath dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Herbert Price of Acton, whose dress was of silvered black faille with matching accessories.

For going away the bride wore a royal blue wool jersey dress with white accessories and white carriage. Upon their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will reside in Bracebridge.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Doug Davidson, Fort Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Price and Cheryl, Acton; Mr. Jack Davidson, Mr. Thomas Barker, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Showart, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Dalton and Heather, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Donald and Lynn, all of Port Carling.

GOODWILL USED CARS

FRANKLIN PROUTE MOTORS LTD.

All prices reduced for quick sale.

No reasonable offer refused.

GOODWILL used cars are nationally backed and advertised by General Pontiac-Buick dealers. All used cars are thoroughly checked for safety and completely reconditioned. They are always guaranteed and at Franklin Prouse Motors you receive a written warranty on each used car.

The groom's brother, Mr. Douglas Davidson, was best man, and the ushers were brothers of the bridal couple, Mr. Jack Davidson and Mr. Douglas Hammond.

Knox church hall was decorated with pink and white gladioli and ferns for the reception which followed. The dinner table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake and pink and white tapers in crystal candelabra.

Guests were received by the bride's mother, who wore an ice blue sheath dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Herbert Price of Acton, whose dress was of silvered black faille with matching accessories.

For going away the bride wore a royal blue wool jersey dress with white accessories and white carriage. Upon their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will reside in Bracebridge.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Doug Davidson, Fort Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Price and Cheryl, Acton; Mr. Jack Davidson, Mr. Thomas Barker, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Showart, all of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Dalton and Heather, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Donald and Lynn, all of Port Carling.

FRANKLIN PROUTE MOTORS LTD.

Acton and Georgetown's Exclusive Pontiac - Buick GMC Dealer

YOU CAN'T BEAT PROUSE FOR PRICE!

ACTON, ONT. PHONE 16

Personal Notes...

Of Actonians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and of Visitors in Acton Homes

Mr. M. C. Overholst and Miss Merle Overholst of Toronto visited the Johnston's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Johnstone have just returned from a five weeks' trip to the west coast and California.

Mrs. Archie Wilson and Miss Bertha Eversion of Millburg visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Ballantine on Thursday.

Mr. J. M. Mann from Barrie is visiting his sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Edson Smith and his brother, Mr. George Mann, who is ill.

Mrs. W. J. Finlay, attended a two day provincial convention of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion at the Royal York hotel in Toronto. Mrs. Finlay is serving her sixth consecutive year as Zone Commander of Zone 17 and is a member of this provincial executive.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKeown of RR 3, Acton have had as their recent guest, Mrs. Wm. McKeown of Victoria, B.C., whose late husband was a brother of Mr. C. McKeown and the late Bert McKeown.

It has been 44 years since Mrs. McKeown last visited the Acton area. She noted great changes both in the town and in the people she saw.

A family reunion was held at Greenock school in her honour. 47 members of the family were present to visit with her. A social visit was enjoyed by the older folks, while the young people had a rousing game of baseball.

Mr. Roy McKeown was in charge of games and races with prizes given to the children. A bountiful supper was served and old friendships renewed.

The meeting closed with prayer and a social time was enjoyed during the tea hour. Mrs. Somerville expressed the thanks to the hostess and the committee of the month.

Now everyone received a letter from the town this week, in the form of an assessment notice.

The Brownies are holding a Cookie Day this Saturday.

Many Acton residents attended the County Fair in Milton last week-end.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, who is in Guelph General hospital, is improving and will soon be returning home.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from Ballinafad and Melville attended Mr. Neelon had charge with Rev. Prof. Robert Dobbie of Emmanuel College, Toronto, guest speaker.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, who is in Guelph General hospital, is improving and will soon be returning home.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from Ballinafad and Melville attended Mr. Neelon had charge with Rev. Prof. Robert Dobbie of Emmanuel College, Toronto, guest speaker.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Lloyd Marshall, who is in Guelph General hospital, is improving and will soon be returning home.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing to anniversary services being held at Churchill.

Quite a number from here attended Milton Fair on Saturday. The ladies report a good day with their booth.

There was no service here on Sunday owing