

HOW MUCH AM I BID asks Jack Elliott, auctioneer as he points his cane during the Y's Men's Rummage Sale and Auction at the arena last Saturday afternoon. Articles of all shapes and sizes from a new car to the kitchen sink were put up on the auction block. Proceeds from the sale helps to support the Y's Men's Club in their various community projects.

Personal Notes...

Of Actionians Visiting Out-of-Town Points and or Visitors in Action Homes

Master Stuart Robertson, M.D., is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Lantz.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Coy and Miss Sandra Coy, Willowdale, visited friends here on Sunday.

Gordon Roggvalson, Bill Benson and Bert Wood have left on a hunting trip to Honey Harbor for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Rose visited with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holiday, Apsley, Ont., over Thanksgiving weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Reid of Grand View Farm, R.R. 2, Acton, have recently sold their farm to Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Eckerick of Campbellville and will be moving shortly to their new home in Guelph.

Among out-of-town visitors attending anniversary services at the Baptist church Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reid, Miss Dorothy Reid, Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Biggle, Millbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest West, Kitchener, Mr. W. W. Matheson, Hillburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holt, daughter and Mrs. Ted Heath, Erin, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Livingstone, George town.

BALLINAFAD

Hold Fall Rally in Church For Halton Presbytery W.A.

The fall rally of Halton Presbytery W.A. was held in Ballinafad church Thursday, October 17, when 83 ladies attended. The theme for the meeting was "The Glory of the Church". Mrs. Robert McEnergy welcomed the ladies.

Action W.A. had charge of the worship service. The morning session was taken up with the business, a panel discussion and a quiet period.

The afternoon session opened with worship by Zimmerman W.A. and a solo by Mrs. Johnson. Professor George Johnson of Emmanuel College, Toronto, was guest speaker and brought a very inspiring message and another inspiring rally came to a close.

W.A. Meeting

The W.A. met for their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Reid on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Robert McEnergy presided. Mrs. C. McEnergy had charge of the devotional period.

A call was answered with a Thanksgiving verse answered by 10 members. Plans were made for the Halton Rally to be held in the church. The meeting closed with the Marpah benediction, after which a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Perryman.

Church Decorated

The church was beautifully decorated on Sunday due to the work of Mrs. Black and her CGT girls.

The fall thanksgiving of the missionary society of Ballinafad will be held in the church on October 27. Padre Young of the O.C.C. Guelph, will be guest speaker.

Sunday being Laymen's Sunday, Mr. Arkell of Port Credit was guest speaker in Ballinafad.

Honor Parade

The family of Mr. and Mrs. John Snow honored them with a turkey dinner on Thursday night in Stewartown hall on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary. The tables were beautifully decorated and after dinner, many friends and neighbors called to extend best wishes and they received many lovely gifts.

The bridegroom, Miss Janie Givens, was the only one of the wedding party to be present. Both Mr. and Mrs. Snow are enjoying good health.

Recently Bereaved

This community was sorry to

More than 800 Canadian women are hospital visitors of the Canadian Red Cross. They make regular visits to patients in 100 hospitals from Newfoundland to British Columbia.

AUCTION SALE IN TOWNSHIP OF ERIN

Of Fully Accredited, Registered, Vaccinated Hereford Cattle, Registered Suffolk Sheep, Pigs

The undernamed has received instructions to sell:

LULIA AND HENRY WHEELER

To sell by auction at their Pleasant Valley Farm, Hillburg, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sutcliffe,

Dearborn, Michigan, are visiting friends here.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Rulston were Mr. Clarence Rulston and Mr. C. Fuller of Pickering; Mrs. H. G. Dennis and Lynne, Saul Ste Marie; Mr. and Mrs. M. Roberts and family of Guelph; Mrs. Hazel Durrell of Port Credit and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allen and daughters of Oakville.

Mr. W. W. Matheson, Hillburg and Rev. L. E. Mason and Mrs. Mason, Guelph, visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Chapman Sunday, when Rev. Mason was guest minister at the Baptist church anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Toronto, Mrs. Benson McLean and Fred of Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dunn and Arlene of Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, Clarkson; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cunningham, Hamill, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Nicklin of Guelph, visited on the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Steele.

AUCTION SALE

Of Sheep, Ponies, Farm Implements, Garden Implements, Hay, Straw and Furniture

The undernamed have received instructions from:

W. H. HANTIE

To sell by public auction at Deep Brook Farm, 1 mile east of Streeterville on Streetville Road

NATHAN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk on day of sale.

Under cover in case of bad weather. Refreshment booth.

Mr. McKinney, clerk.

W. S. O'NEIL, WM. A. GIBSON

a-17

Auctioneers

WEDELL, HANIE

TO THE MEMORIAL

REUBEN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet

and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs

ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk on day of sale.

Under cover in case of bad weather. Refreshment booth.

Mr. McKinney, clerk.

W. S. O'NEIL, WM. A. GIBSON

a-17

Auctioneers

WEDELL, HANIE

TO THE MEMORIAL

REUBEN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet

and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs

ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk on day of sale.

Under cover in case of bad weather. Refreshment booth.

Mr. McKinney, clerk.

W. S. O'NEIL, WM. A. GIBSON

a-17

Auctioneers

WEDELL, HANIE

TO THE MEMORIAL

REUBEN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet

and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs

ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk on day of sale.

Under cover in case of bad weather. Refreshment booth.

Mr. McKinney, clerk.

W. S. O'NEIL, WM. A. GIBSON

a-17

Auctioneers

WEDELL, HANIE

TO THE MEMORIAL

REUBEN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet

and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs

ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk on day of sale.

Under cover in case of bad weather. Refreshment booth.

Mr. McKinney, clerk.

W. S. O'NEIL, WM. A. GIBSON

a-17

Auctioneers

WEDELL, HANIE

TO THE MEMORIAL

REUBEN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet

and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs

ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk on day of sale.

Under cover in case of bad weather. Refreshment booth.

Mr. McKinney, clerk.

W. S. O'NEIL, WM. A. GIBSON

a-17

Auctioneers

WEDELL, HANIE

TO THE MEMORIAL

REUBEN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet

and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs

ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk on day of sale.

Under cover in case of bad weather. Refreshment booth.

Mr. McKinney, clerk.

W. S. O'NEIL, WM. A. GIBSON

a-17

Auctioneers

WEDELL, HANIE

TO THE MEMORIAL

REUBEN, NOVEMBER 2, 1957

At 10 o'clock the following

LIVESTOCK, HAIR & HORSES

Hackney pony, well broken, quiet

and gentle, pony harness and saddle, pony sulky, 20" coys, 20" lams, 5 ram lambs.

PIGS - 30 young, York pigs

ready to wean by sale day.

TELEGRAMS - Cash with clerk