Golfers' Corner

With the leaves turning to their golden hue, most of the golfers must be turning their backs on the golf course. Perhaps the evenings are being spent in raking up the dastardly things and making a bonfire.

At any rate, last weekend Chester Poycha, Don Green, K. Hulford, A. Vorey, B. Hopburn and Scotty Patterson journeyed to Bolton for a bit of a go with pro Al Bolding. Coon showed pro Al Bolding (really) how to sink the putt and the "baldie" putt was soon outlashed by Scotty Patterson who took the honors away from the Acton boys.

Cheer up fellows, Scotty is the new coach for the Georgetown Raiders and it won't hurt to make him feel good until the hockey season starts.

Bill Graham and Ted Fure had a quiet two-some last week at Guelph.

It is understood that Bill Coon visited the Orangeville course on the weekend Wonder if he is trying to prove to himself that he can't better his score for the Acton Open? Could he Bill is getting in practice for next year's open.

Saw Don Black in town last night, let he was playing a few rounds at Catten.
